

SECTION 1 — IMPORT-READY SOURCE FILE

AP U.S. History MCQ Practice Exam 8

PART A — QUESTIONS

APUSH-MCQ8-001

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — Period 1: 1491–1607

Period: Period 1: 1491–1607

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that many Eastern Woodlands societies before sustained European contact organized village life around maize-bean-squash agriculture, seasonal hunting, matrilineal kinship, and diplomacy among neighboring communities. Which evidence would best support the historian’s interpretation?

- A) Spanish records describing silver mining in Mexico
- B) Archaeological remains of storage pits, maize kernels, longhouses, and village sites near river valleys
- C) British parliamentary debates over the Stamp Act
- D) Railroad company records from the 1890s

APUSH-MCQ8-002

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — Period 1: 1491–1607

Period: Period 1: 1491–1607

Theme: GEO — Geography and the Environment

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that Eastern Woodlands societies before sustained European contact combined agriculture, hunting, kinship networks, and diplomacy among neighboring communities. Which environmental feature most directly supported the settlement pattern described?

- A) Open ocean routes for Atlantic shipping
- B) Arid desert basins requiring canal irrigation
- C) Tropical sugar zones suited to plantation labor
- D) Forests, rivers, and fertile soils that supported mixed farming, hunting, and exchange

APUSH-MCQ8-003

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — Period 1: 1491–1607

Period: Period 1: 1491–1607

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that many Eastern Woodlands societies organized village life around agriculture, seasonal hunting, kinship, and diplomacy before sustained European contact. Which argument about precontact Native societies is best supported?

- A) Native communities developed social and economic systems adapted to regional environments before European colonization.
- B) Native societies lacked agriculture before Europeans arrived.
- C) Native political and family structures were identical across North America.
- D) Eastern Woodlands communities had no contact with neighboring peoples.

APUSH-MCQ8-004

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that the Salem witchcraft crisis reflected Puritan religious beliefs, local conflicts, gender expectations, and anxiety during a period of war and political uncertainty. Which evidence would best support this interpretation?

- A) Federal records showing World War I bond drives
- B) Plantation account books from Barbados
- C) Court records showing accusations involving women, disputes among neighbors, and references to invisible spiritual threats
- D) Maps of western mining districts in Nevada

APUSH-MCQ8-005

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that the Salem witchcraft crisis reflected Puritan religious beliefs, local conflicts, gender expectations, and anxiety during war and political uncertainty. Which broader colonial context best explains the crisis?

- A) The decline of all religious belief in New England
- B) The central role of religion, community discipline, and social reputation in Puritan New England
- C) The growth of Catholic missions in Spanish California
- D) The complete separation of church and state in all colonies by 1690

APUSH-MCQ8-006

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that the Salem witchcraft crisis reflected Puritan beliefs, local conflicts, gender expectations, and anxiety during war and political uncertainty. Which historical situation helped create the atmosphere of fear in late seventeenth-century New England?

- A) Conflict with Native peoples and uncertainty after imperial political changes in Massachusetts
- B) The ratification of the U.S. Constitution
- C) The passage of the National Origins Act
- D) The rise of Cold War science education

APUSH-MCQ8-007

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that the Salem witchcraft crisis reflected religious belief, local conflict, gender expectations, and anxiety during war and political uncertainty. Which argument about colonial New England is best supported?

- A) Puritan society had no mechanisms for enforcing community norms.
- B) The crisis showed that colonial courts rejected religious assumptions.
- C) Salem reflected a society where women held full political equality.
- D) Religious worldview and social tensions could shape legal and political behavior.

APUSH-MCQ8-008

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated female academy advertisement, 1790s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “Young ladies will be instructed in reading, writing, history, geography, and moral philosophy, so they may form virtuous households and raise sons fit for republican liberty.” Which idea is most directly reflected in the advertisement?

- A) Republican motherhood
- B) Social Darwinism
- C) Manifest Destiny
- D) The Lost Cause

APUSH-MCQ8-009

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated female academy advertisement, 1790s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The advertisement says young women should study reading, writing, history, geography, and moral philosophy to form virtuous households and raise sons fit for republican liberty. Which claim is best supported?

- A) Women's education was promoted mainly to prepare women for military service.
- B) Female academies rejected the values of the new republic.
- C) Some supporters of women's education linked women's domestic roles to the survival of republican government.
- D) Women gained equal voting rights as soon as female academies expanded.

APUSH-MCQ8-010

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated female academy advertisement, 1790s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The advertisement connects women's education to virtuous households and republican liberty. Which broader post-Revolutionary context best explains this message?

- A) The immediate creation of gender equality in public office
- B) The disappearance of domestic ideals after independence
- C) The belief that republics depended on virtuous citizens and properly educated families
- D) The federal government's requirement that all women attend college

APUSH-MCQ8-011

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated western Pennsylvania farmer's statement, 1794, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. "The excise falls hardest on men far from markets, who turn grain into whiskey because roads are poor and coin is scarce. If distant officers collect by force, what kind of republic have we made?" Which issue is most directly reflected in the statement?

- A) Debate over the Missouri Compromise
- B) Conflict over the Whiskey Rebellion and federal taxation
- C) Debate over Japanese American incarceration
- D) Opposition to the National Origins Act

APUSH-MCQ8-012

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated western Pennsylvania farmer's statement, 1794, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The speaker argues that farmers far from markets turned grain into whiskey because roads were poor and coin was scarce. Which economic context best explains this complaint?

- A) Frontier farmers often faced transportation barriers and used whiskey as a marketable product.
- B) Western farmers had easy access to national banks and port cities.
- C) The federal government banned grain production in Pennsylvania.
- D) Whiskey production was limited to enslaved plantation labor.

APUSH-MCQ8-013

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated western Pennsylvania farmer’s statement, 1794, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The statement criticizes excise taxes and “distant officers” collecting by force. Which federal action belongs to this context?

- A) Congress admitted California as a free state.
- B) The Supreme Court upheld separate public accommodations.
- C) The Washington administration used federal authority to suppress resistance to the excise tax.
- D) The United States joined NATO.

APUSH-MCQ8-014

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated western Pennsylvania farmer’s statement, 1794, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The speaker objects to an excise tax and questions what kind of republic uses distant officers and force. Which argument about the early republic is best supported?

- A) The new federal government faced no resistance from citizens.
- B) Federal authority, taxation, and republican liberty remained contested after ratification.
- C) Western farmers uniformly supported Hamilton’s financial program.
- D) The Whiskey Rebellion ended debates over federal power permanently.

APUSH-MCQ8-015

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of roads, mail, and print networks.

Indicator | c. 1800 | c. 1845

Turnpike mileage | Limited | Expanded in many states

Post offices | Fewer | Much more numerous

Newspaper circulation | Smaller | Larger and more regular

Political campaign materials | Local and limited | More widely distributed

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Communication and transportation networks helped expand political and market connections.
- B) Post offices declined as newspaper circulation expanded.
- C) Political campaigns became less dependent on printed material by 1845.
- D) Turnpikes ended all regional economic differences.

APUSH-MCQ8-016

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of roads, mail, and print networks. Turnpike mileage, post offices, newspaper circulation, and political campaign materials all expanded between c. 1800 and c. 1845. Which political development was most directly supported by these changes?

- A) The decline of all mass parties
- B) The end of electoral campaigning
- C) The creation of the Articles of Confederation
- D) The growth of organized party politics and mass political participation among white male voters

APUSH-MCQ8-017

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of roads, mail, and print networks. Turnpikes, post offices, newspapers, and campaign materials expanded substantially by c. 1845. Which broader cultural development belongs to the same context?

- A) Growth of a wider public sphere in which newspapers, parties, and voluntary associations circulated ideas
- B) Decline of literacy and print culture in the early republic
- C) Elimination of local political debate
- D) Federal censorship of all newspapers after 1820

APUSH-MCQ8-018

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of roads, mail, and print networks. By c. 1845, turnpikes, post offices, newspapers, and political campaign materials had expanded. Which broader process was connected to these changes?

- A) The end of westward migration

- B) The isolation of rural communities from markets and politics
- C) The integration of expanding settlements into regional markets and political networks
- D) The disappearance of state governments

APUSH-MCQ8-019

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated temperance reform tract, 1830s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “The bottle empties the worker’s wage, darkens the home, and fills the jail. A sober republic requires disciplined men and protected families.” Which reform movement is most directly reflected?

- A) The Social Gospel movement
- B) The temperance movement
- C) The Free Soil movement
- D) The conservation movement

APUSH-MCQ8-020

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated temperance reform tract, 1830s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The tract says alcohol empties wages, harms the home, fills the jail, and threatens a sober republic. Which claim is best supported?

- A) Temperance reformers connected personal behavior to family stability, labor discipline, and republican citizenship.
- B) Temperance reformers focused only on foreign policy.
- C) Temperance reformers rejected moral language.
- D) Temperance activism began only after World War II.

APUSH-MCQ8-021

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated temperance reform tract, 1830s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The tract links alcohol to wages, family order, jail, and republican discipline. Which argument about antebellum reform is best supported?

- A) Reformers avoided efforts to change private behavior.
- B) Reformers believed all social problems should be solved only through markets.

- C) Reformers often treated individual morality as connected to public order and national character.
- D) Reform movements had no relationship to religion or family life.

APUSH-MCQ8-022

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described overland trail map, c. 1840s–1850s. The map shows wagon routes from Missouri across the Great Plains and Rocky Mountains toward Oregon and California. Notes identify river crossings, disease risks, Native homelands, military forts, and supply points. Which conclusion is best supported by the map?

- A) Overland migration occurred without environmental challenges.
- B) Westward migration depended on routes, supplies, river crossings, forts, and movement through Native lands.
- C) Overland migrants traveled mainly by railroad in the 1840s.
- D) Migration to Oregon and California ended before the Mexican-American War.

APUSH-MCQ8-023

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: GEO — Geography and the Environment

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described overland trail map, c. 1840s–1850s. Wagon routes from Missouri cross the Great Plains and Rocky Mountains toward Oregon and California, with notes on river crossings, disease, Native homelands, military forts, and supply points. Which broader context best explains the migration shown?

- A) Expansionist ideas, land hunger, commercial opportunity, and U.S. interest in the Pacific coast
- B) The decline of all settlement beyond the Appalachian Mountains
- C) Federal prohibition of migration to western territories
- D) The end of conflicts over Native land and sovereignty

APUSH-MCQ8-024

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described overland trail map, c. 1840s–1850s. The map shows wagon routes crossing Native homelands, forts, rivers, and mountains toward Oregon and California. Which consequence was most directly connected to this migration?

- A) The disappearance of U.S. military presence in the West
- B) The immediate end of sectional conflict

- C) The collapse of Pacific trade
- D) Increased pressure on Native lands and greater federal involvement in western settlement

APUSH-MCQ8-025

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described overland trail map, c. 1840s–1850s. The map shows migration routes to Oregon and California, environmental hazards, Native homelands, military forts, and supply points. Which argument about Manifest Destiny is best supported?

- A) Manifest Destiny was only a diplomatic idea with no connection to ordinary migrants.
- B) Westward expansion involved both individual migration and state-supported control over territory.
- C) Expansion avoided conflict with Native peoples.
- D) Overland migration had no connection to national identity.

APUSH-MCQ8-026

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated New York newspaper editorial, 1863, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “The draft falls upon the poor man while the wealthy purchase substitutes. Yet mobs turning fury upon Black neighbors dishonor every claim of justice.” Which issue is most directly reflected?

- A) Class resentment and racial violence during the Civil War draft riots
- B) Opposition to the Missouri Compromise
- C) Debate over the Annexation of Hawaii
- D) Resistance to the Stamp Act

APUSH-MCQ8-027

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated New York newspaper editorial, 1863, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The editorial criticizes a draft system that allows wealthy men to purchase substitutes and condemns mobs attacking Black residents. Which historical situation best explains the editorial?

- A) The Great Depression and New Deal relief policy
- B) Union wartime mobilization, conscription, class tensions, and racial hostility

- C) The Progressive campaign for direct primaries
- D) The First Great Awakening

APUSH-MCQ8-028

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated New York newspaper editorial, 1863, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The editorial links conscription, class resentment, and attacks on Black residents. Which broader Civil War context helped produce these tensions?

- A) Complete unity in the North over emancipation and military service
- B) Federal refusal to raise armies for the Union
- C) Northern conflicts over the draft, race, labor competition, and the meaning of the war
- D) Southern acceptance of emancipation policy

APUSH-MCQ8-029

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated New York newspaper editorial, 1863, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The editorial criticizes class inequality in conscription and condemns racial violence. Which argument about the Civil War home front is best supported?

- A) The home front was free of social conflict.
- B) Anti-draft protest was unrelated to race or class.
- C) Wartime mobilization could expose and intensify existing social tensions.
- D) Urban workers universally supported every Union policy.

APUSH-MCQ8-030

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that late nineteenth-century corporations used vertical integration, horizontal consolidation, rebates, patents, and managerial systems to reduce competition and stabilize profits. Which evidence would best support this interpretation?

- A) A reform petition calling for asylum inspection
- B) Oil company records showing control of refining, pipelines, storage facilities, and railroad shipping agreements

- C) A map of the Northwest Territory in 1787
- D) A women's liberation poster from the 1970s

APUSH-MCQ8-031

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that late nineteenth-century corporations used vertical integration, horizontal consolidation, rebates, patents, and managerial systems to reduce competition and stabilize profits. Which broader context helped produce these strategies?

- A) The decline of national markets after the Civil War
- B) Industrial expansion, railroad growth, and weak early regulation of large corporations
- C) The end of corporate law in the United States
- D) Federal ownership of all oil and steel firms

APUSH-MCQ8-032

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that late nineteenth-century corporations consolidated production, transportation, patents, and management to reduce competition and stabilize profits. Which public response most directly emerged from concern over such practices?

- A) Antitrust sentiment and calls for regulation of monopolistic business combinations
- B) Support for ending all federal regulation of commerce
- C) Demands to restore colonial mercantilism
- D) The abolition of industrial corporations by constitutional amendment

APUSH-MCQ8-033

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that late nineteenth-century corporations used vertical integration, horizontal consolidation, rebates, patents, and managerial systems to reduce competition and stabilize profits. Which argument about the Gilded Age economy is best supported?

- A) Large corporations remained politically insignificant.
- B) Industrial capitalism depended only on small family firms.

- C) Corporate growth created new efficiencies while raising concerns about concentrated economic power.
- D) Business consolidation eliminated public debate over inequality.

APUSH-MCQ8-034

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described department-store advertisement, 1890s. The image shows electric lights, window displays, women shoppers, bargain counters, and saleswomen behind glass cases. Text promises “modern comfort, respectable service, and goods from every department under one roof.” Which conclusion is best supported?

- A) Urban consumer culture expanded through new retail spaces that targeted middle-class shoppers, especially women.
- B) Department stores ended wage work for women.
- C) Urban retail remained unchanged from colonial marketplaces.
- D) Advertising declined as consumer goods became more available.

APUSH-MCQ8-035

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described department-store advertisement, 1890s. Electric lights, window displays, bargain counters, women shoppers, and saleswomen are shown under text promising modern comfort and goods from every department under one roof. Which economic development helped make this retail form possible?

- A) The disappearance of urban transportation
- B) Mass production, urban growth, advertising, and improved distribution networks
- C) The decline of wage labor in cities
- D) The end of national markets after Reconstruction

APUSH-MCQ8-036

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described department-store advertisement, 1890s. The image shows women shoppers and saleswomen in a brightly lit retail space offering many goods under one roof. Which broader social change is most closely connected?

- A) Women’s complete withdrawal from public urban life

- B) The elimination of gender expectations in employment
- C) The disappearance of middle-class consumption
- D) Expanding public roles for women as consumers and wage workers in urban settings

APUSH-MCQ8-037

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described magazine exposé and product label, c. 1905. The exposé describes filthy processing rooms and mislabeled medicine claims. The product label promises “pure cure” but lists no ingredients. Which Progressive Era concern is most directly reflected?

- A) Opposition to woman suffrage
- B) Defense of laissez-faire corporate secrecy
- C) Consumer protection through food, drug, and meat-inspection regulation
- D) Support for the Fugitive Slave Act

APUSH-MCQ8-038

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described magazine exposé and product label, c. 1905. The exposé describes filthy processing rooms and misleading medicine claims, while the product label promises “pure cure” but lists no ingredients. The likely purpose of the exposé was to do which of the following?

- A) Persuade readers and lawmakers that industrial production required public oversight
- B) Encourage consumers to reject all federal regulation
- C) Defend corporations against labeling laws
- D) Promote expansion of slavery into the territories

APUSH-MCQ8-039

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described magazine exposé and product label, c. 1905. The exposé describes filthy processing rooms and misleading medicine claims, while the product label provides no ingredients. Which broader context best explains the concern shown?

- A) Federal withdrawal from all economic regulation after 1900
- B) The end of industrial production in cities
- C) The decline of mass-circulation magazines

D) Progressive reformers used investigative journalism to expose abuses and build support for regulation.

APUSH-MCQ8-040

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described magazine exposé and product label, c. 1905. The exposé describes unsafe processing and misleading medicine claims, while the label promises a cure without listing ingredients. Which argument about Progressivism is best supported?

- A) Progressive reformers rejected the idea that government should protect consumers.
- B) Progressive reform linked industrialization to new expectations for public health and consumer rights.
- C) Progressivism focused only on foreign policy.
- D) Consumer protection ended all debate over corporate power.

APUSH-MCQ8-041

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of wartime farm labor, 1942–1945.

Pattern | Development

Agricultural labor demand | Increased during World War II

Mexican guest workers | Recruited under bilateral agreements

Growers' goals | Stable seasonal labor supply

Workers' experience | Wages, housing, and contract enforcement varied widely

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) World War II ended the need for agricultural labor.
- B) Mexican guest workers were excluded from U.S. agriculture.
- C) The Bracero Program connected wartime labor needs to cross-border migration and contested working conditions.
- D) Agricultural growers rejected all federal labor agreements.

APUSH-MCQ8-042

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of wartime farm labor, 1942–1945. Agricultural labor demand increased, Mexican guest workers were recruited under bilateral agreements, growers sought stable seasonal labor, and workers' wages, housing, and contract enforcement varied. Which broader context best explains the program?

- A) World War II labor shortages and U.S.-Mexico cooperation
- B) The First Great Awakening
- C) The Missouri Compromise
- D) The Watergate scandal

APUSH-MCQ8-043

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of wartime farm labor, 1942–1945. The table shows increased agricultural labor demand, recruitment of Mexican guest workers, growers' labor needs, and varied contract enforcement. Which development is most directly reflected?

- A) The end of commercial farming in California and the Southwest
- B) The replacement of all farm labor by automation during World War II
- C) A wartime labor system that brought temporary Mexican workers into U.S. agriculture
- D) The creation of a national ban on seasonal agricultural work

APUSH-MCQ8-044

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of wartime farm labor, 1942–1945. Mexican guest workers were recruited under bilateral agreements, growers sought stable seasonal labor, and wages, housing, and contract enforcement varied. Which later issue was connected to the program's legacy?

- A) Decline of all Mexican migration after 1945
- B) Debates over migrant labor rights, agricultural dependency on seasonal workers, and immigration policy
- C) Elimination of farm labor organizing in the United States
- D) Immediate equal citizenship for all temporary workers

APUSH-MCQ8-045

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Black Power community program statement, late 1960s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. "Freedom must mean control of schools, safety from police abuse, jobs in our neighborhoods, and pride in our own history. Integration without power leaves our people dependent.” Which claim is best supported?

- A) Black Power activists linked racial justice to community control, economic power, safety, and cultural pride.
- B) Black Power activists rejected all community institutions.
- C) Black Power activism focused only on foreign policy.
- D) Black Power activists opposed teaching Black history.

APUSH-MCQ8-046

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Black Power community program statement, late 1960s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The statement demands community control of schools, safety from police abuse, neighborhood jobs, and pride in Black history. Which broader context best explains this activism?

- A) The end of racial inequality after Brown v. Board of Education
- B) The decline of urban poverty after World War II
- C) Frustration with persistent racism, urban inequality, police violence, and the limits of formal legal victories
- D) The federal government’s decision to end all civil rights enforcement

APUSH-MCQ8-047

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Black Power community program statement, late 1960s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The speaker defines freedom through local control, safety, jobs, and Black historical pride. The point of view most directly reflects which shift in civil rights activism?

- A) A turn away from all political organizing
- B) A focus on self-determination, community institutions, and cultural affirmation
- C) A return to colonial-era religious revivalism
- D) Support for racial segregation as a permanent national policy

APUSH-MCQ8-048

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Black Power community program statement, late 1960s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The statement argues that “integration without power” leaves Black communities dependent. Which argument about the civil rights era is best supported?

- A) The civil rights movement had no internal debates over strategy.
- B) Black activism after 1965 always rejected economic issues.
- C) Legal integration alone did not resolve debates over power, resources, and community autonomy.
- D) Black Power activism ended all discussion of cultural identity.

APUSH-MCQ8-049

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated conservative religious broadcast transcript, late 1970s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “Families are under pressure from permissive schools, activist courts, and a government that forgets faith. People of belief must organize, vote, and return moral authority to public life.” Which movement is most directly reflected?

- A) The rise of conservative religious politics within the New Right
- B) The First Great Awakening
- C) The Free Soil movement
- D) The Populist campaign for free silver

APUSH-MCQ8-050

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated conservative religious broadcast transcript, late 1970s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The speaker says people of belief must organize, vote, and return moral authority to public life. Which claim is best supported?

- A) Some conservative religious activists connected cultural concerns to electoral politics.
- B) Conservative religious activists avoided politics.
- C) Religious broadcasting disappeared before the 1970s.
- D) The New Right rejected family values as a political issue.

APUSH-MCQ8-051

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated conservative religious broadcast transcript, late 1970s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The speaker criticizes permissive schools, activist courts, secular government, and calls for believers to organize and vote. Which broader development was connected to this message?

- A) Decline of all culture-war politics after 1960
- B) Growth of conservative criticism of liberal social change and federal court decisions
- C) End of religious participation in public life
- D) Collapse of electoral politics in the 1980s

APUSH-MCQ8-052

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated congressional hearing summary, late 1980s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “Witnesses describe secret arms sales, funds diverted to foreign rebels, and executive officials claiming that national security required actions not openly approved by Congress.” Which issue is most directly reflected?

- A) The Missouri Compromise
- B) The creation of the Freedmen’s Bureau
- C) The Pure Food and Drug Act
- D) Iran-Contra and debates over executive power

APUSH-MCQ8-053

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated congressional hearing summary, late 1980s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The summary describes secret arms sales, funds diverted to foreign rebels, and national-security claims not openly approved by Congress. Which broader context best explains the controversy?

- A) Late Cold War anticommunism and conflict between executive foreign policy goals and congressional oversight
- B) The First Great Awakening’s challenge to church authority
- C) The repeal of the Missouri Compromise
- D) The rise of plantation slavery in Barbados

APUSH-MCQ8-054

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated congressional hearing summary, late 1980s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The summary describes executive officials using national-security arguments for actions not openly approved by Congress. Which earlier issue raised a similar constitutional concern?

- A) The spread of department stores in the 1890s
- B) The growth of steamboat commerce
- C) Civil War and Vietnam-era debates over executive power during national crises
- D) The expansion of maize agriculture before European contact

APUSH-MCQ8-055

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated congressional hearing summary, late 1980s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The summary describes secret arms sales, diverted funds, foreign rebels, national-security claims, and congressional oversight concerns. Which argument about late twentieth-century politics is best supported?

- A) Foreign policy controversies had no relationship to constitutional questions.
- B) Cold War priorities could intensify debates over secrecy, oversight, and the separation of powers.
- C) Congress held exclusive control over every foreign-policy decision.
- D) Executive power declined to the point of political irrelevance.

PART B — ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

APUSH-MCQ8-001 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Archaeological remains of storage pits, maize kernels, longhouses, and village sites near river valleys — Explanation: Storage pits, maize, longhouses, and river-valley villages support claims about agriculture, settlement, and Eastern Woodlands social organization.

APUSH-MCQ8-002 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Forests, rivers, and fertile soils that supported mixed farming, hunting, and exchange — Explanation: Eastern Woodlands environments supported agriculture, hunting, settlement, and regional exchange.

APUSH-MCQ8-003 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Native communities developed social and economic systems adapted to regional environments before European colonization. — Explanation: The interpretation emphasizes regional adaptation and Native social complexity before European arrival.

APUSH-MCQ8-004 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Court records showing accusations involving women, disputes among neighbors, and references to invisible spiritual threats — Explanation: Such records support the historian's claim about religion, gender, local tensions, and social anxiety in Salem.

APUSH-MCQ8-005 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The central role of religion, community discipline, and social reputation in Puritan New England — Explanation: Salem's accusations occurred in a Puritan society where religion and community order shaped legal life.

APUSH-MCQ8-006 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Conflict with Native peoples and uncertainty after imperial political changes in Massachusetts — Explanation: War and political instability heightened fear and insecurity in late seventeenth-century Massachusetts.

APUSH-MCQ8-007 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Religious worldview and social tensions could shape legal and political behavior. — Explanation: The interpretation links Puritan beliefs and social tensions to court action and public authority.

APUSH-MCQ8-008 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Republican motherhood — Explanation: The advertisement links women's education to raising virtuous republican citizens.

APUSH-MCQ8-009 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Some supporters of women's education linked women's domestic roles to the survival of republican government. — Explanation: The advertisement supports women's education as a way to form republican households and citizens.

APUSH-MCQ8-010 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The belief that republics depended on virtuous citizens and properly educated families — Explanation: Republican motherhood rested on the idea that family education supported civic virtue.

APUSH-MCQ8-011 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Conflict over the Whiskey Rebellion and federal taxation — Explanation: The source refers to an excise tax on whiskey and resistance by western farmers.

APUSH-MCQ8-012 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Frontier farmers often faced transportation barriers and used whiskey as a marketable product. — Explanation: Whiskey was easier to transport than bulky grain in areas with poor roads and limited cash.

APUSH-MCQ8-013 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The Washington administration used federal authority to suppress resistance to the excise tax. — Explanation: The federal government demonstrated its authority by responding forcefully to the Whiskey Rebellion.

APUSH-MCQ8-014 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Federal authority, taxation, and republican liberty remained contested after ratification. — Explanation: The source shows that federal taxation and enforcement remained controversial in the new republic.

APUSH-MCQ8-015 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Communication and transportation networks helped expand political and market connections. — Explanation: The table shows growth in turnpikes, post offices, newspapers, and campaign material.

APUSH-MCQ8-016 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The growth of organized party politics and mass political participation among white male voters — Explanation: Expanded print and communication networks helped political parties mobilize voters.

APUSH-MCQ8-017 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Growth of a wider public sphere in which newspapers, parties, and voluntary associations circulated ideas — Explanation: Expanding print and postal networks spread ideas and supported political and reform activity.

APUSH-MCQ8-018 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The integration of expanding settlements into regional markets and political networks — Explanation: Roads, post offices, and newspapers connected new settlements to markets and politics.

APUSH-MCQ8-019 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The temperance movement — Explanation: The tract's attack on alcohol, family disorder, wages, and jail fits antebellum temperance reform.

APUSH-MCQ8-020 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Temperance reformers connected personal behavior to family stability, labor discipline, and republican citizenship. — Explanation: The source links drinking to wages, family life, crime, and republican order.

APUSH-MCQ8-021 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Reformers often treated individual morality as connected to public order and national character. — Explanation: The tract presents private behavior as a public and civic concern.

APUSH-MCQ8-022 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Westward migration depended on routes, supplies, river crossings, forts, and movement through Native lands. — Explanation: The map identifies the logistical, environmental, and political features of overland migration.

APUSH-MCQ8-023 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Expansionist ideas, land hunger, commercial opportunity, and U.S. interest in the Pacific coast — Explanation: These factors help explain migration to Oregon and California.

APUSH-MCQ8-024 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Increased pressure on Native lands and greater federal involvement in western settlement — Explanation: Migration through Native homelands increased conflict and federal military and administrative involvement.

APUSH-MCQ8-025 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Westward expansion involved both individual migration and state-supported control over territory. — Explanation: The map shows ordinary migration as well as forts and territorial control.

APUSH-MCQ8-026 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Class resentment and racial violence during the Civil War draft riots — Explanation: The editorial links substitution payments, class resentment, and mob violence against Black residents.

APUSH-MCQ8-027 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Union wartime mobilization, conscription, class tensions, and racial hostility — Explanation: The Civil War draft riots emerged from military mobilization, class resentment, and racist violence.

APUSH-MCQ8-028 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Northern conflicts over the draft, race, labor competition, and the meaning of the war — Explanation: The source reflects tensions within the North over conscription, emancipation, labor, and race.

APUSH-MCQ8-029 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Wartime mobilization could expose and intensify existing social tensions. — Explanation: The editorial shows that war pressures heightened class and racial conflict.

APUSH-MCQ8-030 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Oil company records showing control of refining, pipelines, storage facilities, and railroad shipping agreements — Explanation: This evidence directly supports claims about vertical integration, consolidation, and business strategy.

APUSH-MCQ8-031 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Industrial expansion, railroad growth, and weak early regulation of large corporations — Explanation: Gilded Age corporations expanded in a context of national markets, railroads, and limited regulation.

APUSH-MCQ8-032 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Antitrust sentiment and calls for regulation of monopolistic business combinations — Explanation: Concerns over corporate concentration encouraged antitrust politics and regulation debates.

APUSH-MCQ8-033 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Corporate growth created new efficiencies while raising concerns about concentrated economic power. — Explanation: The interpretation emphasizes both business organization and the public concern it generated.

APUSH-MCQ8-034 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Urban consumer culture expanded through new retail spaces that targeted middle-class shoppers, especially women. — Explanation: The advertisement highlights department stores, displays, women shoppers, and modern retail culture.

APUSH-MCQ8-035 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Mass production, urban growth, advertising, and improved distribution networks — Explanation: Department stores depended on mass goods, city consumers, advertising, and distribution systems.

APUSH-MCQ8-036 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Expanding public roles for women as consumers and wage workers in urban settings — Explanation: The image shows women both shopping and working as saleswomen in public commercial spaces.

APUSH-MCQ8-037 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Consumer protection through food, drug, and meat-inspection regulation — Explanation: The exposé and misleading label reflect Progressive concerns over unsafe products and consumer protection.

APUSH-MCQ8-038 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Persuade readers and lawmakers that industrial production required public oversight — Explanation: Exposés sought to build support for regulation by revealing abuses.

APUSH-MCQ8-039 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Progressive reformers used investigative journalism to expose abuses and build support for regulation. — Explanation: Muckraking journalism was central to Progressive Era regulatory campaigns.

APUSH-MCQ8-040 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Progressive reform linked industrialization to new expectations for public health and consumer rights. — Explanation: The source connects industrial production to government responsibility for health and consumer protection.

APUSH-MCQ8-041 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The Bracero Program connected wartime labor needs to cross-border migration and contested working conditions. — Explanation: The table shows wartime labor demand, Mexican guest workers, growers' needs, and labor-condition disputes.

APUSH-MCQ8-042 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: World War II labor shortages and U.S.-Mexico cooperation — Explanation: The Bracero Program developed from wartime labor needs and bilateral agreements.

APUSH-MCQ8-043 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: A wartime labor system that brought temporary Mexican workers into U.S. agriculture — Explanation: The program recruited Mexican guest workers to meet agricultural labor demand during World War II.

APUSH-MCQ8-044 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Debates over migrant labor rights, agricultural dependency on seasonal workers, and immigration policy — Explanation: Bracero labor shaped later disputes about migrant work, rights, and immigration.

APUSH-MCQ8-045 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Black Power activists linked racial justice to community control, economic power, safety, and cultural pride. — Explanation: The statement explicitly connects freedom to schools, policing, jobs, and Black history.

APUSH-MCQ8-046 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Frustration with persistent racism, urban inequality, police violence, and the limits of formal legal victories — Explanation: Black Power activism grew partly from frustration with continuing inequality after civil rights victories.

APUSH-MCQ8-047 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: A focus on self-determination, community institutions, and cultural affirmation — Explanation: The statement reflects Black Power themes of community control and cultural pride.

APUSH-MCQ8-048 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Legal integration alone did not resolve debates over power, resources, and community autonomy. — Explanation: The statement argues that integration without power left dependency intact.

APUSH-MCQ8-049 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The rise of conservative religious politics within the New Right — Explanation: The broadcast links faith, family, courts, schools, and electoral organizing.

APUSH-MCQ8-050 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Some conservative religious activists connected cultural concerns to electoral politics. — Explanation: The speaker urges believers to organize and vote around moral and cultural concerns.

APUSH-MCQ8-051 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Growth of conservative criticism of liberal social change and federal court decisions — Explanation: The broadcast reflects New Right criticism of schools, courts, secularism, and cultural liberalism.

APUSH-MCQ8-052 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Iran-Contra and debates over executive power — Explanation: Secret arms sales, diverted funds, foreign rebels, and congressional oversight concerns point to Iran-Contra.

APUSH-MCQ8-053 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Late Cold War anticommunism and conflict between executive foreign policy goals and congressional oversight — Explanation: Iran-Contra grew out of Cold War foreign-policy goals and disputes over congressional limits.

APUSH-MCQ8-054 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Civil War and Vietnam-era debates over executive power during national crises — Explanation: Earlier crises also raised questions about executive authority, secrecy, war powers, and constitutional limits.

APUSH-MCQ8-055 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Cold War priorities could intensify debates over secrecy, oversight, and the separation of powers. — Explanation: The controversy showed how national-security claims could conflict with congressional oversight and constitutional accountability.

SECTION 2 — SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — DO NOT IMPORT

SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — APUSH-MCQ8

- APUSH-MCQ8-001–003: Unit 1; Period 1; Eastern Woodlands Native communities, river-valley villages, agricultural households, kinship networks; secondary-source interpretation; maize-bean-squash agriculture, longhouses, storage pits, hunting, matrilineal kinship, diplomacy; claims-evidence and environmental adaptation path; archaeological/social-organization evidence stimulus; targets misconception that Native societies lacked agriculture or developed uniform social structures.
- APUSH-MCQ8-004–007: Unit 2; Period 2; Puritan New England, Salem, accused women, local courts, ministers, anxious communities; secondary-source interpretation; witchcraft accusations, community discipline, gender expectations, war anxiety, political uncertainty; sourcing/contextualization path; court-record interpretation stimulus; targets misconception that Salem was only superstition without social, political, and gender context.
- APUSH-MCQ8-008–010: Unit 3; Period 3; post-Revolutionary female academies, women students, republican households, education reformers; original simulated female academy advertisement, 1790s; republican motherhood, women's education, civic virtue, domestic ideology, family and citizenship; sourcing and cultural-context path; primary-source-style school advertisement; targets misconception that women's education after the Revolution was unrelated to republican politics.
- APUSH-MCQ8-011–014: Unit 3; Period 3; western Pennsylvania farmers, federal tax collectors, Washington administration, frontier communities; original simulated farmer statement, 1794; Whiskey Rebellion, excise tax, poor roads, market access, federal enforcement, republican liberty; sourcing and federal-authority argument path; primary-source-style frontier complaint; targets misconception that ratification settled debates over federal taxation and authority.
- APUSH-MCQ8-015–018: Unit 4; Period 4; turnpike investors, postal users, newspaper editors, party organizers, expanding settlements; roads/mail/print table, c. 1800–1845; turnpikes, post offices, newspaper circulation, campaign material, market and political integration; data interpretation and communication-network path; transportation/print table; targets misconception that mass politics and market connections expanded without communication infrastructure.
- APUSH-MCQ8-019–021: Unit 4; Period 4; temperance reformers, workers, families, jail reformers, moral reform audiences; original simulated temperance tract, 1830s; alcohol, wages, family stability, discipline, republican citizenship, moral reform; sourcing and argument path; reform tract text; targets misconception that antebellum reform avoided private behavior or was disconnected from public order.
- APUSH-MCQ8-022–025: Unit 5; Period 5; Oregon and California migrants, Native nations, military forts, supply points, western environments; described overland trail map, c. 1840s–1850s; wagon routes, river crossings, disease, Native homelands, forts, Manifest Destiny, Pacific migration; map/geography and argument path; overland migration map; targets misconception that westward expansion was only federal diplomacy and not also ordinary migration through contested lands.
- APUSH-MCQ8-026–029: Unit 5; Period 5; New York workers, Black residents, Union officials, newspaper editors, wartime urban crowds; original simulated draft-riot editorial, 1863; conscription, substitution payments, class resentment, racial violence, Northern dissent, Civil War home front;

sourcing and social-conflict path; primary-source-style newspaper editorial; targets misconception that the Union home front was socially unified.

- APUSH-MCQ8-030–033: Unit 6; Period 6; oil corporations, railroads, managers, consumers, antitrust critics; secondary-source interpretation; vertical integration, horizontal consolidation, rebates, patents, managerial systems, antitrust sentiment; claims-evidence and political-economy argument path; corporate-strategy interpretation stimulus; targets misconception that Gilded Age corporate growth was only technological and not also organizational and political.

- APUSH-MCQ8-034–036: Unit 6; Period 6; department stores, women shoppers, saleswomen, advertisers, urban middle class; described department-store advertisement, 1890s; electric lights, window displays, mass retail, consumer culture, women's wage work and public shopping; visual analysis and social-change path; retail advertisement visual; targets misconception that women's urban public roles were limited to reform or domestic life.

- APUSH-MCQ8-037–040: Unit 7; Period 7; muckraking journalists, consumers, food processors, patent-medicine sellers, lawmakers; described magazine exposé and product label, c. 1905; unsafe processing, misleading labels, consumer protection, food/drug regulation, investigative journalism; visual/source analysis and Progressive regulation path; exposé plus product-label visual; targets misconception that Progressivism ignored consumer rights and public health.

- APUSH-MCQ8-041–044: Unit 7; Period 7; Mexican guest workers, U.S. growers, wartime agricultural regions, U.S. and Mexican governments; wartime farm labor table, 1942–1945; Bracero Program, bilateral agreements, labor shortages, seasonal work, contract enforcement, migrant labor rights; data interpretation and transnational labor path; wartime labor table; targets misconception that WWII labor mobilization was only industrial or only domestic.

- APUSH-MCQ8-045–048: Unit 8; Period 8; Black Power activists, urban communities, schools, police, employers, cultural institutions; original simulated community program statement, late 1960s; self-determination, community control, jobs, policing, Black history, limits of legal integration; sourcing and civil-rights strategy argument path; activist program statement; targets misconception that civil rights activism after 1965 was only legal integration or lacked economic/cultural demands.

- APUSH-MCQ8-049–051: Unit 8; Period 8; conservative religious broadcasters, families, schools, courts, voters, New Right organizers; original simulated conservative broadcast transcript, late 1970s; faith, family values, schools, activist courts, electoral organizing, cultural backlash; sourcing and political-culture path; broadcast transcript stimulus; targets misconception that late-1970s conservatism was only tax policy or lacked religious-cultural mobilization.

- APUSH-MCQ8-052–055: Unit 9; Period 9; Reagan-era executive officials, Congress, foreign rebels, Cold War policymakers, oversight critics; original simulated congressional hearing summary, late 1980s; Iran-Contra, secret arms sales, diverted funds, anticommunism, executive power, congressional oversight, separation of powers; sourcing and constitutional-foreign-policy argument path; hearing-summary text; targets misconception that late Cold War foreign policy was disconnected from domestic constitutional debate.