

SECTION 1 — IMPORT-READY SOURCE FILE

AP U.S. History MCQ Practice Exam 4

PART A — QUESTIONS

APUSH-MCQ4-001

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — Period 1: 1491–1607

Period: Period 1: 1491–1607

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that Spanish colonization in the Americas created a society in which conquest, coerced labor, Catholic conversion, and racial classification became connected parts of imperial rule. Which evidence would best support the historian's interpretation?

- A) Town records from Puritan New England showing church membership requirements
- B) British laws regulating colonial shipping through the Navigation Acts
- C) Spanish records assigning Native labor obligations and classifying people by ancestry
- D) French fur-trade agreements that avoided missionary activity

- A) Town records from Puritan New England showing church membership requirements
- B) British laws regulating colonial shipping through the Navigation Acts
- C) Spanish records assigning Native labor obligations and classifying people by ancestry
- D) French fur-trade agreements that avoided missionary activity

APUSH-MCQ4-002

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — Period 1: 1491–1607

Period: Period 1: 1491–1607

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that Spanish colonization in the Americas connected conquest, coerced labor, Catholic conversion, and racial classification. Which labor system most directly reflected this pattern in the sixteenth-century Spanish Americas?

- A) Encomienda
- B) Lowell wage labor
- C) Sharecropping
- D) Company unions

- A) Encomienda
- B) Lowell wage labor
- C) Sharecropping
- D) Company unions

APUSH-MCQ4-003

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — Period 1: 1491–1607

Period: Period 1: 1491–1607

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that Spanish colonization in the Americas connected conquest, coerced labor, Catholic conversion, and racial classification. Which broader Atlantic development helped shape this system?

- A) The immediate independence of Spanish American colonies
- B) The decline of European interest in American mineral wealth
- C) The creation of English representative assemblies in Virginia
- D) European empires sought wealth and converts while governing diverse colonial populations.

- A) The immediate independence of Spanish American colonies
- B) The decline of European interest in American mineral wealth
- C) The creation of English representative assemblies in Virginia
- D) European empires sought wealth and converts while governing diverse colonial populations.

APUSH-MCQ4-004

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated revival notice, 1740s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “All who feel the coldness of formal worship are invited to hear the traveling preacher this Thursday. Let no person think birth, learning, or wealth can substitute for a heart awakened by grace.” The notice’s purpose is best explained by which development?

- A) The decline of Protestantism in British North America
- B) The First Great Awakening’s challenge to older religious authority
- C) The rise of Social Darwinist ideas in the Gilded Age
- D) The creation of Catholic missions in Spanish New Mexico

- A) The decline of Protestantism in British North America
- B) The First Great Awakening’s challenge to older religious authority
- C) The rise of Social Darwinist ideas in the Gilded Age
- D) The creation of Catholic missions in Spanish New Mexico

APUSH-MCQ4-005

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated revival notice, 1740s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The notice invites people to hear a traveling preacher and warns that birth, learning, and wealth cannot substitute for spiritual awakening. Which claim is best supported by the notice?

- A) Revivalists rejected emotional preaching in favor of inherited status.
- B) Colonial revivals were limited to wealthy church officials.
- C) Revival preaching encouraged ordinary people to question established religious hierarchy.
- D) The Great Awakening ended religious disagreement in the colonies.

- A) Revivalists rejected emotional preaching in favor of inherited status.
- B) Colonial revivals were limited to wealthy church officials.
- C) Revival preaching encouraged ordinary people to question established religious hierarchy.
- D) The Great Awakening ended religious disagreement in the colonies.

APUSH-MCQ4-006

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated revival notice, 1740s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The notice emphasizes spiritual experience over birth, learning, or wealth. Which later development reflected a similar emphasis on individual conviction and public persuasion?

- A) Revolutionary-era appeals to conscience, rights, and resistance to established authority
- B) The decline of print culture in the eighteenth century
- C) The spread of plantation slavery into the Caribbean
- D) The creation of Indian boarding schools after the Civil War

- A) Revolutionary-era appeals to conscience, rights, and resistance to established authority
- B) The decline of print culture in the eighteenth century
- C) The spread of plantation slavery into the Caribbean
- D) The creation of Indian boarding schools after the Civil War

APUSH-MCQ4-007

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated revival notice, 1740s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The notice calls people to hear a traveling preacher and suggests that spiritual authority does not depend on social rank. Which argument about colonial society is best supported?

- A) Religious life had no relationship to social authority.
- B) Religious revivalism created a unified colonial government.
- C) Revivalists sought to abolish all colonial churches by law.
- D) Religious movements could unsettle traditional hierarchies even before the imperial crisis.

- A) Religious life had no relationship to social authority.
- B) Religious revivalism created a unified colonial government.

- C) Revivalists sought to abolish all colonial churches by law.
- D) Religious movements could unsettle traditional hierarchies even before the imperial crisis.

APUSH-MCQ4-008

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map, c. 1777–1783. The map shows British-held New York City, Patriot-controlled interior regions, and several Native nations near the Great Lakes, Ohio Valley, and upstate New York. Arrows show Native diplomatic ties divided among British, Patriot, and neutral positions. Which conclusion is best supported by the map?

- A) Native nations had no role in the American Revolution.
- B) All Native nations uniformly supported the Patriots.
- C) Native diplomacy during the Revolution was shaped by competing efforts to protect land and sovereignty.
- D) British forces avoided alliances with Native peoples during the war.

- A) Native nations had no role in the American Revolution.
- B) All Native nations uniformly supported the Patriots.
- C) Native diplomacy during the Revolution was shaped by competing efforts to protect land and sovereignty.
- D) British forces avoided alliances with Native peoples during the war.

APUSH-MCQ4-009

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map, c. 1777–1783. The map shows Native nations near the Great Lakes, Ohio Valley, and upstate New York divided among British, Patriot, and neutral positions during the American Revolution. Which issue most directly shaped many Native diplomatic decisions?

- A) Fear that Patriot victory would accelerate westward settlement onto Native lands
- B) Desire to establish textile mills in New England
- C) Support for British taxation of colonial tea
- D) Demand for immediate admission to the United States as states

- A) Fear that Patriot victory would accelerate westward settlement onto Native lands
- B) Desire to establish textile mills in New England
- C) Support for British taxation of colonial tea
- D) Demand for immediate admission to the United States as states

APUSH-MCQ4-010

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map, c. 1777–1783. The map shows Native diplomatic ties divided among British, Patriot, and neutral positions during the American Revolution. Which later development most directly continued the tensions shown?

- A) The abolition of political parties in the 1790s
- B) Treaty conflicts and military campaigns between the early United States and Native nations in the Old Northwest
- C) The creation of the Freedmen’s Bureau
- D) The annexation of Hawaii

A) The abolition of political parties in the 1790s

B) Treaty conflicts and military campaigns between the early United States and Native nations in the Old Northwest

C) The creation of the Freedmen’s Bureau

D) The annexation of Hawaii

APUSH-MCQ4-011

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map, c. 1777–1783. The map shows British-held New York City, Patriot-controlled interior regions, and Native nations divided among British, Patriot, and neutral diplomatic positions. Which argument about the American Revolution is best supported?

- A) The Revolution was only a military conflict between Britain and the thirteen colonies.
- B) The Revolution immediately guaranteed Native sovereignty in the West.
- C) The Revolution was unrelated to borderlands or land questions.
- D) The Revolution involved multiple peoples whose goals often differed from Patriot independence.

A) The Revolution was only a military conflict between Britain and the thirteen colonies.

B) The Revolution immediately guaranteed Native sovereignty in the West.

C) The Revolution was unrelated to borderlands or land questions.

D) The Revolution involved multiple peoples whose goals often differed from Patriot independence.

APUSH-MCQ4-012

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated opposition newspaper editorial, 1798, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “If a printer may be punished for criticizing those in office, then elections become ceremonies without liberty. A republic cannot fear the people’s judgment and still call itself free.” The editorial’s historical situation is best explained by which controversy?

- A) The debate over the Louisiana Purchase
- B) The campaign against the Second Bank of the United States
- C) The Alien and Sedition Acts and fears of Federalist repression
- D) The debate over the Kansas-Nebraska Act

- A) The debate over the Louisiana Purchase
- B) The campaign against the Second Bank of the United States
- C) The Alien and Sedition Acts and fears of Federalist repression
- D) The debate over the Kansas-Nebraska Act

APUSH-MCQ4-013

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated opposition newspaper editorial, 1798, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The editorial argues that punishing printers for criticizing officeholders makes elections “ceremonies without liberty.” Which principle is most directly defended?

- A) Freedom of the press as necessary to republican government
- B) Expansion of slavery into western territories
- C) Federal support for internal improvements
- D) Creation of overseas colonies

- A) Freedom of the press as necessary to republican government
- B) Expansion of slavery into western territories
- C) Federal support for internal improvements
- D) Creation of overseas colonies

APUSH-MCQ4-014

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated opposition newspaper editorial, 1798, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The editorial objects to punishing criticism of officeholders. Which broader context helped produce this conflict?

- A) The decline of partisan politics after Washington’s presidency
- B) Intensifying party conflict and fears of foreign influence during the French revolutionary wars
- C) The collapse of all newspapers in the early republic
- D) The end of constitutional debate after the Bill of Rights

- A) The decline of partisan politics after Washington's presidency
- B) Intensifying party conflict and fears of foreign influence during the French revolutionary wars
- C) The collapse of all newspapers in the early republic
- D) The end of constitutional debate after the Bill of Rights

APUSH-MCQ4-015

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of cotton and slavery expansion.

Indicator | c. 1800 | c. 1840

Cotton production in the South | much lower | much higher

Enslaved population in Deep South states | smaller | much larger

Short-staple cotton cultivation | limited | widespread

Textile demand from northern and British mills | growing | high

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Cotton production expanded while slavery declined in the Deep South.
- B) Textile demand had no relationship to southern agriculture.
- C) Cotton cultivation remained limited to coastal South Carolina.
- D) Cotton expansion and slavery's growth were closely connected to market demand.

- A) Cotton production expanded while slavery declined in the Deep South.
- B) Textile demand had no relationship to southern agriculture.
- C) Cotton cultivation remained limited to coastal South Carolina.
- D) Cotton expansion and slavery's growth were closely connected to market demand.

APUSH-MCQ4-016

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: GEO — Geography and the Environment

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of cotton and slavery expansion. Cotton production, enslaved population in Deep South states, short-staple cotton cultivation, and textile demand all increased between c. 1800 and c. 1840. Which technological development most directly contributed to the spread of short-staple cotton?

- A) The telegraph
- B) The mechanical reaper
- C) The cotton gin
- D) The Bessemer process

- A) The telegraph
- B) The mechanical reaper
- C) The cotton gin
- D) The Bessemer process

APUSH-MCQ4-017

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of cotton and slavery expansion. The table shows rising cotton production, growing enslaved population in Deep South states, widespread short-staple cotton cultivation, and high textile demand by c. 1840. Which social consequence most directly followed?

- A) The forced migration of enslaved people through the domestic slave trade
- B) The immediate abolition of slavery in the Upper South
- C) The disappearance of plantation elites
- D) The decline of sectional differences over labor

- A) The forced migration of enslaved people through the domestic slave trade
- B) The immediate abolition of slavery in the Upper South
- C) The disappearance of plantation elites
- D) The decline of sectional differences over labor

APUSH-MCQ4-018

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of cotton and slavery expansion. Cotton production, enslaved population in the Deep South, and textile demand all increased between c. 1800 and c. 1840. Which argument is best supported by the table?

- A) Industrial demand and plantation slavery developed in complete isolation from each other.
- B) Southern slavery was reinforced by commercial agriculture and transatlantic textile markets.
- C) The growth of cotton reduced the political power of enslavers.
- D) Market production in the South ended after the American Revolution.

- A) Industrial demand and plantation slavery developed in complete isolation from each other.
- B) Southern slavery was reinforced by commercial agriculture and transatlantic textile markets.
- C) The growth of cotton reduced the political power of enslavers.
- D) Market production in the South ended after the American Revolution.

APUSH-MCQ4-019

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated common-school petition, 1840s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “A republic cannot depend only on parents with means. If children of laborers and merchants are to share civic duties, schools supported by the public must teach discipline, literacy, and common principles.” The petition’s purpose is best explained by which reform goal?

- A) Ending all public education in favor of private tutoring
- B) Restricting literacy to property owners
- C) Expanding tax-supported education to prepare citizens and workers
- D) Creating segregated universities for military training only

- A) Ending all public education in favor of private tutoring
- B) Restricting literacy to property owners
- C) Expanding tax-supported education to prepare citizens and workers
- D) Creating segregated universities for military training only

APUSH-MCQ4-020

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated common-school petition, 1840s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The petition argues that children of laborers and merchants should learn discipline, literacy, and “common principles.” Which claim is best supported by the petition?

- A) Common-school reformers viewed education as a tool for civic and social order.
- B) Reformers believed public schooling should be limited to the wealthy.
- C) Public education reform rejected literacy as a social goal.
- D) Common schools were designed mainly to expand plantation agriculture.

- A) Common-school reformers viewed education as a tool for civic and social order.
- B) Reformers believed public schooling should be limited to the wealthy.
- C) Public education reform rejected literacy as a social goal.
- D) Common schools were designed mainly to expand plantation agriculture.

APUSH-MCQ4-021

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated common-school petition, 1840s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The petition calls for public schools to educate children from different economic backgrounds for shared civic duties. Which broader development helped inspire such reform?

- A) Expanding democratic participation among white men and concern about republican citizenship
- B) The end of all immigration to northern cities
- C) The decline of market activity and wage work
- D) The federal government’s decision to abolish local schools

- A) Expanding democratic participation among white men and concern about republican citizenship
- B) The end of all immigration to northern cities
- C) The decline of market activity and wage work
- D) The federal government's decision to abolish local schools

APUSH-MCQ4-022

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that the Dred Scott decision attempted to remove the slavery question from democratic politics but instead intensified sectional conflict by denying Black citizenship and limiting congressional power over slavery in the territories. Which evidence would best support this interpretation?

- A) The decision strengthened Congress's power to ban slavery in all territories.
- B) The decision declared that Black people could not claim national citizenship and that Congress could not prohibit slavery in the territories.
- C) The decision required all states to grant women the vote.
- D) The decision ended disputes over slavery by creating a lasting compromise.

- A) The decision strengthened Congress's power to ban slavery in all territories.
- B) The decision declared that Black people could not claim national citizenship and that Congress could not prohibit slavery in the territories.
- C) The decision required all states to grant women the vote.
- D) The decision ended disputes over slavery by creating a lasting compromise.

APUSH-MCQ4-023

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that the Dred Scott decision intensified sectional conflict by denying Black citizenship and limiting congressional power over slavery in the territories. Which broader issue was at the center of this conflict?

- A) Whether the United States should acquire Alaska
- B) Whether the federal government should create national parks
- C) Whether immigrants from southern and eastern Europe should be restricted
- D) Whether slavery could expand into western territories and how citizenship would be defined

- A) Whether the United States should acquire Alaska
- B) Whether the federal government should create national parks
- C) Whether immigrants from southern and eastern Europe should be restricted
- D) Whether slavery could expand into western territories and how citizenship would be defined

APUSH-MCQ4-024

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that the Dred Scott decision attempted to remove the slavery question from democratic politics but instead intensified sectional conflict. Which argument best supports the historian's claim?

- A) The decision convinced most northerners and southerners to accept the same view of slavery.
- B) The decision had no relationship to party politics.
- C) By narrowing Black rights and congressional authority, the decision made compromise over slavery more difficult.
- D) By expanding federal power over slavery restriction, the decision satisfied antislavery activists.

- A) The decision convinced most northerners and southerners to accept the same view of slavery.
- B) The decision had no relationship to party politics.
- C) By narrowing Black rights and congressional authority, the decision made compromise over slavery more difficult.
- D) By expanding federal power over slavery restriction, the decision satisfied antislavery activists.

APUSH-MCQ4-025

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that the Dred Scott decision denied Black citizenship, limited congressional power over slavery in territories, and intensified sectional conflict. Which later development most directly overturned key assumptions of the decision?

- A) The Fourteenth Amendment's national definition of citizenship and equal protection
- B) The Monroe Doctrine's warning against European colonization
- C) The Pendleton Act's civil service reforms
- D) The Open Door policy in China

- A) The Fourteenth Amendment's national definition of citizenship and equal protection
- B) The Monroe Doctrine's warning against European colonization
- C) The Pendleton Act's civil service reforms
- D) The Open Door policy in China

APUSH-MCQ4-026

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Reconstruction political change.

Indicator | Reconstruction-era pattern

African American men voting | Expanded under federal protection

Black officeholding in southern states | Increased during Reconstruction

State constitutions | Added public education and civil rights provisions in some states

White supremacist violence | Used to intimidate voters and officeholders

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

A) Reconstruction expanded Black political participation while provoking violent resistance.

B) Reconstruction eliminated racial conflict in southern politics.

C) Black officeholding declined immediately after the Fifteenth Amendment.

D) State constitutions avoided education and civil rights questions.

A) Reconstruction expanded Black political participation while provoking violent resistance.

B) Reconstruction eliminated racial conflict in southern politics.

C) Black officeholding declined immediately after the Fifteenth Amendment.

D) State constitutions avoided education and civil rights questions.

APUSH-MCQ4-027

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Reconstruction political change: African American men voting expanded under federal protection; Black officeholding increased; some state constitutions added public education and civil rights provisions; white supremacist violence intimidated voters and officeholders. Which federal action most directly supported the voting pattern shown?

A) The Chinese Exclusion Act

B) The Alien and Sedition Acts

C) The Indian Removal Act

D) The Fifteenth Amendment

A) The Chinese Exclusion Act

B) The Alien and Sedition Acts

C) The Indian Removal Act

D) The Fifteenth Amendment

APUSH-MCQ4-028

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Reconstruction political change: African American men voting expanded under federal protection; Black officeholding increased; some state constitutions added public education and civil rights provisions; white supremacist violence intimidated voters and officeholders. Which context best explains the violence noted in the table?

- A) Former Confederates and white supremacist groups resisted Black citizenship and Republican state governments.
- B) Federal officials banned African American voting during Reconstruction.
- C) Enslaved labor expanded into the North after the Civil War.
- D) Reconstruction governments refused to create public institutions.

- A) Former Confederates and white supremacist groups resisted Black citizenship and Republican state governments.
- B) Federal officials banned African American voting during Reconstruction.
- C) Enslaved labor expanded into the North after the Civil War.
- D) Reconstruction governments refused to create public institutions.

APUSH-MCQ4-029

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Reconstruction political change: African American men voting expanded under federal protection; Black officeholding increased; some state constitutions added public education and civil rights provisions; white supremacist violence intimidated voters and officeholders. Which long-term issue is most directly connected to the table?

- A) The debate over whether the United States should join the League of Nations
- B) The debate over whether Parliament could tax the colonies
- C) The struggle over whether democracy would include equal citizenship across racial lines
- D) The conflict over whether industrial trusts should be regulated

- A) The debate over whether the United States should join the League of Nations
- B) The debate over whether Parliament could tax the colonies
- C) The struggle over whether democracy would include equal citizenship across racial lines
- D) The conflict over whether industrial trusts should be regulated

APUSH-MCQ4-030

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described labor poster, 1880s. The poster shows a blacksmith, a seamstress, a miner, and a railroad worker standing together under the words “An injury to one concerns all.” Smaller text calls for shorter hours, safer shops, and dignity for “all producers.” Which movement is most directly reflected in the poster?

- A) The American Colonization Society
- B) The Second Great Awakening
- C) The New Right
- D) The Knights of Labor and broad-based labor organizing

- A) The American Colonization Society
- B) The Second Great Awakening
- C) The New Right
- D) The Knights of Labor and broad-based labor organizing

APUSH-MCQ4-031

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described labor poster, 1880s. A blacksmith, seamstress, miner, and railroad worker stand together beneath the words “An injury to one concerns all.” Smaller text calls for shorter hours, safer shops, and dignity for “all producers.” Which claim is best supported by the poster?

- A) Labor organizers tried to build solidarity across different kinds of workers.
- B) Labor organizing was limited to corporate executives.
- C) Workers generally opposed shorter hours.
- D) Gilded Age labor movements avoided moral language.

- A) Labor organizers tried to build solidarity across different kinds of workers.
- B) Labor organizing was limited to corporate executives.
- C) Workers generally opposed shorter hours.
- D) Gilded Age labor movements avoided moral language.

APUSH-MCQ4-032

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described labor poster, 1880s. The poster calls for shorter hours, safer shops, and dignity for “all producers.” Which broader economic context helped produce such labor demands?

- A) Industrial workplaces often involved long hours, dangerous conditions, and unequal bargaining power.
- B) The federal government guaranteed an eight-hour workday to all workers in 1865.
- C) Industrial corporations disappeared after Reconstruction.
- D) Most workers owned the factories where they labored.

- A) Industrial workplaces often involved long hours, dangerous conditions, and unequal bargaining power.
- B) The federal government guaranteed an eight-hour workday to all workers in 1865.
- C) Industrial corporations disappeared after Reconstruction.
- D) Most workers owned the factories where they labored.

APUSH-MCQ4-033

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described labor poster, 1880s. Different workers stand together under the slogan “An injury to one concerns all.” Which argument about Gilded Age labor is best supported by the poster?

- A) Labor activism focused only on skilled male craft workers and excluded broader claims.
- B) Labor activists sometimes framed workplace reform as a question of democracy and shared dignity.
- C) Labor protest disappeared after the Civil War.
- D) Labor unions avoided criticizing industrial capitalism.

- A) Labor activism focused only on skilled male craft workers and excluded broader claims.
- B) Labor activists sometimes framed workplace reform as a question of democracy and shared dignity.
- C) Labor protest disappeared after the Civil War.
- D) Labor unions avoided criticizing industrial capitalism.

APUSH-MCQ4-034

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: GEO — Geography and the Environment

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map, c. 1872–1898. The map marks Yellowstone, Yosemite, forest reserves in the West, railroad routes to scenic areas, and nearby mining, grazing, and timber zones. Which conclusion is best supported by the map?

- A) Conservation policy ended all commercial use of western resources.
- B) Western conservation emerged in a region also shaped by tourism, railroads, and resource extraction.
- C) National parks were created only in eastern cities.
- D) Railroads had no relationship to western tourism.

- A) Conservation policy ended all commercial use of western resources.
- B) Western conservation emerged in a region also shaped by tourism, railroads, and resource extraction.
- C) National parks were created only in eastern cities.
- D) Railroads had no relationship to western tourism.

APUSH-MCQ4-035

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map, c. 1872–1898. Yellowstone, Yosemite, forest reserves, railroad routes, and nearby mining, grazing, and timber zones are shown across the West. Which cultural idea helped support the creation of parks and reserves?

- A) The belief that urban factory work should replace all outdoor recreation
- B) Romantic and nationalist ideas that western landscapes represented natural beauty and national heritage
- C) The claim that Native nations should control federal land policy without interference
- D) The idea that all public land should immediately become private farms

- A) The belief that urban factory work should replace all outdoor recreation
- B) Romantic and nationalist ideas that western landscapes represented natural beauty and national heritage
- C) The claim that Native nations should control federal land policy without interference
- D) The idea that all public land should immediately become private farms

APUSH-MCQ4-036

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map, c. 1872–1898. The map marks national parks, forest reserves, railroad routes, and extractive industries in the West. Which broader development is most directly reflected?

- A) The federal government increasingly claimed authority to manage parts of the western environment.
- B) The United States abandoned western land policy after 1870.
- C) Conservation policy prevented all conflicts over Native land.
- D) Western landscapes were unaffected by industrial capitalism.

- A) The federal government increasingly claimed authority to manage parts of the western environment.
- B) The United States abandoned western land policy after 1870.
- C) Conservation policy prevented all conflicts over Native land.
- D) Western landscapes were unaffected by industrial capitalism.

APUSH-MCQ4-037

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of immigration restriction.

Region of origin | Earlier immigration pattern | Quota-era effect in the 1920s

Northern and western Europe | Favored by quota formulas | Larger permitted share

Southern and eastern Europe | Large migration before World War I | Sharply restricted

Asia | Already heavily restricted | Continued exclusion

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Immigration policy in the 1920s treated all regions equally.
- B) The quota system encouraged unrestricted immigration from Asia.
- C) The 1920s quota system favored older northern and western European immigration patterns.
- D) Southern and eastern European immigration increased because of quota laws.

- A) Immigration policy in the 1920s treated all regions equally.
- B) The quota system encouraged unrestricted immigration from Asia.
- C) The 1920s quota system favored older northern and western European immigration patterns.
- D) Southern and eastern European immigration increased because of quota laws.

APUSH-MCQ4-038

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of immigration restriction. Northern and western Europe received larger permitted shares under quota formulas, southern and eastern Europe were sharply restricted, and Asian immigration remained heavily restricted. Which broader cultural context best explains these policies?

- A) Expansion of the Great Society
- B) The rise of antislavery politics before the Civil War
- C) The decline of nativism after World War I
- D) Nativism, racial hierarchy, and fears of radicalism after World War I

- A) Expansion of the Great Society
- B) The rise of antislavery politics before the Civil War
- C) The decline of nativism after World War I
- D) Nativism, racial hierarchy, and fears of radicalism after World War I

APUSH-MCQ4-039

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of immigration restriction. Quota formulas favored northern and western Europe, restricted southern and eastern Europe, and continued exclusionary policies toward Asia. Which law most directly belongs to this historical context?

- A) The National Origins Act
- B) The Northwest Ordinance
- C) The Civil Rights Act of 1964
- D) The Homestead Act

- A) The National Origins Act
- B) The Northwest Ordinance

- C) The Civil Rights Act of 1964
- D) The Homestead Act

APUSH-MCQ4-040

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of immigration restriction. The table shows that quota-era laws favored northern and western Europe, restricted southern and eastern Europe, and maintained exclusion of Asian immigration. Which argument is best supported?

- A) Immigration restriction reflected neutral economic calculations with no cultural assumptions.
- B) Immigration law helped define national belonging through racialized and ethnic preferences.
- C) The 1920s marked the complete end of nativist politics.
- D) Immigration policy expanded equal access to citizenship for all groups.

- A) Immigration restriction reflected neutral economic calculations with no cultural assumptions.
- B) Immigration law helped define national belonging through racialized and ethnic preferences.
- C) The 1920s marked the complete end of nativist politics.
- D) Immigration policy expanded equal access to citizenship for all groups.

APUSH-MCQ4-041

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described government notice, 1942. The notice is posted on a West Coast street and instructs “all persons of Japanese ancestry” to report for removal to assembly centers. It lists deadlines, permitted baggage, and penalties for noncompliance. Which historical situation is most directly reflected?

- A) Japanese American incarceration during World War II
- B) Chinese railroad labor in the 1870s
- C) The annexation of the Philippines after the Spanish-American War
- D) The Vietnam War draft lottery

- A) Japanese American incarceration during World War II
- B) Chinese railroad labor in the 1870s
- C) The annexation of the Philippines after the Spanish-American War
- D) The Vietnam War draft lottery

APUSH-MCQ4-042

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described government notice, 1942. The notice instructs “all persons of Japanese ancestry” on the West Coast to report for removal to assembly centers, lists permitted baggage, and warns of penalties for noncompliance. Which evidence from the notice best supports the claim that federal policy targeted people based on ancestry?

- A) The notice is posted on a West Coast street.
- B) The notice lists penalties for noncompliance.
- C) The notice mentions permitted baggage.
- D) The notice applies to “all persons of Japanese ancestry.”

A) The notice is posted on a West Coast street.

B) The notice lists penalties for noncompliance.

C) The notice mentions permitted baggage.

D) The notice applies to “all persons of Japanese ancestry.”

APUSH-MCQ4-043

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described government notice, 1942. A West Coast notice orders people of Japanese ancestry to report for removal to assembly centers. Which broader context helped produce this policy?

- A) Fear and racial prejudice following the attack on Pearl Harbor and U.S. entry into World War II
- B) The First Great Awakening’s challenge to older religious authority
- C) The Populist demand for railroad regulation
- D) The ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment

A) Fear and racial prejudice following the attack on Pearl Harbor and U.S. entry into World War II

B) The First Great Awakening’s challenge to older religious authority

C) The Populist demand for railroad regulation

D) The ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment

APUSH-MCQ4-044

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described government notice, 1942. The notice orders people of Japanese ancestry on the West Coast to report for removal to assembly centers. Which broader tension in U.S. history is illustrated by the notice?

- A) The tension between federal and state authority over banking
- B) The tension between wartime security claims and civil liberties

- C) The tension between farmers and railroads over freight charges
- D) The tension between Protestant revivalism and Catholic missions

- A) The tension between federal and state authority over banking
- B) The tension between wartime security claims and civil liberties
- C) The tension between farmers and railroads over freight charges
- D) The tension between Protestant revivalism and Catholic missions

APUSH-MCQ4-045

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that the Great Society expanded the New Deal tradition by using federal power to address poverty, medical care, education, and racial inequality, while also provoking debates over cost, bureaucracy, and dependency. Which evidence would best support this interpretation?

- A) The creation of Medicare, Medicaid, federal education funding, and anti-poverty programs
- B) The Proclamation of 1763 and the Stamp Act
- C) The annexation of Texas and the Mexican Cession
- D) The creation of the Second Bank of the United States

- A) The creation of Medicare, Medicaid, federal education funding, and anti-poverty programs
- B) The Proclamation of 1763 and the Stamp Act
- C) The annexation of Texas and the Mexican Cession
- D) The creation of the Second Bank of the United States

APUSH-MCQ4-046

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that the Great Society used federal power to address poverty, medical care, education, and racial inequality while provoking debate over cost and bureaucracy. Which broader context helped shape these programs?

- A) The end of all civil rights activism after World War II
- B) The collapse of liberal ideas about government during the New Deal
- C) Liberal reform politics, civil rights activism, and concern about poverty amid postwar abundance
- D) The United States' withdrawal from all Cold War commitments

- A) The end of all civil rights activism after World War II
- B) The collapse of liberal ideas about government during the New Deal
- C) Liberal reform politics, civil rights activism, and concern about poverty amid postwar abundance
- D) The United States' withdrawal from all Cold War commitments

APUSH-MCQ4-047

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that the Great Society expanded federal power to address poverty, medical care, education, and racial inequality while provoking debate over cost, bureaucracy, and dependency. Which earlier development did Great Society programs most directly build upon?

A) The Alien and Sedition Acts

B) New Deal assumptions that the federal government could help manage social and economic problems

C) The doctrine of Manifest Destiny

D) The Dawes Act

A) The Alien and Sedition Acts

B) New Deal assumptions that the federal government could help manage social and economic problems

C) The doctrine of Manifest Destiny

D) The Dawes Act

APUSH-MCQ4-048

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that the Great Society expanded the New Deal tradition while provoking debates over cost, bureaucracy, and dependency. Which argument is best supported?

A) Great Society programs ended all disagreement over the welfare state.

B) The federal government abandoned social reform after 1964.

C) The Great Society focused only on foreign policy.

D) The Great Society deepened debates over the proper role of the federal government in social welfare.

A) Great Society programs ended all disagreement over the welfare state.

B) The federal government abandoned social reform after 1964.

C) The Great Society focused only on foreign policy.

D) The Great Society deepened debates over the proper role of the federal government in social welfare.

APUSH-MCQ4-049

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Native activist statement, 1969, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “We occupy this place not as tourists but as peoples whose treaties, lands, and identities have been ignored. The nation must hear that survival is not gratitude; it is sovereignty.” The statement’s historical situation is best explained by which development?

- A) The end of all Native activism after World War II
- B) Federal policy granting complete tribal independence in the 1950s
- C) Native American activism that challenged termination policy and demanded sovereignty
- D) The forced migration of Puritans to New England

A) The end of all Native activism after World War II

B) Federal policy granting complete tribal independence in the 1950s

C) Native American activism that challenged termination policy and demanded sovereignty

D) The forced migration of Puritans to New England

APUSH-MCQ4-050

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Native activist statement, 1969, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The speaker says that treaties, lands, identities, and sovereignty have been ignored. Which claim is best supported by the statement?

- A) Native activists framed their demands around treaty rights, land, identity, and self-determination.
- B) Native activists avoided political language.
- C) Native activism focused only on consumer protection.
- D) Native activists supported the complete abolition of tribal sovereignty.

A) Native activists framed their demands around treaty rights, land, identity, and self-determination.

B) Native activists avoided political language.

C) Native activism focused only on consumer protection.

D) Native activists supported the complete abolition of tribal sovereignty.

APUSH-MCQ4-051

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Native activist statement, 1969, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The statement connects survival, sovereignty, land, treaties, and identity. Which broader pattern does it reflect?

- A) The disappearance of identity-based social movements after the civil rights era

- B) The expansion of rights movements that linked cultural recognition to political power
- C) The decline of protest tactics in the late 1960s
- D) The end of debates over federal authority and minority rights

- A) The disappearance of identity-based social movements after the civil rights era
- B) The expansion of rights movements that linked cultural recognition to political power
- C) The decline of protest tactics in the late 1960s
- D) The end of debates over federal authority and minority rights

APUSH-MCQ4-052

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of immigration change after 1965.

Pattern | Late 20th and early 21st century development

Immigration origins | Larger shares from Latin America, Asia, Africa, and the Caribbean

Metropolitan settlement | Growth in both traditional gateway cities and newer suburbs

Political debate | Disputes over border enforcement, labor needs, citizenship, and belonging

Family and employment visas | Important pathways for legal migration

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Immigration after 1965 came almost entirely from northern and western Europe.
- B) Immigration debates disappeared because migration patterns became uniform.
- C) Post-1965 immigration had no effect on suburbs or metropolitan areas.
- D) Post-1965 immigration diversified U.S. society and reshaped debates over labor, citizenship, and identity.

- A) Immigration after 1965 came almost entirely from northern and western Europe.
- B) Immigration debates disappeared because migration patterns became uniform.
- C) Post-1965 immigration had no effect on suburbs or metropolitan areas.
- D) Post-1965 immigration diversified U.S. society and reshaped debates over labor, citizenship, and identity.

APUSH-MCQ4-053

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of immigration change after 1965. Larger shares of immigrants came from Latin America, Asia, Africa, and the Caribbean; settlement expanded in both gateway cities and newer suburbs; political debates involved border enforcement, labor needs, citizenship, and belonging; family and employment visas were important pathways. Which policy change helped create the origin shifts described?

- A) The Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965 ended the national-origins quota system.
- B) The Chinese Exclusion Act opened unrestricted Asian immigration.

- C) The Fugitive Slave Act created family visa categories.
- D) The Homestead Act ended all immigration restrictions.

- A) The Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965 ended the national-origins quota system.
- B) The Chinese Exclusion Act opened unrestricted Asian immigration.
- C) The Fugitive Slave Act created family visa categories.
- D) The Homestead Act ended all immigration restrictions.

APUSH-MCQ4-054

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of immigration change after 1965. The table notes migration from Latin America, Asia, Africa, and the Caribbean, settlement in cities and suburbs, and debates over labor needs, citizenship, and belonging. Which economic development most directly shaped these debates?

- A) The growth of service, technology, agricultural, and care-work labor markets
- B) The disappearance of all wage labor after 1980
- C) The return of indentured servitude as the main labor system
- D) The end of international economic connections

- A) The growth of service, technology, agricultural, and care-work labor markets
- B) The disappearance of all wage labor after 1980
- C) The return of indentured servitude as the main labor system
- D) The end of international economic connections

APUSH-MCQ4-055

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of immigration change after 1965. Larger shares of immigrants came from Latin America, Asia, Africa, and the Caribbean; settlement expanded in gateway cities and newer suburbs; political debates involved border enforcement, labor needs, citizenship, and belonging; family and employment visas were important pathways. Which argument is best supported by the table?

- A) Immigration after 1965 restored the ethnic patterns of the 1920s quota system.
- B) Immigration became central to modern debates over national identity, economy, and membership.
- C) Immigration policy after 1965 ended all controversy over citizenship.
- D) Immigration affected only rural areas and had little connection to politics.

- A) Immigration after 1965 restored the ethnic patterns of the 1920s quota system.
- B) Immigration became central to modern debates over national identity, economy, and membership.

C) Immigration policy after 1965 ended all controversy over citizenship.

D) Immigration affected only rural areas and had little connection to politics.

PART B — ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

APUSH-MCQ4-001 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Spanish records assigning Native labor obligations and classifying people by ancestry — Explanation: Such records directly support the interpretation by linking Spanish conquest, coerced labor, and racial classification.

APUSH-MCQ4-002 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Encomienda — Explanation: The encomienda system granted Spaniards claims to Native labor and tribute while being justified through conquest and conversion.

APUSH-MCQ4-003 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: European empires sought wealth and converts while governing diverse colonial populations. — Explanation: Spanish colonial institutions developed within a broader imperial context of extraction, conversion, and rule over diverse peoples.

APUSH-MCQ4-004 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The First Great Awakening's challenge to older religious authority — Explanation: Traveling preachers, emotional religion, and criticism of inherited authority were central to the First Great Awakening.

APUSH-MCQ4-005 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Revival preaching encouraged ordinary people to question established religious hierarchy. — Explanation: The notice emphasizes spiritual awakening over birth, learning, or wealth, challenging established authority.

APUSH-MCQ4-006 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Revolutionary-era appeals to conscience, rights, and resistance to established authority — Explanation: Revivalism's emphasis on individual conviction and persuasion helped create a culture receptive to later challenges to authority.

APUSH-MCQ4-007 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Religious movements could unsettle traditional hierarchies even before the imperial crisis. — Explanation: The notice shows religious challenges to status and authority before revolutionary politics intensified.

APUSH-MCQ4-008 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Native diplomacy during the Revolution was shaped by competing efforts to protect land and sovereignty. — Explanation: The map shows Native nations making varied diplomatic choices in response to war and land pressures.

APUSH-MCQ4-009 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Fear that Patriot victory would accelerate westward settlement onto Native lands — Explanation: Many Native nations viewed Patriot settlers as a direct threat to land and sovereignty.

APUSH-MCQ4-010 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Treaty conflicts and military campaigns between the early United States and Native nations in the Old Northwest — Explanation: Postwar conflicts continued disputes over land, settlement, and Native sovereignty in the West.

APUSH-MCQ4-011 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The Revolution involved multiple peoples whose goals often differed from Patriot independence. — Explanation: The map complicates a simple Patriot-versus-British narrative by showing Native diplomatic interests.

APUSH-MCQ4-012 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The Alien and Sedition Acts and fears of Federalist repression — Explanation: The editorial's concern about punishing criticism of officeholders reflects opposition to the Sedition Act.

APUSH-MCQ4-013 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Freedom of the press as necessary to republican government — Explanation: The editorial argues that criticism of officeholders is essential to meaningful elections and republican liberty.

APUSH-MCQ4-014 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Intensifying party conflict and fears of foreign influence during the French revolutionary wars — Explanation: Partisan conflict and foreign-policy fears helped produce the Alien and Sedition Acts controversy.

APUSH-MCQ4-015 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Cotton expansion and slavery's growth were closely connected to market demand. — Explanation: The table links rising cotton production, textile demand, and growth of slavery in the Deep South.

APUSH-MCQ4-016 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The cotton gin — Explanation: The cotton gin made short-staple cotton more profitable and helped expand cotton cultivation.

APUSH-MCQ4-017 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The forced migration of enslaved people through the domestic slave trade — Explanation: Cotton expansion increased demand for enslaved labor in the Deep South, driving forced migration.

APUSH-MCQ4-018 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Southern slavery was reinforced by commercial agriculture and transatlantic textile markets. — Explanation: The table shows slavery's growth tied to cotton production and textile demand.

APUSH-MCQ4-019 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Expanding tax-supported education to prepare citizens and workers — Explanation: The petition calls for publicly supported schooling to teach literacy, discipline, and shared civic principles.

APUSH-MCQ4-020 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Common-school reformers viewed education as a tool for civic and social order. — Explanation: The petition links schooling to citizenship, discipline, literacy, and social responsibility.

APUSH-MCQ4-021 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Expanding democratic participation among white men and concern about republican citizenship — Explanation: Reformers connected education to preparing citizens for participation in a democratic republic.

APUSH-MCQ4-022 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The decision declared that Black people could not claim national citizenship and that Congress could not prohibit slavery in the territories. — Explanation: These features of Dred Scott intensified conflict over citizenship and slavery's expansion.

APUSH-MCQ4-023 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Whether slavery could expand into western territories and how citizenship would be defined — Explanation: The Dred Scott controversy centered on territorial slavery and Black citizenship.

APUSH-MCQ4-024 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: By narrowing Black rights and congressional authority, the decision made compromise over slavery more difficult. — Explanation:

The decision hardened sectional divisions by denying Black citizenship and limiting antislavery federal policy.

APUSH-MCQ4-025 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The Fourteenth Amendment's national definition of citizenship and equal protection — Explanation: The Fourteenth Amendment repudiated Dred Scott's denial of Black national citizenship.

APUSH-MCQ4-026 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Reconstruction expanded Black political participation while provoking violent resistance. — Explanation: The table shows expanded voting and officeholding alongside white supremacist violence.

APUSH-MCQ4-027 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The Fifteenth Amendment — Explanation: The Fifteenth Amendment prohibited denying voting rights on the basis of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

APUSH-MCQ4-028 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Former Confederates and white supremacist groups resisted Black citizenship and Republican state governments. — Explanation: Violence during Reconstruction often aimed to intimidate Black voters and undermine Republican governments.

APUSH-MCQ4-029 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The struggle over whether democracy would include equal citizenship across racial lines — Explanation: Reconstruction raised enduring questions about race, citizenship, political rights, and democracy.

APUSH-MCQ4-030 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The Knights of Labor and broad-based labor organizing — Explanation: The slogan and inclusion of varied workers reflect the Knights of Labor's broad labor vision.

APUSH-MCQ4-031 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Labor organizers tried to build solidarity across different kinds of workers. — Explanation: The poster depicts multiple occupations united under a common labor slogan.

APUSH-MCQ4-032 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Industrial workplaces often involved long hours, dangerous conditions, and unequal bargaining power. — Explanation: Calls for shorter hours and safer shops reflect common Gilded Age workplace problems.

APUSH-MCQ4-033 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Labor activists sometimes framed workplace reform as a question of democracy and shared dignity. — Explanation: The poster's language of solidarity and dignity connects labor demands to democratic values.

APUSH-MCQ4-034 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Western conservation emerged in a region also shaped by tourism, railroads, and resource extraction. — Explanation: The map shows parks and reserves alongside railroads and extractive zones.

APUSH-MCQ4-035 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Romantic and nationalist ideas that western landscapes represented natural beauty and national heritage — Explanation: Conservation and park creation were often justified through ideas about scenery, heritage, and national identity.

APUSH-MCQ4-036 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The federal government increasingly claimed authority to manage parts of the western environment. — Explanation: National parks and forest reserves show growing federal involvement in western land management.

APUSH-MCQ4-037 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The 1920s quota system favored older northern and western European immigration patterns. — Explanation: The table shows quota laws privileging northern and western Europe while restricting other regions.

APUSH-MCQ4-038 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Nativism, racial hierarchy, and fears of radicalism after World War I — Explanation: Immigration restriction in the 1920s was shaped by nativism, racism, and Red Scare fears.

APUSH-MCQ4-039 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The National Origins Act — Explanation: The National Origins Act established restrictive quotas favoring northern and western Europe.

APUSH-MCQ4-040 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Immigration law helped define national belonging through racialized and ethnic preferences. — Explanation: The table shows laws assigning preference and exclusion by region and ancestry.

APUSH-MCQ4-041 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Japanese American incarceration during World War II — Explanation: The notice's removal order for people of Japanese ancestry reflects wartime incarceration policy.

APUSH-MCQ4-042 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The notice applies to "all persons of Japanese ancestry." — Explanation: That phrase directly demonstrates ancestry-based targeting.

APUSH-MCQ4-043 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Fear and racial prejudice following the attack on Pearl Harbor and U.S. entry into World War II — Explanation: Pearl Harbor, wartime fear, and anti-Japanese racism helped produce incarceration.

APUSH-MCQ4-044 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The tension between wartime security claims and civil liberties — Explanation: Incarceration illustrates how wartime security claims can conflict with constitutional rights and civil liberties.

APUSH-MCQ4-045 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The creation of Medicare, Medicaid, federal education funding, and anti-poverty programs — Explanation: These programs directly support the interpretation of Great Society federal activism.

APUSH-MCQ4-046 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Liberal reform politics, civil rights activism, and concern about poverty amid postwar abundance — Explanation: Great Society programs emerged from liberal reform ambitions, civil rights pressure, and awareness of poverty.

APUSH-MCQ4-047 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: New Deal assumptions that the federal government could help manage social and economic problems — Explanation: The Great Society built on the New Deal idea that federal power could address social and economic problems.

APUSH-MCQ4-048 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The Great Society deepened debates over the proper role of the federal government in social welfare. — Explanation: The interpretation highlights both expansion of social programs and criticism over cost and bureaucracy.

APUSH-MCQ4-049 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Native American activism that challenged termination policy and demanded sovereignty — Explanation: The statement's language of treaties, land, identity, and sovereignty reflects Native activism of the late 1960s and 1970s.

APUSH-MCQ4-050 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Native activists framed their demands around treaty rights, land, identity, and self-determination. — Explanation: The statement explicitly invokes treaties, lands, identity, survival, and sovereignty.

APUSH-MCQ4-051 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The expansion of rights movements that linked cultural recognition to political power — Explanation: Native activism connected identity and cultural survival to political sovereignty and rights.

APUSH-MCQ4-052 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Post-1965 immigration diversified U.S. society and reshaped debates over labor, citizenship, and identity. — Explanation: The table shows new origin patterns, metropolitan settlement, and political debates over labor and belonging.

APUSH-MCQ4-053 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965 ended the national-origins quota system. — Explanation: Ending national-origins quotas helped shift immigration origins toward Asia, Latin America, Africa, and the Caribbean.

APUSH-MCQ4-054 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The growth of service, technology, agricultural, and care-work labor markets — Explanation: Modern labor-market needs shaped debates over immigration, work, and economic change.

APUSH-MCQ4-055 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Immigration became central to modern debates over national identity, economy, and membership. — Explanation: The table connects immigration to labor, citizenship, settlement, and belonging.

SECTION 2 — SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — DO NOT IMPORT

SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — APUSH-MCQ4

- APUSH-MCQ4-001–003: Unit 1; Period 1; Spanish America, Native laborers, mixed-ancestry colonial populations, imperial officials; secondary-source interpretation; encomienda, coerced labor, Catholic conversion, casta-style social classification, imperial extraction; claims-evidence and contextualization path; colonial social system interpretation; targets misconception that Spanish colonization was only exploration rather than structured labor, religion, and hierarchy.
- APUSH-MCQ4-004–007: Unit 2; Period 2; British North American revival audiences, traveling preachers, established clergy, ordinary colonists; original simulated revival notice; First Great Awakening, emotional religion, individual conviction, challenge to inherited authority; sourcing and argument path; primary-source-style revival notice; targets misconception that colonial religion was socially static or unrelated to authority.
- APUSH-MCQ4-008–011: Unit 3; Period 3; Great Lakes, Ohio Valley, upstate New York, Native nations, British and Patriot forces; described Revolutionary War diplomacy map; Native alliances, neutrality, sovereignty, land pressure, postwar treaty conflict; map reasoning and argument path; wartime diplomacy map; targets misconception that the Revolution involved only Britain and the thirteen colonies.
- APUSH-MCQ4-012–014: Unit 3; Period 3; opposition printers, Federalists, Democratic-Republicans, early republic voters; original simulated opposition newspaper editorial, 1798; Alien and Sedition Acts, press freedom, party conflict, French revolutionary war context; sourcing and contextualization path; primary-source-style partisan editorial; targets misconception that the Bill of Rights ended debate over civil liberties in the 1790s.

- APUSH-MCQ4-015–018: Unit 4; Period 4; Deep South planters, enslaved people, northern and British textile markets; cotton and slavery expansion table, c. 1800–1840; cotton gin, short-staple cotton, domestic slave trade, commercial agriculture, transatlantic textile demand; quantitative causation and argument path; cotton/slavery data table; targets misconception that slavery was declining naturally before the Civil War or isolated from markets.
- APUSH-MCQ4-019–021: Unit 4; Period 4; common-school reformers, children of laborers and merchants, taxpayers, civic reformers; original simulated common-school petition, 1840s; public education, literacy, discipline, republican citizenship, democratic participation; sourcing and contextualization path; reform petition text; targets misconception that antebellum reform focused only on religion, temperance, or abolition.
- APUSH-MCQ4-022–025: Unit 5; Period 5; Supreme Court, enslaved and free Black people, Congress, western territories, sectional parties; secondary-source interpretation; Dred Scott decision, Black citizenship denial, territorial slavery, congressional power, Fourteenth Amendment reversal; argument-evaluation and connection path; judicial interpretation stimulus; targets misconception that Dred Scott settled slavery politics rather than intensifying sectional conflict.
- APUSH-MCQ4-026–029: Unit 5; Period 5; African American voters and officeholders, Republican state governments, white supremacist opponents; Reconstruction political-change table; Black suffrage, officeholding, state constitutions, public education, civil rights provisions, violent resistance; data interpretation and long-term citizenship path; political participation table; targets misconception that Reconstruction was either a complete failure or an uncontested expansion of democracy.
- APUSH-MCQ4-030–033: Unit 6; Period 6; Knights of Labor, blacksmiths, seamstresses, miners, railroad workers, industrial employers; described labor poster, 1880s; broad-based labor solidarity, shorter hours, safer shops, producer dignity, industrial inequality; visual analysis and labor-argument path; labor poster visual; targets misconception that Gilded Age labor activism was only narrow craft unionism or purely wage-focused.
- APUSH-MCQ4-034–036: Unit 6; Period 6; Yellowstone, Yosemite, western forest reserves, railroads, tourists, mining/grazing/timber interests; described conservation map, c. 1872–1898; national parks, scenic nationalism, federal land management, resource extraction tensions; map/geography and cultural-context path; western conservation map; targets misconception that conservation removed western landscapes from capitalism or conflict.
- APUSH-MCQ4-037–040: Unit 7; Period 7; immigrants from northern/western Europe, southern/eastern Europe, Asia, nativist policymakers; immigration quota table; National Origins Act, quota formulas, Asian exclusion, post-WWI nativism, racialized national belonging; data interpretation and argument path; immigration restriction table; targets misconception that 1920s immigration policy was neutral or equal by region.
- APUSH-MCQ4-041–044: Unit 7; Period 7; Japanese Americans, West Coast communities, federal wartime authorities; described government removal notice, 1942; Japanese American incarceration, ancestry-based removal, Pearl Harbor context, civil liberties and security tension; visual/source analysis and contextualization path; government notice visual; targets misconception that wartime incarceration targeted only noncitizens or involved ordinary voluntary relocation.
- APUSH-MCQ4-045–048: Unit 8; Period 8; Great Society policymakers, poor communities, elderly and low-income patients, civil rights activists, conservative critics; secondary-source interpretation; Medicare, Medicaid, education funding, anti-poverty programs, liberal reform, welfare-state debate; claims-evidence and argument path; historian interpretation stimulus; targets misconception that the Great Society ended debate over federal social welfare.

- APUSH-MCQ4-049–051: Unit 8; Period 8; Native activists, treaty-rights advocates, Alcatraz-era activism, federal policymakers; original simulated Native activist statement, 1969; sovereignty, termination policy, land, treaties, identity, self-determination; sourcing and movement-connection path; primary-source-style activist statement; targets misconception that postwar rights movements excluded Native sovereignty concerns.

- APUSH-MCQ4-052–055: Unit 9; Period 9; post-1965 immigrants from Latin America, Asia, Africa, Caribbean; gateway cities, newer suburbs, employers, policymakers; post-1965 immigration change table; Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965, family and employment visas, labor markets, citizenship and belonging debates; quantitative/data and argument path; modern immigration table; targets misconception that recent immigration simply continued 1920s quota-era European patterns.