

SECTION 1 — IMPORT-READY SOURCE FILE

AP U.S. History MCQ Practice Exam 3

PART A — QUESTIONS

APUSH-MCQ3-001

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — Period 1: 1491–1607

Period: Period 1: 1491–1607

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that large Mississippian centers before 1500 show that some Native North American societies developed complex political authority, long-distance exchange, agricultural surplus, and ceremonial landscapes without European influence. Which evidence would best support the historian's interpretation?

- A) Records showing that English colonies created elected assemblies in the seventeenth century
- B) Archaeological evidence of platform mounds, maize agriculture, elite burials, and trade goods from distant regions
- C) Spanish reports describing silver mining in the Andes after conquest
- D) Maps showing post-1600 fur-trade routes around the Great Lakes

APUSH-MCQ3-002

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — Period 1: 1491–1607

Period: Period 1: 1491–1607

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that large Mississippian centers before 1500 show that some Native North American societies developed complex political authority, long-distance exchange, agricultural surplus, and ceremonial landscapes without European influence. Which development most directly helped support population growth in societies like those described?

- A) The rapid spread of European livestock before 1492
- B) The arrival of British manufactured goods in North America
- C) The expansion of maize-based agriculture
- D) The introduction of plantation slavery by Spanish colonists

APUSH-MCQ3-003

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — Period 1: 1491–1607

Period: Period 1: 1491–1607

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that large Mississippian centers

before 1500 show that some Native North American societies developed complex political authority, long-distance exchange, agricultural surplus, and ceremonial landscapes without European influence. Which argument about precontact North America is best supported by the interpretation?

- A) Native societies included diverse forms of social organization, including some large, hierarchical communities.
- B) Native societies lacked agriculture until Europeans introduced it.
- C) Native communities were politically identical across the continent.
- D) Native peoples avoided regional exchange before European colonization.

APUSH-MCQ3-004

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Spanish mission report from New Mexico, late 1600s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “The friars ask that families settle near the mission, attend instruction, and provide labor. Some Pueblo leaders comply in public but preserve ceremonies in private and withdraw when demands become too heavy.” The report’s historical situation is best explained by which process?

- A) British attempts to establish Puritan towns in New Mexico
- B) French efforts to build sugar plantations in the Southwest
- C) Dutch efforts to monopolize tobacco exports from the Chesapeake
- D) Spanish missionary colonization and Pueblo resistance in the borderlands

APUSH-MCQ3-005

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Spanish mission report from New Mexico, late 1600s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The report says Pueblo families were expected to settle near missions, attend religious instruction, and provide labor, while some leaders complied publicly but preserved ceremonies privately. Which evidence from the report best supports the claim that Native peoples used selective adaptation?

- A) Some Pueblo leaders complied in public while preserving ceremonies in private.
- B) Friars asked families to live near the mission.
- C) The source was written in the late 1600s.
- D) Mission labor demands became heavy.

APUSH-MCQ3-006

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: GEO — Geography and the Environment

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Spanish mission report from New Mexico, late 1600s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The report describes missions, Pueblo communities, labor demands, and efforts to change religious practice in the Southwest. Which regional context is most relevant to understanding the source?

- A) The growth of rice plantations along the South Carolina coast
- B) The development of Puritan town meetings in Massachusetts
- C) Spanish borderland settlements depended on missions, presidios, and alliances in areas with strong Native communities.
- D) British mercantilist policy required every colony to adopt Catholic missions.

APUSH-MCQ3-007

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Spanish mission report from New Mexico, late 1600s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The report describes Pueblo leaders responding to Spanish religious and labor demands through outward compliance and private resistance. Which later event reflected a stronger form of Native resistance to similar pressures?

- A) The ratification of the U.S. Constitution
- B) The Pueblo Revolt against Spanish authority
- C) The creation of the Bank of the United States
- D) The Homestead Strike against Carnegie Steel

APUSH-MCQ3-008

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: GEO — Geography and the Environment

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map, c. 1763–1766. The Appalachian Mountains form a boundary line. British forts appear in the Ohio Valley and Great Lakes region. Native confederacies are labeled near western forts, and colonial settlements are shown pressing westward. Which conclusion is best supported by the map?

- A) Britain withdrew all military forces from North America after 1763.
- B) Colonial settlers had no interest in western land after the Seven Years' War.
- C) British officials tried to manage western expansion amid Native resistance and settler pressure.
- D) Native nations accepted permanent British control over the Ohio Valley without conflict.

APUSH-MCQ3-009

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map, c. 1763–1766. The Appalachian Mountains form a boundary line, British forts appear in the Ohio Valley and Great Lakes region, Native confederacies are labeled near western forts, and colonial settlements press westward. Which policy most directly attempted to limit the settlement pattern shown?

- A) The Proclamation of 1763
- B) The Missouri Compromise
- C) The Monroe Doctrine
- D) The Dawes Act

APUSH-MCQ3-010

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map, c. 1763–1766. The Appalachian boundary, British western forts, Native confederacies, and colonial pressure for land are all shown. Which broader imperial context best explains the tensions represented?

- A) British efforts to abolish all colonial governments after independence
- B) Spanish attempts to annex New England during the American Revolution
- C) U.S. efforts to acquire overseas naval bases after 1898
- D) Britain's attempt to stabilize a larger empire after victory in the Seven Years' War

APUSH-MCQ3-011

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map, c. 1763–1766. British officials attempt to regulate westward settlement, while colonial settlements press toward Native lands beyond the Appalachian boundary. Which later conflict reflected a similar tension between national authority, settlers, and Native sovereignty?

- A) The debate over the Sedition Act
- B) The debate over western land policy and Native treaties in the early republic
- C) The debate over woman suffrage in the 1840s
- D) The debate over NATO membership after World War II

APUSH-MCQ3-012

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text comparison chart of early national political divisions, 1790s.

Issue | Federalist tendency | Democratic-Republican tendency

Economic policy | Support for national bank and public credit | Fear of concentrated financial power

Foreign policy | Closer ties with Britain | Sympathy for revolutionary France

Constitutional interpretation | Broader reading of federal power | Narrower reading of federal power

Which conclusion is best supported by the chart?

- A) Early party divisions developed around disagreements over finance, foreign policy, and federal power.
- B) Federalists and Democratic-Republicans agreed on strict constitutional interpretation.
- C) Early political parties avoided foreign-policy issues.
- D) Democratic-Republicans wanted to abolish all state governments.

APUSH-MCQ3-013

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text comparison chart of early national political divisions, 1790s. Federalists are associated with support for a national bank and public credit, while Democratic-Republicans feared concentrated financial power. The economic divide shown most directly reflected disagreement over which issue?

- A) Whether federal troops should enforce Reconstruction
- B) Whether the United States should annex the Philippines
- C) Whether the federal government should actively promote a commercial and financial economy
- D) Whether factory workers should form industrial unions

APUSH-MCQ3-014

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text comparison chart of early national political divisions, 1790s. Federalists favored a national bank, public credit, closer ties with Britain, and a broader reading of federal power, while Democratic-Republicans feared concentrated financial power, sympathized with revolutionary France, and preferred a narrower reading of federal power. Which argument is best supported by the chart?

- A) Early political conflict was limited to personal rivalry between two leaders.
- B) The first party system developed from competing visions of the republic's economy, diplomacy, and constitutional order.
- C) The first party system ended all disagreement over federalism.
- D) Early national politics had no connection to events in Europe.

APUSH-MCQ3-015

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described political cartoon, 1830s. A large bank building is drawn with arms reaching toward farmers, mechanics, and state politicians. A common man holds a ballot labeled “reform,” while a caption warns against “privilege.” Which political conflict is most directly reflected in the cartoon?

- A) The debate over overseas empire after the Spanish-American War
- B) Jacksonian attacks on the Second Bank of the United States
- C) Federalist support for ratifying the Constitution
- D) Progressive criticism of meatpacking monopolies

APUSH-MCQ3-016

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described political cartoon, 1830s. A large bank building has arms reaching toward farmers, mechanics, and state politicians. A common man holds a ballot labeled “reform,” and the caption warns against “privilege.” Which evidence from the cartoon best supports the claim that Jacksonian politics appealed to popular suspicion of elites?

- A) The common man holding a ballot labeled “reform”
- B) The building is shown as a bank.
- C) The image comes from the 1830s.
- D) State politicians appear in the image.

APUSH-MCQ3-017

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described political cartoon, 1830s. A bank building reaches toward farmers, mechanics, and politicians, while a common man votes for “reform” against “privilege.” Which economic concern helped make this message politically powerful?

- A) The lack of any paper currency in the United States
- B) The collapse of all state banks before 1812
- C) The absence of credit in western farming regions
- D) Distrust of concentrated financial power and unequal access to credit

APUSH-MCQ3-018

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described political cartoon, 1830s. A common man votes against a powerful bank described as a source of “privilege.” Which broader political development is most closely connected to the cartoon?

- A) The decline of white male political participation
- B) The elimination of party campaigning
- C) The expansion of mass democracy among white men
- D) The creation of the Social Security system

APUSH-MCQ3-019

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated women’s rights convention resolution, 1848, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “If laws govern wives’ property, wages, education, and children, then women must have a voice in making those laws. Reform cannot stop at charity when citizenship itself is unequal.” Which claim is best supported by the resolution?

- A) Women’s rights advocates connected legal reform to citizenship and political participation.
- B) Women’s rights advocates rejected all links to earlier reform movements.
- C) The women’s rights movement focused only on plantation slavery.
- D) Women already possessed equal voting rights in all states by 1848.

APUSH-MCQ3-020

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated women’s rights convention resolution, 1848, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The resolution argues that women need a voice in laws governing property, wages, education, and children. Which broader antebellum context helped shape this activism?

- A) The end of all reform activity after the American Revolution
- B) Women’s participation in abolitionism, moral reform, and educational reform
- C) The immediate success of woman suffrage nationwide
- D) Federal enforcement of gender equality through the Fourteenth Amendment

APUSH-MCQ3-021

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated women’s rights convention resolution, 1848, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The resolution links property, wages, education, family law, and political voice. Which argument about antebellum reform is best supported?

- A) Reform movements avoided challenging legal and political institutions.
- B) Reformers generally rejected claims about citizenship.
- C) Reform movements were limited to male voters.
- D) Some reformers expanded democratic language to challenge gender hierarchy.

APUSH-MCQ3-022

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described abolitionist broadside, 1850s. The broadside shows a family separated by slave traders, a northern courthouse enforcing a fugitive slave claim, and a caption asking readers whether law can require participation in injustice. Which historical situation is most directly reflected in the broadside?

- A) The creation of the Articles of Confederation
- B) The debate over temperance reform in New England
- C) Northern resistance to the Fugitive Slave Act and the moral politics of abolitionism
- D) Federal enforcement of desegregation after Brown v. Board of Education

APUSH-MCQ3-023

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described abolitionist broadside, 1850s. The broadside shows a family separated by slave traders, a northern courthouse enforcing a fugitive slave claim, and a caption asking readers whether law can require participation in injustice. Which element best supports the claim that slavery became a national political issue rather than only a southern institution?

- A) The family is shown being separated.
- B) The broadside includes a printed caption.
- C) A northern courthouse is shown enforcing a fugitive slave claim.
- D) Slave traders appear in the image.

APUSH-MCQ3-024

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described abolitionist broadside, 1850s. The broadside shows a separated family, a northern courthouse enforcing a fugitive slave claim, and a caption asking whether law can require participation in injustice. Which broader conflict was intensified by the issue shown?

- A) The conflict between imperial officials and colonial assemblies over taxation
- B) The conflict over whether Native nations should join NATO
- C) The conflict between farmers and railroads over freight rates
- D) The sectional conflict over slavery, federal power, and moral responsibility

APUSH-MCQ3-025

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described abolitionist broadside, 1850s. The broadside uses family separation, legal enforcement, and moral language to persuade northern readers. Which context best explains the use of printed antislavery imagery?

- A) Reformers used expanding print culture to mobilize public opinion against slavery.
- B) Southern states banned all discussion of slavery in the North.
- C) The federal government required all newspapers to publish abolitionist material.
- D) Abolitionists avoided emotional appeals in favor of tariff statistics only.

APUSH-MCQ3-026

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Civil War home-front conditions.

Indicator | Union states | Confederate states

Railroad network | Extensive and connected | Smaller and often damaged

Industrial output | High | Limited

Inflation by late war | Significant | Severe

Women's wartime labor | Expanded in farms, factories, aid societies | Expanded in farms, hospitals, relief networks

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) The Confederacy possessed greater industrial capacity than the Union.
- B) Women's wartime labor declined in both regions.

- C) The Union and Confederacy faced identical economic conditions.
- D) Differences in transportation and industrial capacity shaped each side's war effort.

APUSH-MCQ3-027

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: GEO — Geography and the Environment

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Civil War home-front conditions. Union states had an extensive railroad network and high industrial output, while Confederate states had a smaller, often damaged railroad network and limited industrial output. Which geographic factor helped explain the Union advantage shown?

- A) The North had more developed transportation and industrial centers before the war.
- B) The South controlled most of the nation's iron and coal production.
- C) The West Coast contained nearly all Civil War factories.
- D) The Mississippi River prevented all Union movement into the South.

APUSH-MCQ3-028

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Civil War home-front conditions. The table shows severe inflation in the Confederacy and expanded women's labor in both regions. Which social consequence is most directly connected to these conditions?

- A) The immediate end of household production in the South
- B) The disappearance of class conflict during the war
- C) The full legal equality of women in both regions
- D) Increased hardship for civilians and new public roles for women

APUSH-MCQ3-029

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Civil War home-front conditions. Union states had greater rail and industrial capacity, while the Confederacy faced more severe inflation and limited industrial output. Which argument about the Civil War is best supported by the table?

- A) Diplomatic recognition by Europe was the only factor that shaped the war's outcome.
- B) Material resources and economic organization influenced military and civilian endurance.
- C) The Confederacy's economy became stronger as the war continued.
- D) Home-front conditions were unrelated to battlefield outcomes.

APUSH-MCQ3-030

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated letter from a Chinese railroad worker in the West, 1870s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “The grade is steep, the winter is dangerous, and the paymaster values our work less than others’. Yet the rails move forward, and towns follow the camps.” Which development is best reflected in the letter?

- A) Chinese immigrant labor contributed to western railroad construction while facing discrimination.
- B) Chinese workers were legally guaranteed equal wages and citizenship in the 1870s.
- C) Railroad construction ended western settlement.
- D) Western railroads were built entirely by enslaved labor.

APUSH-MCQ3-031

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated letter from a Chinese railroad worker in the West, 1870s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The worker describes dangerous mountain grading, unequal pay, and towns following rail camps. Which economic effect was most directly connected to the work described?

- A) The end of national markets in agricultural goods
- B) The disappearance of mining and cattle towns in the West
- C) Greater integration of western resources, towns, and markets into the national economy
- D) The decline of long-distance transportation after Reconstruction

APUSH-MCQ3-032

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated letter from a Chinese railroad worker in the West, 1870s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The worker describes unequal pay and dangerous work while railroads and towns expand. Which later policy grew out of anti-Chinese prejudice and labor competition in the West?

- A) The Social Security Act
- B) The Monroe Doctrine
- C) The Kansas-Nebraska Act
- D) The Chinese Exclusion Act

APUSH-MCQ3-033

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that after Reconstruction, southern states used law, violence, and custom to limit Black citizenship while claiming to preserve order and local control. Which evidence would best support this interpretation?

- A) The ratification of the Northwest Ordinance
- B) Poll taxes, literacy tests, segregation laws, and toleration of racial violence
- C) Federal protection of equal voting access in every southern county after 1890
- D) The creation of the Marshall Plan

APUSH-MCQ3-034

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that after Reconstruction, southern states used law, violence, and custom to limit Black citizenship while claiming to preserve order and local control. Which argument does the interpretation most directly support?

- A) Reconstruction's end allowed new systems of racial control to undermine constitutional promises.
- B) Segregation laws expanded African American voting rights.
- C) Federal officials consistently enforced Reconstruction amendments after 1890.
- D) Jim Crow laws applied equally to all racial groups in practice.

APUSH-MCQ3-035

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that after Reconstruction, southern states used law, violence, and custom to limit Black citizenship while claiming to preserve order and local control. Which broader context best explains this development?

- A) The wartime alliance between the United States and the Soviet Union
- B) The spread of Puritan town settlement in New England
- C) The expansion of Spanish missions in New Mexico
- D) The withdrawal of federal troops and weakening of federal enforcement in the South

APUSH-MCQ3-036

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that after Reconstruction, southern states used law, violence, and custom to limit Black citizenship while claiming to preserve order and local control. Which later movement most directly challenged the system described?

- A) The Populist campaign for free silver
- B) The Progressive campaign for food inspection
- C) The civil rights movement's legal and direct-action challenges to segregation
- D) The nativist campaign for immigration restriction in the 1920s

APUSH-MCQ3-037

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described wartime poster, c. 1917–1918. The poster shows a factory worker, a nurse, and a soldier standing beneath an American flag. The caption urges citizens to “serve where you are” by buying bonds, conserving food, and avoiding criticism that might weaken morale. Which historical situation is most directly reflected in the poster?

- A) World War I mobilization and government efforts to shape public support for the war
- B) Opposition to the Mexican-American War in the 1840s
- C) Postwar suburban consumer culture after 1945
- D) The creation of the Articles of Confederation

APUSH-MCQ3-038

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described wartime poster, c. 1917–1918. The poster shows a factory worker, a nurse, and a soldier beneath an American flag and urges citizens to “serve where you are” by buying bonds, conserving food, and avoiding criticism that might weaken morale. Which claim is best supported by the poster?

- A) The federal government discouraged civilian participation in wartime mobilization.
- B) Wartime propaganda linked national loyalty to civilian behavior as well as military service.
- C) World War I posters focused only on battlefield tactics.
- D) The government avoided using patriotic imagery during the war.

APUSH-MCQ3-039

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described wartime poster, c. 1917–1918. Citizens are urged to buy bonds, conserve food, and avoid criticism that might weaken morale. Which policy context is most closely related to the poster’s warning against criticism?

- A) The repeal of all wartime censorship laws
- B) The creation of the Peace Corps
- C) The Kansas-Nebraska Act
- D) Espionage and Sedition Act restrictions on antiwar expression

APUSH-MCQ3-040

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described wartime poster, c. 1917–1918. A factory worker, nurse, and soldier appear beneath an American flag while citizens are asked to buy bonds, conserve food, and avoid criticism. Which broader effect of World War I is suggested by the poster?

- A) The immediate end of gendered labor expectations
- B) The isolation of civilians from wartime policy
- C) The expansion of federal influence over economic life and public opinion
- D) The collapse of patriotic nationalism in the United States

APUSH-MCQ3-041

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated magazine review from Harlem, 1926, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “The new poems and songs do not ask permission to exist. They carry southern memory, city rhythm, and a demand that America hear Black life in a modern key.” Which cultural development is most directly reflected in the review?

- A) The Lost Cause interpretation of Reconstruction
- B) The Harlem Renaissance
- C) The Second Great Awakening
- D) The suburban youth culture of the 1950s

APUSH-MCQ3-042

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated magazine review from Harlem, 1926, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The review describes poems and songs carrying “southern memory” and “city rhythm” while demanding that America hear Black life in a modern key. Which migration pattern helped create the cultural setting described?

- A) The Great Migration of African Americans from the rural South to northern cities
- B) Puritan migration to New England in the 1630s
- C) Dust Bowl migration from the Plains to California
- D) Suburban migration after World War II

APUSH-MCQ3-043

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated magazine review from Harlem, 1926, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The review states that Black poems and songs “demand that America hear Black life in a modern key.” Which argument is best supported by the review?

- A) Black artists rejected all connections to political questions.
- B) The Harlem Renaissance had no relationship to urban life.
- C) Jazz Age culture eliminated racial inequality.
- D) Black cultural production challenged narrow definitions of American identity.

APUSH-MCQ3-044

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated magazine review from Harlem, 1926, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The review links southern memory, city rhythm, Black modern art, and demands for national recognition. Which broader development was connected to this cultural movement?

- A) The decline of African American newspapers and publishing
- B) The disappearance of racial violence in the 1920s
- C) The expansion of Black urban institutions, newspapers, music venues, and literary networks
- D) The complete integration of all public schools nationwide

APUSH-MCQ3-045

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text timeline of the Vietnam War and public opinion.

Date | Development

1964 | Gulf of Tonkin incident and expanded U.S. military authority

1968 | Tet Offensive televised widely in the United States

1969–1971 | Large antiwar demonstrations and Vietnamization policy

1973 | Paris Peace Accords and withdrawal of U.S. combat troops

Which conclusion is best supported by the timeline?

- A) Public debate over Vietnam declined as U.S. involvement expanded.
- B) Military escalation, media coverage, and antiwar protest shaped debates over U.S. policy.
- C) The United States avoided combat involvement in Vietnam after 1964.
- D) Vietnamization required permanent expansion of U.S. ground troops.

APUSH-MCQ3-046

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text timeline of the Vietnam War and public opinion: 1964 Gulf of Tonkin incident and expanded U.S. military authority; 1968 Tet Offensive televised widely; 1969–1971 large antiwar demonstrations and Vietnamization; 1973 Paris Peace Accords and withdrawal of U.S. combat troops. Which broader Cold War policy framework helped justify U.S. involvement in Vietnam?

- A) The belief that Communist expansion should be contained
- B) The policy of salutary neglect
- C) The theory of Manifest Destiny
- D) The Populist demand for free silver

APUSH-MCQ3-047

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text timeline of the Vietnam War and public opinion: 1964 Gulf of Tonkin incident and expanded U.S. military authority; 1968 Tet Offensive televised widely; 1969–1971 large antiwar demonstrations and Vietnamization; 1973 Paris Peace Accords and withdrawal of U.S. combat troops. Which cultural development was most closely connected to the antiwar activism shown?

- A) Youth and student protest movements that criticized authority and militarism
- B) The First Great Awakening's emphasis on revival meetings
- C) The creation of settlement houses in immigrant neighborhoods
- D) The rise of Puritan covenant theology

APUSH-MCQ3-048

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text timeline of the Vietnam War and public opinion: 1964 Gulf of Tonkin incident and expanded U.S. military authority; 1968 Tet Offensive televised widely; 1969–1971 large antiwar demonstrations and Vietnamization; 1973 Paris Peace Accords and withdrawal of U.S. combat troops. Which argument about Vietnam-era politics is best supported by the timeline?

- A) The war strengthened public trust in federal officials at every stage.
- B) Antiwar protest had no connection to presidential policy.
- C) The conflict produced no debate about executive war powers.
- D) The war intensified disputes over credibility, presidential power, and the purposes of U.S. foreign policy.

APUSH-MCQ3-049

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: GEO — Geography and the Environment

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described photograph from an Earth Day event, 1970. Students collect trash near a polluted river while signs call for clean air, clean water, and limits on industrial waste. Which historical situation is most directly reflected in the photograph?

- A) Environmental activism grew in response to pollution, consumer society, and concern about ecological damage.
- B) Conservationism disappeared after World War II.
- C) The federal government banned all student protest in the 1970s.
- D) Industrial pollution ended before the environmental movement began.

APUSH-MCQ3-050

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described photograph from an Earth Day event, 1970. Students clean trash near a polluted river while signs demand clean air, clean water, and limits on industrial waste. Which policy development belongs to the same historical context?

- A) Creation of the Environmental Protection Agency and passage of major environmental legislation
- B) Ratification of the Articles of Confederation
- C) Enactment of the Fugitive Slave Act
- D) Annexation of Texas

APUSH-MCQ3-051

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described photograph from an Earth Day event, 1970. Students collect trash near a polluted river while signs call for clean air, clean water, and limits on industrial waste. Which claim is best supported by the photograph?

- A) Environmental activists rejected all government regulation.
- B) Environmental concerns were unrelated to industrial production.
- C) Activists connected local pollution to broader demands for public regulation.
- D) Environmental activism focused only on wilderness areas with no human settlement.

APUSH-MCQ3-052

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of security and civil-liberties debates after 2001.

Policy or development | Supporters argued | Critics argued

Expanded surveillance powers | Needed to prevent terrorism | Threatened privacy and civil liberties
Airport security expansion | Protected transportation systems | Created burdens and profiling concerns

Military action abroad | Disrupted terrorist networks | Raised questions about executive power and costs

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Security policies after 2001 ended all debate over civil liberties.
- B) Critics of security policy rejected the existence of terrorism.
- C) Airport security became less visible after 2001.
- D) Post-2001 policy debates often balanced national security claims against concerns about rights and executive power.

APUSH-MCQ3-053

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of security and civil-liberties debates after 2001. Supporters of expanded surveillance, airport security, and military action abroad argued that such measures prevented terrorism, while critics raised concerns about privacy, profiling, executive power, and costs. Which historical context most directly shaped these debates?

- A) The September 11 attacks and the subsequent War on Terror

- B) The War of 1812 and impressment
- C) The Nullification Crisis and tariff policy
- D) The Spanish mission system in New Mexico

APUSH-MCQ3-054

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of security and civil-liberties debates after 2001. Supporters argued that expanded surveillance, airport security, and military action helped prevent terrorism, while critics raised concerns about privacy, profiling, executive power, and costs. Which earlier period involved similar tensions between national security and civil liberties?

- A) The period of Native mound-building before 1492
- B) The era of Spanish silver mining in the Americas
- C) World War I, when antiwar speech and dissent faced federal restrictions
- D) The 1790s, when all political disagreement disappeared

APUSH-MCQ3-055

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of security and civil-liberties debates after 2001. Supporters argued that expanded surveillance, airport security, and military action helped prevent terrorism, while critics raised concerns about privacy, profiling, executive power, and costs. Which argument about post-2001 U.S. society is best supported by the table?

- A) Foreign policy debates had no effect on domestic political life.
- B) Terrorism and security concerns reshaped debates over rights, identity, and the power of government.
- C) Civil-liberties debates disappeared because the public unanimously supported every security measure.
- D) Post-2001 policies were unrelated to international events.

PART B — ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

APUSH-MCQ3-001 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Archaeological evidence of platform mounds, maize agriculture, elite burials, and trade goods from distant regions — Explanation: These forms of evidence directly support claims about hierarchy, agriculture, ceremonial landscapes, and exchange before European contact.

APUSH-MCQ3-002 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The expansion of maize-based agriculture — Explanation: Maize agriculture supported larger populations and more complex settlements in many Native societies.

APUSH-MCQ3-003 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Native societies included diverse forms of social organization, including some large, hierarchical communities. — Explanation: The interpretation challenges the misconception that all precontact Native societies were small or politically simple.

APUSH-MCQ3-004 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Spanish missionary colonization and Pueblo resistance in the borderlands — Explanation: Missions, friars, labor demands, and Pueblo religious resistance point to Spanish colonialism in the Southwest.

APUSH-MCQ3-005 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Some Pueblo leaders complied in public while preserving ceremonies in private. — Explanation: Public compliance combined with private cultural preservation shows selective adaptation under colonial pressure.

APUSH-MCQ3-006 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Spanish borderland settlements depended on missions, presidios, and alliances in areas with strong Native communities. — Explanation: Spanish colonization in the Southwest relied on religious, military, and diplomatic institutions amid powerful Native communities.

APUSH-MCQ3-007 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The Pueblo Revolt against Spanish authority — Explanation: The Pueblo Revolt was a major Native uprising against Spanish religious, labor, and political pressures.

APUSH-MCQ3-008 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: British officials tried to manage western expansion amid Native resistance and settler pressure. — Explanation: The boundary line, forts, Native confederacies, and settlement pressure show imperial efforts to control a contested frontier.

APUSH-MCQ3-009 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The Proclamation of 1763 — Explanation: The Proclamation of 1763 attempted to limit colonial settlement west of the Appalachian Mountains.

APUSH-MCQ3-010 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Britain's attempt to stabilize a larger empire after victory in the Seven Years' War — Explanation: After gaining territory, Britain sought to manage Native diplomacy, military costs, and colonial settlement.

APUSH-MCQ3-011 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The debate over western land policy and Native treaties in the early republic — Explanation: The early republic continued to face conflicts among federal authority, settler expansion, and Native sovereignty.

APUSH-MCQ3-012 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Early party divisions developed around disagreements over finance, foreign policy, and federal power. — Explanation: The chart shows party conflict across economic policy, European diplomacy, and constitutional interpretation.

APUSH-MCQ3-013 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Whether the federal government should actively promote a commercial and financial economy — Explanation: Disagreement over the national bank and public credit reflected competing visions of federal economic power.

APUSH-MCQ3-014 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The first party system developed from competing visions of the republic's economy, diplomacy, and constitutional order. — Explanation: The chart supports a broad interpretation of party development rooted in policy and ideology.

APUSH-MCQ3-015 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Jacksonian attacks on the Second Bank of the United States — Explanation: The cartoon’s anti-bank imagery, common man, and “privilege” language fit Jacksonian bank politics.

APUSH-MCQ3-016 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The common man holding a ballot labeled “reform” — Explanation: This image directly links ordinary white male voters to anti-elite political reform.

APUSH-MCQ3-017 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Distrust of concentrated financial power and unequal access to credit — Explanation: Jacksonian bank criticism often rested on fears that concentrated finance benefited elites at others’ expense.

APUSH-MCQ3-018 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The expansion of mass democracy among white men — Explanation: Jacksonian politics was tied to expanded white male suffrage, party mobilization, and popular campaigning.

APUSH-MCQ3-019 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Women’s rights advocates connected legal reform to citizenship and political participation. — Explanation: The resolution links property, wages, education, family law, and political voice.

APUSH-MCQ3-020 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Women’s participation in abolitionism, moral reform, and educational reform — Explanation: Women’s activism in earlier reform movements helped shape the women’s rights movement.

APUSH-MCQ3-021 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Some reformers expanded democratic language to challenge gender hierarchy. — Explanation: The resolution applies democratic and citizenship language to women’s legal and political inequality.

APUSH-MCQ3-022 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Northern resistance to the Fugitive Slave Act and the moral politics of abolitionism — Explanation: The courthouse enforcing fugitive slave claims and moral caption reflect northern antislavery resistance.

APUSH-MCQ3-023 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: A northern courthouse is shown enforcing a fugitive slave claim. — Explanation: Federal enforcement in the North shows slavery’s political reach beyond the South.

APUSH-MCQ3-024 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The sectional conflict over slavery, federal power, and moral responsibility — Explanation: Fugitive slave enforcement intensified sectional disputes over slavery, law, and conscience.

APUSH-MCQ3-025 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Reformers used expanding print culture to mobilize public opinion against slavery. — Explanation: Broad­sides, newspapers, pamphlets, and imagery helped abolitionists spread antislavery arguments.

APUSH-MCQ3-026 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Differences in transportation and industrial capacity shaped each side’s war effort. — Explanation: The table contrasts Union and Confederate railroads, industry, inflation, and labor resources.

APUSH-MCQ3-027 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The North had more developed transportation and industrial centers before the war. — Explanation: Prewar industrialization and rail networks gave the Union major logistical advantages.

APUSH-MCQ3-028 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Increased hardship for civilians and new public roles for women — Explanation: Inflation and wartime labor needs created civilian hardship while expanding women's work in public and relief settings.

APUSH-MCQ3-029 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Material resources and economic organization influenced military and civilian endurance. — Explanation: Transportation, industry, and inflation affected both military capacity and home-front endurance.

APUSH-MCQ3-030 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Chinese immigrant labor contributed to western railroad construction while facing discrimination. — Explanation: The worker describes dangerous railroad labor, unequal pay, and western town growth.

APUSH-MCQ3-031 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Greater integration of western resources, towns, and markets into the national economy — Explanation: Railroads connected western regions to national markets and encouraged town growth.

APUSH-MCQ3-032 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The Chinese Exclusion Act — Explanation: Anti-Chinese prejudice and labor competition contributed to the Chinese Exclusion Act of 1882.

APUSH-MCQ3-033 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Poll taxes, literacy tests, segregation laws, and toleration of racial violence — Explanation: These measures restricted Black citizenship after Reconstruction through law and intimidation.

APUSH-MCQ3-034 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Reconstruction's end allowed new systems of racial control to undermine constitutional promises. — Explanation: The interpretation argues that post-Reconstruction legal and extralegal systems limited Black citizenship.

APUSH-MCQ3-035 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The withdrawal of federal troops and weakening of federal enforcement in the South — Explanation: Reduced federal enforcement after Reconstruction enabled southern states to impose Jim Crow restrictions.

APUSH-MCQ3-036 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The civil rights movement's legal and direct-action challenges to segregation — Explanation: The twentieth-century civil rights movement directly challenged Jim Crow segregation and disfranchisement.

APUSH-MCQ3-037 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: World War I mobilization and government efforts to shape public support for the war — Explanation: The poster's bond buying, conservation, morale, and patriotic imagery reflect WWI mobilization.

APUSH-MCQ3-038 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Wartime propaganda linked national loyalty to civilian behavior as well as military service. — Explanation: The poster asks civilians to support the war through consumption, speech, and finance.

APUSH-MCQ3-039 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Espionage and Sedition Act restrictions on antiwar expression — Explanation: Warnings against criticism connect to wartime restrictions on dissent and antiwar speech.

APUSH-MCQ3-040 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The expansion of federal influence over economic life and public opinion — Explanation: The poster shows government efforts to mobilize workers, consumers, and opinion during wartime.

APUSH-MCQ3-041 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The Harlem Renaissance — Explanation: The review describes Black modern art, music, literature, and national recognition centered in Harlem.

APUSH-MCQ3-042 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The Great Migration of African Americans from the rural South to northern cities — Explanation: The movement of African Americans to northern cities helped create Harlem's cultural networks.

APUSH-MCQ3-043 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Black cultural production challenged narrow definitions of American identity. — Explanation: The review says Black art demanded recognition within American life and culture.

APUSH-MCQ3-044 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The expansion of Black urban institutions, newspapers, music venues, and literary networks — Explanation: These institutions supported the Harlem Renaissance and wider Black cultural expression.

APUSH-MCQ3-045 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Military escalation, media coverage, and antiwar protest shaped debates over U.S. policy. — Explanation: The timeline links escalation, televised war, demonstrations, Vietnamization, and withdrawal.

APUSH-MCQ3-046 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The belief that Communist expansion should be contained — Explanation: Containment shaped U.S. intervention in Vietnam as part of Cold War policy.

APUSH-MCQ3-047 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Youth and student protest movements that criticized authority and militarism — Explanation: Student and youth movements were central to antiwar activism and broader 1960s protest culture.

APUSH-MCQ3-048 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The war intensified disputes over credibility, presidential power, and the purposes of U.S. foreign policy. — Explanation: The timeline shows how escalation, media coverage, protest, and withdrawal produced political conflict.

APUSH-MCQ3-049 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Environmental activism grew in response to pollution, consumer society, and concern about ecological damage. — Explanation: Earth Day activism, polluted rivers, and clean-air and clean-water signs reflect modern environmentalism.

APUSH-MCQ3-050 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Creation of the Environmental Protection Agency and passage of major environmental legislation — Explanation: The early 1970s saw major environmental policy responses, including the EPA and clean air and water laws.

APUSH-MCQ3-051 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Activists connected local pollution to broader demands for public regulation. — Explanation: The photograph links a polluted river to demands for clean air, clean water, and limits on industrial waste.

APUSH-MCQ3-052 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Post-2001 policy debates often balanced national security claims against concerns about rights and executive power. — Explanation: The table contrasts supporters' security arguments with critics' concerns about privacy, profiling, and executive power.

APUSH-MCQ3-053 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The September 11 attacks and the subsequent War on Terror — Explanation: The table's surveillance, airport security, and military action debates developed after September 11, 2001.

APUSH-MCQ3-054 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: World War I, when antiwar speech and dissent faced federal restrictions — Explanation: WWI restrictions on dissent created earlier tensions between national security and civil liberties.

APUSH-MCQ3-055 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Terrorism and security concerns reshaped debates over rights, identity, and the power of government. — Explanation: The table shows post-2001 debates over terrorism, surveillance, profiling, executive power, and civil liberties.

SECTION 2 — SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — DO NOT IMPORT

SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — APUSH-MCQ3

- APUSH-MCQ3-001–003: Unit 1; Period 1; Mississippian/Cahokia-style Native societies; secondary-source interpretation; platform mounds, maize agriculture, social hierarchy, ceremonial landscapes, long-distance exchange; claims-evidence and argument path; archaeological evidence stimulus; targets misconception that precontact Native North America lacked complex societies.
- APUSH-MCQ3-004–007: Unit 2; Period 2; Spanish New Mexico, Pueblo communities, friars, borderlands; original simulated mission report; mission settlement, religious pressure, labor demands, selective adaptation, Pueblo resistance; sourcing/contextualization path; primary-source-style mission document; targets misconception that Native peoples only accepted or only rejected European influence.
- APUSH-MCQ3-008–011: Unit 3; Period 3; Appalachian boundary, Ohio Valley, Great Lakes, Native confederacies, British officials, colonial settlers; described post-Seven Years' War frontier map; Proclamation of 1763, western forts, Native diplomacy, settler pressure; map/geography and causation path; boundary/frontier map; targets misconception that imperial victory ended frontier conflict.
- APUSH-MCQ3-012–014: Unit 3; Period 3; Federalists and Democratic-Republicans; plain-text early party comparison chart; national bank, public credit, Britain/France divide, constitutional interpretation; comparison and argument path; political division table; targets misconception that first party divisions were merely personal rivalries.
- APUSH-MCQ3-015–018: Unit 4; Period 4; Jacksonian voters, farmers, mechanics, Second Bank, financial elites; described anti-bank political cartoon; Bank War, anti-privilege politics, credit concerns, mass white male democracy; visual analysis and political-context path; political cartoon visual; targets misconception that Jacksonian democracy was unrelated to economic power.
- APUSH-MCQ3-019–021: Unit 4; Period 4; women's rights advocates, antebellum reformers, legal institutions; original simulated women's rights convention resolution, 1848; property, wages, education, family law, political voice, citizenship; claims-evidence and argument path; reform resolution text; targets misconception that antebellum reform did not challenge gendered legal hierarchy.
- APUSH-MCQ3-022–025: Unit 5; Period 5; northern readers, abolitionists, enslaved families, federal courts; described abolitionist broadside, 1850s; Fugitive Slave Act, family separation, moral suasion, federal enforcement, print culture; visual/source analysis and sectional causation path; antislavery broadside visual; targets misconception that slavery was only a southern issue.

· APUSH-MCQ3-026–029: Unit 5; Period 5; Union and Confederate home fronts, women workers, civilian populations; Civil War home-front conditions table; railroads, industrial output, inflation, women's wartime labor, resource inequality; quantitative comparison and argument path; war economy table; targets misconception that battlefield outcomes were unrelated to economic capacity and civilian endurance.

· APUSH-MCQ3-030–032: Unit 6; Period 6; Chinese immigrant railroad workers, western camps, towns, labor discrimination; original simulated worker letter, 1870s; railroad construction, unequal wages, national market integration, anti-Chinese prejudice, Chinese Exclusion Act; sourcing and causation path; primary-source-style labor letter; targets misconception that western railroads expanded without immigrant labor or racial exclusion.

· APUSH-MCQ3-033–036: Unit 6; Period 6; southern states, African Americans, local authorities, segregationists; secondary-source interpretation; Jim Crow, disfranchisement, racial violence, weakened federal enforcement, post-Reconstruction racial control; argument/contextualization path; historian interpretation stimulus; targets misconception that Reconstruction amendments automatically secured equal citizenship after 1877.

· APUSH-MCQ3-037–040: Unit 7; Period 7; World War I home front, factory workers, nurses, soldiers, federal propaganda agencies; described wartime poster, c. 1917–1918; bond drives, food conservation, morale, speech restrictions, federal mobilization; visual analysis and contextualization path; WWI propaganda poster; targets misconception that WWI affected only soldiers and battlefields.

· APUSH-MCQ3-041–044: Unit 7; Period 7; Harlem artists, Black migrants, magazines, music venues, urban institutions; original simulated magazine review, 1926; Harlem Renaissance, Great Migration, Black modern culture, American identity; sourcing and cultural-argument path; primary-source-style cultural review; targets misconception that 1920s culture was racially uniform or detached from migration.

· APUSH-MCQ3-045–048: Unit 8; Period 8; Vietnam policymakers, television audiences, antiwar demonstrators, students; Vietnam War timeline; Gulf of Tonkin, Tet Offensive, media coverage, protest, Vietnamization, withdrawal; timeline/data interpretation and argument path; chronology table; targets misconception that Vietnam policy developed without public protest, media effects, or executive-power debate.

· APUSH-MCQ3-049–051: Unit 8; Period 8; Earth Day students, polluted river communities, environmental activists, federal regulators; described 1970 environmental photograph; clean air, clean water, industrial waste, EPA, environmental legislation; visual analysis and policy-causation path; documentary event photograph; targets misconception that environmentalism focused only on wilderness rather than pollution and regulation.

· APUSH-MCQ3-052–055: Unit 9; Period 9; post-9/11 policymakers, civil-liberties critics, travelers, military and security institutions; security and civil-liberties debate table; surveillance, airport security, military action abroad, terrorism, rights, profiling, executive power; data interpretation and historical comparison path; modern policy table; targets misconception that post-2001 security policy eliminated civil-liberties debate.

