

SECTION 1 — IMPORT-READY SOURCE FILE

AP U.S. History MCQ Practice Exam 2

PART A — QUESTIONS

APUSH-MCQ2-001

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — Period 1: 1491–1607

Period: Period 1: 1491–1607

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of selected Columbian Exchange effects.

Item or Process | Movement or Effect

Smallpox and measles | Spread from Europe to the Americas

Maize and potatoes | Spread from the Americas to Europe, Africa, and Asia

Horses | Spread from Europe to the Americas

Silver | Extracted in Spanish America and entered global trade

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) European contact produced only environmental changes within Europe.
- B) The Columbian Exchange created biological, economic, and cultural connections across the Atlantic world.
- C) Native American societies remained unaffected by Afro-Eurasian animals and diseases.
- D) Spanish colonization ended global trade in precious metals.

APUSH-MCQ2-002

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — Period 1: 1491–1607

Period: Period 1: 1491–1607

Theme: GEO — Geography and the Environment

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of selected Columbian Exchange effects: smallpox and measles spread from Europe to the Americas; maize and potatoes spread from the Americas to Europe, Africa, and Asia; horses spread from Europe to the Americas; silver from Spanish America entered global trade. Which development most directly resulted from the disease patterns shown?

- A) The immediate end of Spanish colonial expansion
- B) The creation of equal diplomatic alliances between Spain and all Native nations
- C) A decline in European interest in American resources
- D) Severe population losses among many Native communities

APUSH-MCQ2-003

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — Period 1: 1491–1607

Period: Period 1: 1491–1607

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of selected Columbian Exchange effects: smallpox and measles spread from Europe to the Americas; maize and potatoes spread from the Americas to Europe, Africa, and Asia; horses spread from Europe to the Americas; silver from Spanish America entered global trade. Which broader historical situation best explains the movement of silver shown in the table?

- A) Spanish colonization connected American mining labor systems to expanding global commerce.
- B) English Puritans established plantation slavery in New England.
- C) Native peoples controlled all European Atlantic shipping routes.
- D) The United States used industrial factories to dominate global trade.

APUSH-MCQ2-004

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text comparison chart of English colonial regions, c. 1700.

Region | Labor and economy | Settlement pattern | Social features

Chesapeake | Tobacco, enslaved and indentured labor | Dispersed plantations | Planter elite grew stronger

New England | Mixed farming, trade, fishing | Towns and villages | Congregational communities

Middle Colonies | Grain, commerce, mixed labor | Diverse towns and farms | Religious and ethnic pluralism

Which conclusion is best supported by the chart?

- A) All English colonies developed identical labor systems and social structures.
- B) New England relied more heavily on large tobacco plantations than the Chesapeake.
- C) Regional differences shaped colonial economies, settlement, and social hierarchies.
- D) The Middle Colonies rejected commercial farming and urban trade.

APUSH-MCQ2-005

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text comparison chart of English colonial regions, c. 1700. The Chesapeake is associated with tobacco and plantation labor, New England with mixed farming and commerce, and the Middle Colonies with grain, commerce, and diverse settlement. Which factor most directly contributed to the Chesapeake pattern?

- A) The profitability of staple-crop agriculture in a warmer climate
- B) The absence of European demand for tobacco
- C) The dominance of compact Puritan town settlement
- D) The prohibition of enslaved labor in all southern colonies

APUSH-MCQ2-006

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text comparison chart of English colonial regions, c. 1700. New England is described as having towns, villages, mixed farming, fishing, trade, and Congregational communities. Which evidence would most strengthen the chart’s description of New England?

- A) Records showing widespread rice plantations worked by enslaved labor
- B) Town records showing local church membership, schools, and communal land decisions
- C) Ship manifests showing that New England had no involvement in trade
- D) Royal decrees creating Catholic missions across New England

APUSH-MCQ2-007

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text comparison chart of English colonial regions, c. 1700. The Middle Colonies are described as religiously and ethnically plural, with diverse towns and farms. Which context best explains this pattern?

- A) The complete absence of European migration to the region
- B) The region’s isolation from Atlantic commerce
- C) The immediate abolition of private property in the colonies
- D) Dutch, English, German, and other migrant communities shaped the region’s development.

APUSH-MCQ2-008

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated revolutionary pamphlet, 1776, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “A people long accustomed to local assemblies cannot be expected to surrender every right to ministers across the sea. Independence is not rebellion against order; it is the recovery of government by consent.” The pamphlet’s point of view is best explained by which situation?

- A) Patriots increasingly argued that monarchy and parliamentary authority threatened colonial rights.
- B) Loyalists successfully convinced most colonists to reject independence.
- C) The federal government used the Constitution to suppress political parties.
- D) Enslaved people received full citizenship rights in every state during the Revolution.

APUSH-MCQ2-009

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated revolutionary pamphlet, 1776, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The pamphlet links independence to “government by consent.” Which idea most directly shaped this argument?

- A) Social Darwinism
- B) Containment
- C) Natural rights and popular sovereignty
- D) Mercantilist protection of imperial trade

APUSH-MCQ2-010

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated revolutionary pamphlet, 1776, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The pamphlet presents independence as the recovery of self-government. Which broader Atlantic context helped make such arguments influential?

- A) The decline of Enlightenment political thought
- B) Enlightenment ideas about rights, sovereignty, and legitimate government
- C) The disappearance of print culture in British North America
- D) The end of all imperial warfare in the eighteenth century

APUSH-MCQ2-011

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated revolutionary pamphlet, 1776, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The pamphlet claims that independence would restore government by consent. Which argument would most directly complicate the pamphlet’s claim?

- A) Colonial assemblies existed before independence.
- B) Patriots criticized monarchy and Parliament.
- C) The Declaration of Independence appealed to natural rights.
- D) Many women, enslaved people, free Black people, and Native peoples remained excluded from political equality.

APUSH-MCQ2-012

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that the weakness of the Articles of Confederation became more visible when state and national governments struggled to address debt, interstate disputes, and unrest in the 1780s. Which evidence best supports this interpretation?

- A) The passage of the Dawes Act
- B) Shays' Rebellion and Congress's limited ability to raise revenue
- C) The creation of the Monroe Doctrine
- D) The New Deal expansion of federal relief programs

APUSH-MCQ2-013

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that the Articles of Confederation struggled with debt, interstate disputes, and unrest in the 1780s. Which economic situation contributed most directly to these tensions?

- A) Wartime debt, scarce currency, and disputes over taxation
- B) The discovery of gold in California
- C) The collapse of the plantation economy after the Civil War
- D) The rise of mass consumer credit in the 1920s

APUSH-MCQ2-014

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that the Articles of Confederation struggled with debt, interstate disputes, and unrest in the 1780s. Which development most directly followed from concerns like those described?

- A) The immediate creation of a national income tax
- B) The permanent abolition of state governments
- C) The Philadelphia Convention and creation of a stronger federal framework
- D) The United States' entry into World War I

APUSH-MCQ2-015

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated letter from a young textile worker in Lowell, Massachusetts, 1835, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “The bell fixes each hour of the day. Wages give me a measure of independence, yet the overseer’s rules reach from the mill floor into the boardinghouse.” Which development is best reflected in the letter?

- A) The decline of factory discipline in early industrial towns
- B) The expansion of plantation slavery into New England factories
- C) The replacement of wage labor by household subsistence production
- D) The growth of wage labor and factory discipline in the early industrial economy

APUSH-MCQ2-016

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated letter from a young textile worker in Lowell, Massachusetts, 1835, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The writer notes that wages provide “a measure of independence” but factory rules extend into the boardinghouse. Which perspective is most directly represented?

- A) A young woman experiencing both opportunity and restriction in industrial wage work
- B) A plantation owner defending enslaved labor in the Deep South
- C) A railroad executive opposing immigration
- D) A Native leader negotiating removal treaties

APUSH-MCQ2-017

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated letter from a young textile worker in Lowell, Massachusetts, 1835, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The letter describes factory schedules, wages, and boardinghouse rules. Which broader cultural change was associated with this development?

- A) The disappearance of gender expectations in the workplace
- B) New debates over women’s labor, respectability, and independence
- C) The end of wage work among young women
- D) The decline of textile production in the Northeast before 1820

APUSH-MCQ2-018

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated letter from a young textile worker in Lowell, Massachusetts, 1835, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. Which evidence from the letter best supports the claim that industrialization changed workers' relationship to time?

- A) The reference to boardinghouse rules
- B) The mention of a young worker writing a letter
- C) The statement that wages gave the worker independence
- D) The statement that "the bell fixes each hour of the day"

APUSH-MCQ2-019

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: GEO — Geography and the Environment

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map, c. 1803–1820. The Louisiana Purchase doubles the claimed size of the United States. The Mississippi River and New Orleans are highlighted as key commercial routes. Several Native nations are shown within the purchased territory. Which context best explains why U.S. leaders valued the region?

- A) Access to western lands and control of trade routes along the Mississippi River
- B) A desire to end all commercial agriculture in the West
- C) A plan to return the region to French imperial control
- D) The discovery of large industrial steel centers in the Great Plains

APUSH-MCQ2-020

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map, c. 1803–1820. The Louisiana Purchase doubles the claimed size of the United States, highlights New Orleans and the Mississippi River, and shows Native nations within the purchased territory. Which diplomatic circumstance made the purchase possible?

- A) Spain's decision to join the United States as a state
- B) Britain's peaceful surrender of Canada
- C) Mexico's recognition of U.S. control over Texas
- D) France's willingness to sell the territory during the Napoleonic era

APUSH-MCQ2-021

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map, c. 1803–1820. The Louisiana Purchase doubles the claimed size of the United States and includes Native nations within the territory. Which debate was intensified by the acquisition?

- A) Whether the United States should join NATO

- B) Whether the federal government had constitutional authority to acquire new territory
- C) Whether the colonies should boycott British goods
- D) Whether Reconstruction governments should be readmitted to Congress

APUSH-MCQ2-022

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated newspaper editorial from Kansas Territory, 1856, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “Men arrive not to farm but to vote. Rifles travel with ballots, and each side claims that popular sovereignty alone can decide the future of this territory.” Which issue is most directly reflected in the editorial?

- A) Whether the United States should annex Hawaii
- B) Whether tariffs should fund internal improvements
- C) Whether slavery would expand into western territories
- D) Whether women should gain voting rights nationally

APUSH-MCQ2-023

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated newspaper editorial from Kansas Territory, 1856, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The editorial says that men arrive “not to farm but to vote” and that “rifles travel with ballots.” The situation described was most directly caused by which policy?

- A) The Kansas-Nebraska Act’s use of popular sovereignty
- B) The Monroe Doctrine’s warning against European colonization
- C) The Indian Removal Act’s creation of western reservations
- D) The Social Security Act’s old-age insurance program

APUSH-MCQ2-024

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated newspaper editorial from Kansas Territory, 1856, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. Which evidence from the editorial best supports the claim that democratic procedures were being undermined by sectional conflict?

- A) The reference to the future of the territory
- B) The mention of settlers arriving in Kansas

- C) The claim that each side supported popular sovereignty
- D) The statement that “rifles travel with ballots”

APUSH-MCQ2-025

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated newspaper editorial from Kansas Territory, 1856, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The editorial describes violence, voting, and sectional conflict over slavery in Kansas. Which broader development did such conflict help accelerate?

- A) The end of all political parties before the Civil War
- B) The collapse of the Second Party System and the rise of the Republican Party
- C) The immediate readmission of former Confederate states
- D) The adoption of isolationism after World War I

APUSH-MCQ2-026

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described lithograph, c. 1863–1865. The image shows African American men in Union uniforms drilling near a camp. Women and children stand near a schoolhouse in the background. A banner reads “Freedom and Union.” Which historical situation is most directly reflected in the lithograph?

- A) The failure of African Americans to participate in the Civil War
- B) The immediate end of racial discrimination in the Union army
- C) Emancipation expanded African American claims to military service, education, and citizenship.
- D) Reconstruction governments had already guaranteed full equality in all states.

APUSH-MCQ2-027

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described lithograph, c. 1863–1865. African American soldiers drill near a camp, women and children stand near a schoolhouse, and a banner reads “Freedom and Union.” Which element of the lithograph best supports the claim that the Civil War became a struggle over citizenship as well as union?

- A) African American soldiers are shown wearing Union uniforms.
- B) The image includes trees near a military camp.

- C) The lithograph is dated during the 1860s.
- D) A schoolhouse appears in the background.

APUSH-MCQ2-028

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described lithograph, c. 1863–1865. African American men in Union uniforms drill near a camp while women and children stand near a schoolhouse under a banner reading “Freedom and Union.” Which federal action most directly helped make the scene possible?

- A) The Fugitive Slave Act
- B) The Compromise of 1850
- C) The Dawes Severalty Act
- D) The Emancipation Proclamation and subsequent recruitment of Black soldiers

APUSH-MCQ2-029

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described lithograph, c. 1863–1865. African American soldiers, families, and a schoolhouse appear under a “Freedom and Union” banner. Which broader cultural change is most directly suggested by the schoolhouse in the image?

- A) The end of African American interest in education after emancipation
- B) Freedpeople and their allies viewed education as central to freedom and community building.
- C) Southern states fully funded integrated public schools during the Civil War.
- D) The Union army prohibited literacy among formerly enslaved people.

APUSH-MCQ2-030

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of urban and immigrant change.

Indicator | 1870 | 1900

Foreign-born population in major industrial cities | large | larger

Tenement housing density | rising | very high

Factory and service jobs | expanding | expanded further

Municipal services | uneven | strained by rapid growth

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Immigration and industrial job growth contributed to rapid urbanization and pressure on city services.

- B) Industrial cities became less crowded as immigration increased.
- C) Municipal services expanded faster than urban population growth in every city.
- D) Foreign-born workers avoided factory and service employment.

APUSH-MCQ2-031

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of urban and immigrant change: foreign-born population in major industrial cities grew, tenement density rose, factory and service jobs expanded, and municipal services were strained. Which social development most directly accompanied these trends?

- A) The disappearance of ethnic neighborhoods
- B) The end of urban poverty
- C) The decline of political machines
- D) The growth of settlement houses and urban reform efforts

APUSH-MCQ2-032

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of urban and immigrant change: foreign-born population in major industrial cities grew, tenement density rose, factory and service jobs expanded, and municipal services were strained. Which political development was most directly encouraged by the conditions shown?

- A) The collapse of all city governments
- B) The abolition of citizenship for immigrants
- C) The rise of political machines that exchanged services and jobs for votes
- D) The immediate end of public health concerns in cities

APUSH-MCQ2-033

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of urban and immigrant change: foreign-born population in major industrial cities grew, tenement density rose, factory and service jobs expanded, and municipal services were strained. Which broader economic context best explains the growth in factory and service jobs?

- A) The decline of mechanized production after the Civil War

- B) The expansion of industrial capitalism and urban markets
- C) The return to household production in most cities
- D) The collapse of railroad networks before 1870

APUSH-MCQ2-034

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated farmers' alliance platform, 1890s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. "The farmer sells in a market he cannot control and borrows at rates he cannot endure. Rail charges, tight money, and distant corporations press upon those who feed the nation." Which movement is most directly reflected in the platform?

- A) Populism and agrarian protest against corporate and financial power
- B) The First Great Awakening
- C) The Federalist campaign for ratification
- D) The Harlem Renaissance

APUSH-MCQ2-035

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated farmers' alliance platform, 1890s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The platform criticizes rail charges, tight money, and corporations. Which audience was the platform most likely intended to mobilize?

- A) British officials enforcing the Navigation Acts
- B) Northern abolitionists during the 1830s
- C) Suburban homeowners after World War II
- D) Farmers and workers dissatisfied with Gilded Age economic power

APUSH-MCQ2-036

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated farmers' alliance platform, 1890s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The platform argues that farmers were pressured by railroads, credit, and distant corporations. Which demand was most closely associated with this movement?

- A) Immediate U.S. entry into the League of Nations
- B) Expansion of plantation slavery into Kansas

- C) Regulation of railroads and changes to monetary policy
- D) Restoration of British imperial authority

APUSH-MCQ2-037

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map, c. 1898–1905. The map highlights Puerto Rico, Guam, the Philippines, Hawaii, and naval routes across the Caribbean and Pacific. A note states that U.S. officials increasingly discussed coaling stations, overseas markets, and strategic reach. Which conclusion is best supported by the map?

- A) The United States withdrew from overseas affairs after the Civil War.
- B) The United States expanded its imperial and strategic presence beyond the continent.
- C) The United States limited foreign policy to alliances with Native nations.
- D) The United States rejected naval power as a foreign-policy tool.

APUSH-MCQ2-038

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map, c. 1898–1905. Puerto Rico, Guam, the Philippines, Hawaii, and naval routes are highlighted, with notes about coaling stations, overseas markets, and strategic reach. Which debate was most directly intensified by the developments shown?

- A) Whether overseas empire was compatible with American republican ideals
- B) Whether colonial assemblies should resist the Stamp Act
- C) Whether the Articles of Confederation should be replaced
- D) Whether enslaved people should be counted for representation

APUSH-MCQ2-039

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map, c. 1898–1905. The map highlights U.S. territories and naval routes across the Caribbean and Pacific, with notes about overseas markets and strategic reach. Which economic context helped encourage such expansion?

- A) The collapse of industrial production in the United States
- B) The end of international trade after Reconstruction
- C) The disappearance of U.S. interest in Asian markets
- D) Industrial growth increased interest in foreign markets and resources.

APUSH-MCQ2-040

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map, c. 1898–1905. The map highlights Puerto Rico, Guam, the Philippines, Hawaii, and naval routes across the Caribbean and Pacific. Which event most directly contributed to the territorial pattern shown?

- A) The War of 1812
- B) The Mexican-American War
- C) The Spanish-American War
- D) The Korean War

APUSH-MCQ2-041

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: GEO — Geography and the Environment

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described photograph, 1930s. A farm family stands beside a truck loaded with furniture, bedding, and cooking pots. Dust covers the road behind them. A handwritten sign on the truck reads “California.” Which development is best reflected in the photograph?

- A) Environmental disaster and economic hardship contributed to internal migration during the Great Depression.
- B) The New Deal ended all farm foreclosures before migration began.
- C) Industrial cities lost population because workers moved to isolated farms.
- D) World War II defense jobs caused immediate migration to California in 1930.

APUSH-MCQ2-042

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described photograph, 1930s. A farm family stands beside a truck loaded with household goods. Dust covers the road, and a sign on the truck reads “California.” The photographer’s likely purpose was to document which issue?

- A) The success of plantation agriculture after the Civil War
- B) The human impact of economic depression and Dust Bowl displacement
- C) The growth of suburban highways after World War II
- D) The expansion of colonial towns in New England

APUSH-MCQ2-043

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described photograph, 1930s. A Dust Bowl farm family travels west with household goods loaded onto a truck. Which federal response belongs to the same historical context?

- A) The Northwest Ordinance
- B) The Freedmen's Bureau
- C) The Marshall Plan
- D) New Deal agricultural and relief programs

APUSH-MCQ2-044

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described photograph, 1930s. A displaced farm family travels west with household goods during the Dust Bowl. Which broader consequence followed from similar migrations?

- A) The complete disappearance of rural poverty
- B) The end of federal involvement in economic relief
- C) Strains in receiving communities and new attention to migrant labor conditions
- D) The immediate abolition of agricultural wage work

APUSH-MCQ2-045

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated policy memo, 1947, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. "Aid to unstable nations should not be charity alone. It must show that democratic governments can answer hunger, fear, and Communist pressure without surrendering independence." Which policy is most directly reflected in the memo?

- A) Containment through economic and military assistance
- B) Isolationism after World War I
- C) Imperial expansion after the Spanish-American War
- D) Neutrality during the French Revolution

APUSH-MCQ2-046

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated policy memo, 1947, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The memo argues that aid should help democratic governments resist “Communist pressure.” Which development most directly followed from this approach?

- A) The United States ended all overseas alliances.
- B) The federal government abolished national security agencies.
- C) The United States returned to pre-1890 isolationism.
- D) The United States expanded its global commitments during the Cold War.

APUSH-MCQ2-047

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated policy memo, 1947, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The memo links foreign aid, democracy, and resistance to Communism. Which domestic development was connected to this Cold War context?

- A) The immediate end of anti-Communist investigations
- B) Loyalty programs and fears of Communist influence within the United States
- C) The disappearance of political debate over foreign policy
- D) The repeal of the Bill of Rights

APUSH-MCQ2-048

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated policy memo, 1947, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The memo claims that aid can help democratic governments resist Communist pressure. Which argument is best supported by the memo?

- A) Cold War policy relied only on direct military conquest.
- B) The United States rejected all economic tools in foreign policy.
- C) Containment combined ideological, economic, and strategic goals.
- D) The United States treated Communism as only a domestic issue.

APUSH-MCQ2-049

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated statement from a Chicana labor organizer, early 1970s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “We ask for more than wages. We ask that growers, lawmakers, and consumers see the people who harvest food as families with language, health, dignity, and rights.” The statement’s point of view is best explained by which historical situation?

A) Latino/a labor and civil rights activism challenged economic exploitation and cultural marginalization.

B) The First Great Awakening encouraged Puritan town meetings.

C) The Kansas-Nebraska Act created popular sovereignty.

D) The Articles of Confederation established a strong federal judiciary.

APUSH-MCQ2-050

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated statement from a Chicana labor organizer, early 1970s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The speaker asks that consumers recognize the people who harvest food as families with dignity and rights. Which labor issue is most directly reflected?

A) Railroad rate regulation in the Gilded Age

B) Factory discipline in antebellum textile mills

C) Unionization of steelworkers during World War II

D) Farmworker organizing over wages, working conditions, and recognition

APUSH-MCQ2-051

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated statement from a Chicana labor organizer, early 1970s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The statement links labor rights, language, health, dignity, and family life. Which broader pattern does the statement reflect?

A) The decline of rights-based activism after World War II

B) The expansion of social movements that connected identity, labor, and political rights

C) The complete absence of women from labor organizing

D) The end of agricultural labor conflict after 1945

APUSH-MCQ2-052

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of political and social trends.

Trend | Late 20th to early 21st century pattern

Party voting in Congress | More ideologically divided

Cable news and digital media | More fragmented audiences

Religious and cultural issues | More prominent in national campaigns

Campaign fundraising | Increasingly expensive and nationalized

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

A) Political parties became less ideologically distinct after 1980.

B) Mass media fragmentation eliminated national political conflict.

C) Political polarization grew alongside changes in media, campaign finance, and cultural politics.

D) Religious and cultural issues disappeared from electoral politics.

APUSH-MCQ2-053

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of political and social trends: party voting becomes more ideologically divided, media audiences fragment, cultural issues become prominent in campaigns, and fundraising becomes more expensive and nationalized. Which development most directly contributed to the cultural pattern shown?

A) Debates over abortion, school prayer, gender roles, and LGBTQ+ rights

B) The disappearance of religious activism from politics

C) The end of political campaigning after 1980

D) The decline of television and internet media in public life

APUSH-MCQ2-054

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of political and social trends: party voting becomes more ideologically divided, media audiences fragment, cultural issues become prominent in campaigns, and fundraising becomes more expensive and nationalized. Which technological change helped intensify the media pattern shown?

A) The invention of the cotton gin

B) The expansion of canals and turnpikes

C) The spread of telegraph lines in the 1840s

D) The growth of cable television, talk radio, and internet platforms

APUSH-MCQ2-055

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of political and social trends: party voting becomes more ideologically divided, media audiences fragment, cultural issues become prominent in campaigns, and fundraising becomes more expensive and nationalized. Which argument about modern U.S. politics is best supported by the table?

- A) Polarization has been shaped by institutional, cultural, technological, and financial changes.
- B) Modern political conflict has been caused only by foreign policy debates.
- C) Party divisions disappeared as campaign fundraising increased.
- D) Digital media created a single shared national political culture.

PART B — ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

APUSH-MCQ2-001 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The Columbian Exchange created biological, economic, and cultural connections across the Atlantic world. — Explanation: The table shows the movement of diseases, crops, animals, and silver across continents, demonstrating broad Atlantic and global connections.

APUSH-MCQ2-002 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Severe population losses among many Native communities — Explanation: Diseases introduced from Europe caused catastrophic mortality among many Native peoples who lacked prior exposure.

APUSH-MCQ2-003 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Spanish colonization connected American mining labor systems to expanding global commerce. — Explanation: Silver extraction in Spanish America linked coerced labor and colonial mining to global trade networks.

APUSH-MCQ2-004 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Regional differences shaped colonial economies, settlement, and social hierarchies. — Explanation: The chart contrasts plantation labor, town settlement, mixed farming, and pluralism across regions.

APUSH-MCQ2-005 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The profitability of staple-crop agriculture in a warmer climate — Explanation: Tobacco cultivation in the Chesapeake depended on climate, land, export demand, and labor systems.

APUSH-MCQ2-006 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Town records showing local church membership, schools, and communal land decisions — Explanation: These records would directly support the chart's description of New England town life and Congregational communities.

APUSH-MCQ2-007 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Dutch, English, German, and other migrant communities shaped the region's development. — Explanation: The Middle Colonies were marked by ethnic and religious diversity due to varied European migration and earlier Dutch settlement.

APUSH-MCQ2-008 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Patriots increasingly argued that monarchy and parliamentary authority threatened colonial rights. — Explanation: The pamphlet's defense of consent and independence reflects Patriot arguments in 1776.

APUSH-MCQ2-009 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Natural rights and popular sovereignty — Explanation: "Government by consent" reflects Enlightenment and republican ideas about rights and popular sovereignty.

APUSH-MCQ2-010 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Enlightenment ideas about rights, sovereignty, and legitimate government — Explanation: Enlightenment political thought helped shape revolutionary arguments against inherited authority and empire.

APUSH-MCQ2-011 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Many women, enslaved people, free Black people, and Native peoples remained excluded from political equality. — Explanation: The pamphlet's broad language of consent was limited in practice by exclusions based on race, gender, status, and sovereignty.

APUSH-MCQ2-012 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Shays' Rebellion and Congress's limited ability to raise revenue — Explanation: Shays' Rebellion and fiscal weakness exposed problems under the Articles of Confederation.

APUSH-MCQ2-013 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Wartime debt, scarce currency, and disputes over taxation — Explanation: Postwar economic instability contributed to unrest and concerns about weak central authority.

APUSH-MCQ2-014 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The Philadelphia Convention and creation of a stronger federal framework — Explanation: Concerns about the Articles helped lead to the Constitutional Convention and a stronger federal system.

APUSH-MCQ2-015 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The growth of wage labor and factory discipline in the early industrial economy — Explanation: The letter describes wage work, factory bells, overseers, and boardinghouse regulation.

APUSH-MCQ2-016 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: A young woman experiencing both opportunity and restriction in industrial wage work — Explanation: The source presents wages as independence while emphasizing restrictions imposed by mill discipline.

APUSH-MCQ2-017 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: New debates over women's labor, respectability, and independence — Explanation: Lowell-style factory work created new opportunities for some women while raising questions about gender roles and control.

APUSH-MCQ2-018 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The statement that "the bell fixes each hour of the day" — Explanation: Factory bells imposed clock-based discipline, changing workers' relationship to time.

APUSH-MCQ2-019 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Access to western lands and control of trade routes along the Mississippi River — Explanation: The Mississippi River and New Orleans were crucial to western commerce and expansion.

APUSH-MCQ2-020 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: France's willingness to sell the territory during the Napoleonic era — Explanation: Napoleon's imperial priorities and financial needs helped make the Louisiana Purchase possible.

APUSH-MCQ2-021 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Whether the federal government had constitutional authority to acquire new territory — Explanation: The purchase raised constitutional questions about implied powers and territorial acquisition.

APUSH-MCQ2-022 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Whether slavery would expand into western territories — Explanation: The editorial's references to popular sovereignty, voting, and violence in Kansas reflect sectional conflict over slavery expansion.

APUSH-MCQ2-023 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The Kansas-Nebraska Act's use of popular sovereignty — Explanation: The Kansas-Nebraska Act allowed settlers to decide slavery's status, encouraging competing migration and violence.

APUSH-MCQ2-024 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The statement that "rifles travel with ballots" — Explanation: This phrase shows that violence accompanied voting, undermining democratic procedures.

APUSH-MCQ2-025 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The collapse of the Second Party System and the rise of the Republican Party — Explanation: Conflict over Kansas and slavery expansion helped destroy older party alignments and strengthen the Republican Party.

APUSH-MCQ2-026 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Emancipation expanded African American claims to military service, education, and citizenship. — Explanation: The lithograph connects Black Union service with family, schooling, freedom, and citizenship claims.

APUSH-MCQ2-027 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: African American soldiers are shown wearing Union uniforms. — Explanation: Black military service powerfully supported claims to citizenship and national belonging.

APUSH-MCQ2-028 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The Emancipation Proclamation and subsequent recruitment of Black soldiers — Explanation: The Emancipation Proclamation transformed Union war aims and opened the way for large-scale Black enlistment.

APUSH-MCQ2-029 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Freedpeople and their allies viewed education as central to freedom and community building. — Explanation: The schoolhouse symbolizes the importance many freedpeople placed on literacy, education, and autonomy.

APUSH-MCQ2-030 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Immigration and industrial job growth contributed to rapid urbanization and pressure on city services. — Explanation: The table links immigration, jobs, density, and strained services in industrial cities.

APUSH-MCQ2-031 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The growth of settlement houses and urban reform efforts — Explanation: Urban crowding, poverty, and immigrant needs encouraged settlement houses and reform campaigns.

APUSH-MCQ2-032 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The rise of political machines that exchanged services and jobs for votes — Explanation: Strained services and immigrant urban communities created opportunities for political machines.

APUSH-MCQ2-033 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The expansion of industrial capitalism and urban markets — Explanation: Industrial capitalism increased demand for factory and service labor in growing cities.

APUSH-MCQ2-034 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Populism and agrarian protest against corporate and financial power — Explanation: The platform's criticism of railroads, tight money, and corporations reflects Populist agrarian protest.

APUSH-MCQ2-035 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Farmers and workers dissatisfied with Gilded Age economic power — Explanation: The platform sought to mobilize those who felt harmed by railroads, creditors, and corporate concentration.

APUSH-MCQ2-036 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Regulation of railroads and changes to monetary policy — Explanation: Populists demanded railroad regulation and monetary reforms such as expanded currency.

APUSH-MCQ2-037 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The United States expanded its imperial and strategic presence beyond the continent. — Explanation: The map's territories and naval routes show overseas expansion in the Caribbean and Pacific.

APUSH-MCQ2-038 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Whether overseas empire was compatible with American republican ideals — Explanation: Imperial expansion sparked debate over whether colonial rule contradicted American self-government principles.

APUSH-MCQ2-039 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Industrial growth increased interest in foreign markets and resources. — Explanation: Industrialization encouraged U.S. leaders and businesses to seek markets, resources, and strategic routes abroad.

APUSH-MCQ2-040 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The Spanish-American War — Explanation: The war and its aftermath led to U.S. control over Puerto Rico, Guam, and the Philippines.

APUSH-MCQ2-041 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Environmental disaster and economic hardship contributed to internal migration during the Great Depression. — Explanation: Dust, household goods, and a California destination indicate Dust Bowl displacement during the Depression.

APUSH-MCQ2-042 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The human impact of economic depression and Dust Bowl displacement — Explanation: The photograph documents people affected by environmental disaster and economic collapse.

APUSH-MCQ2-043 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: New Deal agricultural and relief programs — Explanation: Dust Bowl migration and farm hardship occurred in the context of New Deal relief and agricultural policy.

APUSH-MCQ2-044 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Strains in receiving communities and new attention to migrant labor conditions — Explanation: Dust Bowl migration created labor competition, social tensions, and concern over migrant living and working conditions.

APUSH-MCQ2-045 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Containment through economic and military assistance — Explanation: The memo's aid to democratic governments resisting Communism reflects containment policy.

APUSH-MCQ2-046 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The United States expanded its global commitments during the Cold War. — Explanation: Containment led the United States to assume long-term diplomatic, economic, and military commitments abroad.

APUSH-MCQ2-047 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Loyalty programs and fears of Communist influence within the United States — Explanation: Cold War anti-Communism shaped domestic politics through investigations, loyalty programs, and public fears.

APUSH-MCQ2-048 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Containment combined ideological, economic, and strategic goals. — Explanation: The memo connects democracy, aid, hunger, fear, and Communist pressure, showing containment’s multiple dimensions.

APUSH-MCQ2-049 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Latino/a labor and civil rights activism challenged economic exploitation and cultural marginalization. — Explanation: The statement links labor, language, health, dignity, and rights, reflecting Chicano/a and farmworker activism.

APUSH-MCQ2-050 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Farmworker organizing over wages, working conditions, and recognition — Explanation: The speaker’s focus on growers, consumers, harvest labor, dignity, and rights points to farmworker organizing.

APUSH-MCQ2-051 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The expansion of social movements that connected identity, labor, and political rights — Explanation: The statement reflects a broader postwar pattern of rights-based activism connecting identity and economic justice.

APUSH-MCQ2-052 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Political polarization grew alongside changes in media, campaign finance, and cultural politics. — Explanation: The table links ideological party voting, fragmented media, cultural issues, and nationalized fundraising.

APUSH-MCQ2-053 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Debates over abortion, school prayer, gender roles, and LGBTQ+ rights — Explanation: These issues became central to late twentieth- and early twenty-first-century cultural politics.

APUSH-MCQ2-054 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The growth of cable television, talk radio, and internet platforms — Explanation: Cable, talk radio, and online platforms contributed to fragmented political media audiences.

APUSH-MCQ2-055 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Polarization has been shaped by institutional, cultural, technological, and financial changes. — Explanation: The table supports a broad argument connecting polarization to party voting, media, cultural conflict, and campaign finance.

SECTION 2 — SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — DO NOT IMPORT

SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — APUSH-MCQ2

- APUSH-MCQ2-001–003: Unit 1; Period 1; Atlantic world, Native peoples, Spanish America, global trade; plain-text Columbian Exchange table; disease diffusion, crops, horses, silver extraction; causation and data interpretation path; exchange/effects table; targets misconception that the Columbian Exchange was one-directional or only biological.

- APUSH-MCQ2-004–007: Unit 2; Period 2; Chesapeake, New England, Middle Colonies, migrants, religious communities; regional comparison chart; colonial labor, settlement, economy, pluralism; comparison and contextualization path; colonial-region table; targets misconception that English colonies developed uniform economies and social systems.

- APUSH-MCQ2-008–011: Unit 3; Period 3; Patriots, excluded groups, Atlantic political ideas; original simulated revolutionary pamphlet, 1776; independence, consent, natural rights, popular sovereignty, limits of revolutionary equality; sourcing and argument-complication path; primary-source-style pamphlet; targets misconception that revolutionary equality immediately applied to all groups.

- APUSH-MCQ2-012–014: Unit 3; Period 3; postwar republic, state governments, Confederation Congress, debtors; secondary-source interpretation; Articles of Confederation weaknesses, Shays' Rebellion, postwar debt, Philadelphia Convention; causation/contextualization path; historian interpretation stimulus; targets misconception that the Articles were replaced only for abstract political reasons rather than practical crises.

- APUSH-MCQ2-015–018: Unit 4; Period 4; Lowell, Massachusetts, young women workers, textile mills; original simulated mill worker letter, 1835; wage labor, factory discipline, boardinghouse rules, clock time, gendered work; sourcing and claims-evidence path; primary-source-style labor letter; targets misconception that early industrial work brought only independence or only oppression.

- APUSH-MCQ2-019–021: Unit 4; Period 4; Louisiana Purchase, Mississippi River, New Orleans, Native nations, France; described map, c. 1803–1820; territorial acquisition, commercial routes, constitutional debate, Napoleonic diplomacy; map reasoning and contextualization path; territorial/geographic map description; targets misconception that expansion was only domestic settlement rather than diplomatic and constitutional conflict.

- APUSH-MCQ2-022–025: Unit 5; Period 5; Kansas Territory, proslavery and antislavery migrants, sectional politics; original simulated newspaper editorial, 1856; popular sovereignty, Bleeding Kansas, democratic breakdown, Second Party System collapse, Republican Party rise; sourcing and causation path; primary-source-style territorial editorial; targets misconception that popular sovereignty reduced sectional conflict.

- APUSH-MCQ2-026–029: Unit 5; Period 5; African American soldiers, freed families, Union army, education; described lithograph, c. 1863–1865; emancipation, Black military service, citizenship claims, education and freedom; visual analysis and contextualization path; Civil War material/visual source; targets misconception that emancipation was only a legal military measure without social or citizenship implications.

- APUSH-MCQ2-030–033: Unit 6; Period 6; industrial cities, immigrants, tenement residents, municipal governments, political machines; urban and immigrant change table, 1870–1900; urbanization, immigrant labor, strained services, settlement houses, machine politics; quantitative/data and causation path; urban demographic table; targets misconception that city services easily kept pace with industrial urban growth.

- APUSH-MCQ2-034–036: Unit 6; Period 6; farmers, workers, railroads, creditors, corporations; original simulated farmers' alliance platform, 1890s; Populism, agrarian protest, railroad regulation, monetary reform; sourcing and movement-context path; primary-source-style political platform; targets misconception that Gilded Age protest was only urban labor activism.

- APUSH-MCQ2-037–040: Unit 7; Period 7; Caribbean, Pacific, Puerto Rico, Guam, Philippines, Hawaii, naval strategists, anti-imperial critics; described imperial expansion map, c. 1898–1905; Spanish-American War, overseas empire, markets, naval routes, republican ideals debate; map/geography and argument path; imperial route/territory map; targets misconception that U.S. expansion remained continental after 1890.

- APUSH-MCQ2-041–044: Unit 7; Period 7; Dust Bowl migrants, farm families, California receiving communities, New Deal state; described 1930s migration photograph; environmental disaster, Great Depression, internal migration, relief policy, migrant labor conditions; visual analysis and causation path; documentary photograph description; targets misconception that Depression migration was caused only by unemployment without environmental pressures.
- APUSH-MCQ2-045–048: Unit 8; Period 8; U.S. policymakers, democratic governments abroad, Communist pressure, domestic anti-Communism; original simulated policy memo, 1947; containment, economic aid, global commitments, loyalty programs, ideological strategy; sourcing and argument path; Cold War policy memo; targets misconception that containment relied only on direct military force.
- APUSH-MCQ2-049–051: Unit 8; Period 8; Chicana organizer, farmworkers, growers, consumers, Latino/a communities; original simulated labor organizer statement, early 1970s; farmworker activism, labor rights, health, dignity, language, identity-based social movements; sourcing and contextualization path; primary-source-style movement statement; targets misconception that postwar rights activism was limited to Black-white civil rights or formal voting rights.
- APUSH-MCQ2-052–055: Unit 9; Period 9; political parties, media audiences, cultural activists, campaign finance networks; political and social trends table; polarization, media fragmentation, culture wars, fundraising, technology platforms; quantitative interpretation and argument path; modern politics/culture table; targets misconception that polarization emerged from a single cause or that media change reduced political division.