

SECTION 1 — IMPORT-READY SOURCE FILE

AP U.S. History MCQ Practice Exam 9

PART A — QUESTIONS

APUSH-MCQ9-001

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — Period 1: 1491–1607

Period: Period 1: 1491–1607

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that some Plains river-village societies before sustained European contact combined maize agriculture, bison hunting, earth-lodge settlements, and regional trade along river corridors. Which evidence would best support this interpretation?

- A) Archaeological remains of earth lodges, storage pits, bison bones, maize, and trade goods near Missouri River villages
- B) English records describing tea imports into Boston
- C) Federal reports on World War II aircraft production
- D) Railroad timetables from the 1890s
- A) Archaeological remains of earth lodges, storage pits, bison bones, maize, and trade goods near Missouri River villages
- B) English records describing tea imports into Boston
- C) Federal reports on World War II aircraft production
- D) Railroad timetables from the 1890s

APUSH-MCQ9-002

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — Period 1: 1491–1607

Period: Period 1: 1491–1607

Theme: GEO — Geography and the Environment

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that Plains river-village societies combined agriculture, bison hunting, earth-lodge settlement, and trade along river corridors. Which environmental factor most directly supported this mixed economy?

- A) Atlantic ports used for global shipping
- B) River valleys that supported farming and exchange near grasslands with bison herds
- C) Tropical soils suited to sugar plantations
- D) Arctic seas used for commercial whaling

APUSH-MCQ9-003

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — Period 1: 1491–1607

Period: Period 1: 1491–1607

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation. A historian argues that Plains river-village societies combined farming, hunting, settlement, and trade before sustained European contact. Which argument about precontact Native societies is best supported?

- A) Plains peoples relied on one uniform nomadic economy before European contact.
- B) Native societies could blend farming, hunting, settlement, and trade in regionally specific ways.
- C) Native communities in the interior had no exchange networks before colonization.
- D) Agriculture in North America depended on European settlement.

APUSH-MCQ9-004

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Virginia planter letter, 1676, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “Men lately freed from service crowd the frontier, angered by taxes, land hunger, and fear of attack. If the assembly cannot quiet them, the whole colony may burn.” Which conflict is most directly reflected in the letter?

- A) The Pueblo Revolt
- B) Bacon’s Rebellion
- C) The Stono Rebellion
- D) The Whiskey Rebellion

APUSH-MCQ9-005

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Virginia planter letter, 1676, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The letter describes freed servants on the frontier angered by taxes, land hunger, and fear of attack. Which broader colonial context best explains this conflict?

- A) Rapid expansion of tobacco settlement created conflicts over land, labor, and relations with Native peoples.
- B) British authorities had already abolished plantation agriculture in Virginia.
- C) Virginia settlers had stopped moving into the interior by 1650.
- D) Colonial elites had ended all social inequality among free men.

APUSH-MCQ9-006

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Virginia planter letter, 1676, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The letter describes unrest among former indentured servants on the frontier. Which later labor development was connected to elite efforts to reduce dependence on unstable indentured labor?

- A) The decline of enslaved labor in the Chesapeake
- B) The expansion of racial slavery as the central labor system in the Chesapeake
- C) The growth of factory wage labor in Lowell
- D) The spread of sharecropping after the Civil War

APUSH-MCQ9-007

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Virginia planter letter, 1676, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The letter links freed servants, taxes, land hunger, frontier fear, and colonial authority. Which argument about seventeenth-century Virginia is best supported?

- A) Class tensions, frontier conflict, and labor instability shaped colonial political decisions.
- B) The colony had no conflicts between elites and poorer free men.
- C) Native land questions were unrelated to colonial unrest.
- D) Virginia's labor system was based entirely on free family farming.

APUSH-MCQ9-008

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated nonimportation association notice, 1770s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. "Households that spin, weave, mend, and refuse imported finery do more than save coin. They teach Parliament that liberty can be worn in homespun." Which historical situation is most directly reflected?

- A) Colonial consumer resistance to British imperial policy
- B) Federal enforcement of the Fugitive Slave Act
- C) Opposition to the National Origins Act
- D) Debate over the annexation of Hawaii

APUSH-MCQ9-009

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated nonimportation association notice, 1770s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The notice praises households that spin, weave, mend, and refuse imported finery to show Parliament that liberty can be “worn in homespun.” Which claim is best supported?

- A) Women’s domestic production could become part of political resistance.
- B) Nonimportation depended only on military action.
- C) Colonial protests rejected all household participation.
- D) British taxation had no effect on consumer behavior.

APUSH-MCQ9-010

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated nonimportation association notice, 1770s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The notice connects homespun cloth, refusal of imported goods, and liberty. Which broader context best explains the message?

- A) Colonists used boycotts and symbolic consumption to protest taxation and imperial authority.
- B) Parliament gave colonial assemblies full control over trade policy.
- C) The United States had already become an independent nation.
- D) The Great Depression reduced consumer spending.

APUSH-MCQ9-011

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated nonimportation association notice, 1770s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The notice argues that producing and wearing homespun cloth teaches Parliament a political lesson. Which argument about the imperial crisis is best supported?

- A) Political mobilization during the imperial crisis extended into everyday economic and household practices.
- B) The imperial crisis involved only debates among royal governors.
- C) Colonial women had no role in resistance activity.
- D) Consumer behavior was irrelevant to Revolutionary politics.

APUSH-MCQ9-012

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Loyalists after the American Revolution.

Pattern | Development

Loyalist property | Confiscated in some states

Migration | Thousands left for Canada, Britain, the Caribbean, or elsewhere

Peace treaty terms | Recommended restoration of property but enforcement varied

Political culture | Patriots often viewed Loyalists as threats to republican independence

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Loyalists faced political and economic consequences after Patriot victory.
- B) Loyalists remained fully protected in all states after the war.
- C) The peace treaty guaranteed complete restoration of Loyalist property in every case.
- D) Loyalists unanimously joined Patriot governments after independence.

APUSH-MCQ9-013

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Loyalists after the American Revolution. Loyalist property was confiscated in some states, thousands migrated, peace terms recommended restoration of property, and enforcement varied. Which development is most directly reflected?

- A) The creation of political boundaries and identities after independence
- B) The repeal of all state laws after the Treaty of Paris
- C) The end of conflict between Patriots and Loyalists before 1776
- D) The admission of Texas as a slave state

APUSH-MCQ9-014

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Loyalists after the American Revolution. The table shows property confiscation, migration, uneven enforcement of peace terms, and Patriot suspicion of Loyalists. Which broader issue is most directly connected to these developments?

- A) Defining who belonged in the new republic and how dissenters would be treated
- B) Deciding whether slavery would expand into Kansas
- C) Creating federal wilderness parks
- D) Establishing national healthcare programs

APUSH-MCQ9-015

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of telegraph and news networks.

Indicator | Early 1840s | Late 1840s

Telegraph lines | Experimental and limited | Expanding between major cities

News transmission | Often moved by mail, courier, or ship | Increasingly rapid for connected cities

Market information | Local or delayed | Faster updates for prices and events

Political news | Slower circulation | Quicker circulation along connected routes

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

A) Telegraph networks slowed the circulation of political news.

B) Communication technology began accelerating market and political information in the 1840s.

C) Telegraph lines ended the need for newspapers.

D) Market information became less important after 1840.

APUSH-MCQ9-016

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of telegraph and news networks. Telegraph lines expanded between major cities by the late 1840s, news transmission became faster in connected cities, and price and political information circulated more rapidly. Which broader development belongs to the same context?

A) The market revolution's expansion of faster communication, transportation, and commercial exchange

B) The disappearance of national political parties

C) The end of commercial agriculture in the West

D) The creation of the New Deal welfare state

APUSH-MCQ9-017

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of telegraph and news networks. The table shows that telegraph lines expanded in the 1840s and accelerated political and market information. Which cultural effect was most closely connected to faster communication?

A) Increased speed with which newspapers and parties could circulate information across distance

B) Decline of literacy throughout the United States

C) Abolition of all local newspapers

D) End of public debate over politics

APUSH-MCQ9-018

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of telegraph and news networks. By the late 1840s, connected cities received faster updates about markets, events, and politics. Which argument about technological change is best supported?

- A) Communication technology reshaped economic and political connections before the Civil War.
- B) Telegraphy had no practical effects until the twentieth century.
- C) The market revolution depended only on plantation agriculture.
- D) Faster information weakened national markets.

APUSH-MCQ9-019

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated utopian community rules, 1840s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “Members shall share labor, educate children together, reject selfish competition, and order daily life so that cooperation replaces the market’s corrupting spirit.” Which movement is most directly reflected?

- A) Utopian communal reform
- B) Modern conservatism
- C) The Free Soil movement
- D) The Open Door policy

APUSH-MCQ9-020

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated utopian community rules, 1840s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The rules call for shared labor, cooperative education, rejection of selfish competition, and a daily life organized against “the market’s corrupting spirit.” Which claim is best supported?

- A) Some reformers created alternative communities to challenge competitive individualism and social inequality.
- B) Utopian reformers focused only on foreign trade.
- C) Utopian communities rejected education as a reform goal.
- D) Communal reform had no relationship to the market revolution.

APUSH-MCQ9-021

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated utopian community rules, 1840s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The rules emphasize shared labor, common education, and cooperation instead of market competition. Which broader antebellum pattern is reflected?

- A) Reformers experimented with new ways to perfect society amid rapid economic and social change.
- B) Reform movements disappeared after the War of 1812.
- C) Americans unanimously accepted market competition without criticism.
- D) Utopian communities became the dominant form of American settlement.

APUSH-MCQ9-022

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of the Compromise of 1850.

Provision | Effect

California | Admitted as a free state

Utah and New Mexico | Territorial status with slavery question left open

Fugitive Slave Law | Stronger federal enforcement

Washington, D.C. | Slave trade ended, slavery remained legal

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) The compromise balanced sectional concessions while strengthening conflict over slavery enforcement.
- B) The compromise abolished slavery in every state.
- C) The compromise prevented all future sectional conflict.
- D) The compromise admitted California as a slave state.

APUSH-MCQ9-023

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: GEO — Geography and the Environment

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of the Compromise of 1850. California was admitted as a free state, Utah and New Mexico became territories with slavery unresolved, a stronger Fugitive Slave Law passed, and the slave trade ended in Washington, D.C. Which broader context most directly produced this compromise?

- A) Territorial gains from the Mexican-American War intensified disputes over slavery's expansion.
- B) The United States withdrew from the Pacific coast.
- C) The Supreme Court ended the slavery debate in 1820.
- D) Southern states voluntarily abolished slavery before 1850.

APUSH-MCQ9-024

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of the Compromise of 1850. The table shows California’s admission as a free state, unresolved slavery questions in Utah and New Mexico, stronger fugitive slave enforcement, and changes in Washington, D.C. Which later development most directly showed that the compromise had not resolved sectional conflict?

- A) The Kansas-Nebraska Act and violent conflict over slavery in Kansas
- B) The creation of the Environmental Protection Agency
- C) The passage of the National Origins Act
- D) The ratification of the Seventeenth Amendment

APUSH-MCQ9-025

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of the Compromise of 1850. The compromise combined California’s free-state admission, territorial ambiguity, stronger fugitive slave enforcement, and changes in Washington, D.C. Which argument is best supported?

- A) Political compromise could postpone sectional crisis while also spreading conflict into new legal and geographic arenas.
- B) The slavery issue became irrelevant after 1850.
- C) The compromise gave antislavery northerners every demand they wanted.
- D) Territorial expansion reduced the importance of slavery in national politics.

APUSH-MCQ9-026

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Civil War medicine.

Condition | Pattern during the war

Battle wounds | Treated by surgeons in field hospitals

Disease | Killed more soldiers than battle wounds

Sanitary Commission | Organized supplies, nursing, and camp-health campaigns

Women’s wartime work | Expanded in nursing and relief organizations

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Disease and medical organization were central to the Civil War experience.
- B) Civil War soldiers rarely faced illness.
- C) Women had no role in wartime medical work.
- D) Military medicine eliminated battlefield deaths.

APUSH-MCQ9-027

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Civil War medicine. Disease killed more soldiers than battle wounds, the Sanitary Commission organized supplies and camp-health campaigns, and women's wartime work expanded in nursing and relief organizations. Which audience would reformers using these data most likely try to persuade?

- A) Military officials and civilians to improve camp sanitation, supplies, and medical relief
- B) British officials to repeal colonial taxes
- C) Railroad managers to lower freight rates
- D) Plantation owners to expand cotton production

APUSH-MCQ9-028

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Civil War medicine. The table shows battle wounds, disease, Sanitary Commission work, and women's nursing and relief roles. Which broader context best explains the expansion of women's wartime work?

- A) The complete exclusion of women from public activity before the war
- B) The mobilization of civilian society for total war created new opportunities for public service.
- C) The abolition of all gender expectations during the Civil War
- D) The end of voluntary associations after 1861

APUSH-MCQ9-029

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Civil War medicine. The table shows disease deaths, field hospitals, Sanitary Commission campaigns, and women's nursing and relief work. Which argument about the Civil War is best supported?

- A) The war transformed not only armies but also public health, voluntary organization, and gendered service.
- B) The war had no effect on civilian institutions.
- C) Medical conditions were unrelated to military outcomes.
- D) Women's war work was limited to voting and officeholding.

APUSH-MCQ9-030

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: GEO — Geography and the Environment

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map of Great Plains farming, c. 1870–1895. The map shows Homestead Act claims, railroad land grants, dry-farming regions, areas of low rainfall, and counties later affected by farm foreclosure. Which conclusion is best supported?

- A) Great Plains settlement was shaped by federal land policy, railroads, environmental limits, and market risk.
- B) Farming on the Great Plains required no adaptation to climate.
- C) Railroads had no role in Plains settlement.
- D) Federal land policy prohibited migration to the Plains.

APUSH-MCQ9-031

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map of Great Plains farming, c. 1870–1895. Homestead claims, railroad land grants, low-rainfall areas, dry-farming regions, and foreclosure-affected counties are shown. Which broader development belongs to this context?

- A) Federal encouragement of western settlement through land laws and railroad expansion
- B) The decline of all settlement west of the Mississippi
- C) The abolition of commercial farming after Reconstruction
- D) The removal of railroads from the Plains

APUSH-MCQ9-032

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map of Great Plains farming, c. 1870–1895. The map shows Homestead claims, railroad land grants, dry-farming regions, low rainfall, and farm foreclosure areas. Which economic problem most directly affected many farmers in this region?

- A) Dependence on crop prices, railroad shipping rates, credit, and debt
- B) Complete absence of national markets
- C) Federal guarantees of high crop prices
- D) End of agricultural mechanization

APUSH-MCQ9-033

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map of Great Plains farming, c. 1870–1895. Homestead claims, railroad grants, low rainfall, dry-farming regions, and foreclosure areas are shown. Which argument about western farming is best supported?

- A) Settlement policy promised independence, but environmental and market conditions often made farming precarious.
- B) Homesteaders were unaffected by weather or credit.
- C) Federal land policy created equal outcomes for all settlers.
- D) Western farmers avoided political organization because conditions were easy.

APUSH-MCQ9-034

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described mail-order catalogue page, 1890s. The page offers clothing, tools, sewing machines, stoves, and watches with prices, shipping instructions, and a promise that rural customers can buy “city goods at fair prices.” Which conclusion is best supported?

- A) Mail-order catalogues connected rural consumers to national markets.
- B) Rural consumers had no access to manufactured goods.
- C) National advertising disappeared in the 1890s.
- D) Mail-order firms sold only agricultural land.

APUSH-MCQ9-035

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described mail-order catalogue page, 1890s. The page offers many manufactured goods with prices and shipping instructions and promises rural customers “city goods at fair prices.” Which economic development made this form of retail especially effective?

- A) The disappearance of postal service in rural areas
- B) National rail, postal, advertising, and mass-production networks
- C) The end of consumer culture after Reconstruction
- D) Federal prohibition of rural credit

APUSH-MCQ9-036

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described mail-order catalogue page, 1890s. The page promises rural customers access to “city goods” through prices and shipping instructions. Which broader social change is most directly reflected?

- A) Rural households increasingly participated in national consumer culture.
- B) Rural communities became completely isolated from national markets.
- C) Industrial production no longer affected household consumption.
- D) Consumer choice declined as railroads expanded.

APUSH-MCQ9-037

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated settlement house report, 1905, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “Mothers ask for milk stations, workers for English classes, boys for playgrounds, and neighbors for help against landlords who ignore repairs. The house must be a bridge between the immigrant street and the city government.” Which movement is most directly reflected?

- A) Settlement house reform in immigrant urban neighborhoods
- B) The Free Soil movement
- C) The First Great Awakening
- D) The campaign for the Missouri Compromise

APUSH-MCQ9-038

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated settlement house report, 1905, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The report describes milk stations, English classes, playgrounds, landlord disputes, immigrant streets, and city government. Which claim is best supported?

- A) Settlement houses tried to address problems caused by immigration, poverty, housing, and urban services.
- B) Settlement houses rejected all contact with immigrant families.
- C) Settlement houses focused only on western farming.
- D) Urban reformers avoided local government issues.

APUSH-MCQ9-039

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated settlement house report, 1905, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The report says the settlement house must bridge immigrant neighborhoods and city government. Which broader context best explains this goal?

- A) Rapid urban immigration and industrial poverty created demands for social services and municipal reform.
- B) The United States had stopped receiving immigrants by 1900.
- C) Federal law required all immigrants to live in rural areas.
- D) City governments had eliminated poverty before the Progressive Era.

APUSH-MCQ9-040

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated settlement house report, 1905, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The report describes immigrant families, services, playgrounds, housing issues, and links to city government. Which argument about Progressive reform is best supported?

- A) Progressive reform included community-based efforts that combined social services, cultural adjustment, and political advocacy.
- B) Progressives avoided urban reform.
- C) Settlement houses opposed women's participation in public life.
- D) Progressive reformers rejected education and public health.

APUSH-MCQ9-041

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of defense-industry employment, 1941–1945.

Pattern | Wartime development

Defense production | Expanded rapidly

African American migration to industrial cities | Increased

Discrimination in defense jobs | Persisted

Federal fair-employment policy | Created after pressure from civil rights activists

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Wartime production created new job opportunities while civil rights activists challenged discrimination.
- B) Defense production declined during World War II.
- C) African American migration to industrial cities ended during the war.
- D) Federal policy encouraged open exclusion from all defense jobs.

APUSH-MCQ9-042

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of defense-industry employment, 1941–1945. Defense production expanded, African American migration to industrial cities increased, discrimination persisted, and federal fair-employment policy was created after pressure from activists. Which pressure campaign is most directly connected to the policy change shown?

- A) A threatened march on Washington demanding fair defense employment
- B) The campaign for nullification in South Carolina
- C) The movement to repeal the Missouri Compromise
- D) The protest against the Stamp Act

APUSH-MCQ9-043

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of defense-industry employment, 1941–1945. The table shows expanding defense production, increased Black migration, persistent job discrimination, and federal fair-employment policy. Which federal action belongs to this context?

- A) Establishment of a wartime fair-employment committee to address discrimination in defense industries
- B) Passage of the Fugitive Slave Act
- C) Creation of the Northwest Ordinance
- D) Ratification of the Articles of Confederation

APUSH-MCQ9-044

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of defense-industry employment, 1941–1945. Defense production expanded, African American migration increased, discrimination persisted, and fair-employment policy followed activist pressure. Which broader pattern is most directly reflected?

- A) Wartime mobilization could create openings for civil rights activism while leaving inequality unresolved.
- B) World War II ended racial discrimination in employment completely.
- C) Civil rights activism disappeared during wartime.
- D) Defense work had no effect on migration patterns.

APUSH-MCQ9-045

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map of the Korean War, 1950–1953. The map shows North Korean forces crossing the 38th parallel, United Nations forces landing at Inchon, Chinese forces entering from the north, and the final armistice line near the original division. Which conclusion is best supported?

- A) The Korean War reflected Cold War containment, international intervention, and limits on total victory.
- B) The Korean War ended with U.S. annexation of Korea.
- C) China avoided involvement in the Korean War.
- D) The United Nations played no role in the conflict.

APUSH-MCQ9-046

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map of the Korean War, 1950–1953. The map shows North Korean movement south, UN landing at Inchon, Chinese intervention, and an armistice line near the 38th parallel. Which broader policy framework best explains U.S. involvement?

- A) Containment of Communist expansion
- B) Manifest Destiny
- C) Salutary neglect
- D) Popular sovereignty in the territories

APUSH-MCQ9-047

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map of the Korean War, 1950–1953. The map shows shifting military control and an armistice near the original 38th parallel division. Which idea is most directly reflected by the war's outcome?

- A) Limited war under Cold War conditions
- B) Complete U.S. withdrawal from global commitments
- C) End of military alliances after World War II
- D) Abandonment of anticommunism

APUSH-MCQ9-048

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map of the Korean War, 1950–1953. The map shows North Korean invasion, UN intervention, Chinese intervention, and an armistice near the 38th parallel. Which argument about postwar foreign policy is best supported?

- A) Cold War conflicts could expand U.S. military commitments without producing decisive territorial change.
- B) The Korean War ended debates over executive war powers.
- C) U.S. foreign policy after 1945 avoided military action.
- D) Cold War conflict was limited to Europe.

APUSH-MCQ9-049

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Puerto Rican migration and urban life, 1945–1970.

Pattern | Development

Migration to New York and other cities | Increased after World War II

Citizenship status | Puerto Ricans were U.S. citizens

Employment | Concentrated in service, manufacturing, and public-sector work

Community institutions | Churches, newspapers, mutual aid, and cultural organizations expanded

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Puerto Rican migration was part of postwar urban change and community formation.
- B) Puerto Ricans migrated as foreign nationals without U.S. citizenship.
- C) Puerto Rican migrants avoided urban employment.
- D) Postwar migration ended Latino/a community institutions.

APUSH-MCQ9-050

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Puerto Rican migration and urban life, 1945–1970. Migration to New York and other cities increased; Puerto Ricans were U.S. citizens; employment was concentrated in service, manufacturing, and public-sector work; community institutions expanded. Which broader context best explains these changes?

- A) Postwar air travel, labor demand, colonial relationship, and urban economic opportunity
- B) The end of all Caribbean migration after 1945

- C) Federal removal of U.S. citizenship from Puerto Ricans
- D) The creation of the Northwest Territory

APUSH-MCQ9-051

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Puerto Rican migration and urban life, 1945–1970. The table shows increased migration, U.S. citizenship, urban employment, and expanded community institutions. Which broader development is most closely connected?

- A) The growth of diverse postwar urban cultures and debates over housing, schools, work, and identity
- B) The disappearance of ethnic politics in cities
- C) The end of all migration to the Northeast
- D) The collapse of public-sector employment

APUSH-MCQ9-052

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: GEO — Geography and the Environment

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of climate and energy politics.

Pattern | Late 20th to early 21st century development

Scientific reports | Increasingly linked greenhouse gases to warming

Energy policy | Debates over fossil fuels, renewables, regulation, and jobs

Coastal and wildfire risks | Became more visible in public policy discussions

Political response | Divided by party, region, industry, and environmental priorities

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Climate and energy politics linked science, economic interests, environmental risk, and partisan debate.
- B) Climate concerns had no relationship to energy policy.
- C) Scientific reports ended political disagreement over environmental policy.
- D) Coastal and wildfire risks disappeared from policy debates.

APUSH-MCQ9-053

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of climate and energy politics. Scientific reports increasingly linked greenhouse gases to warming, energy policy debates involved fossil fuels and renewables, coastal and wildfire risks became more visible, and political response divided by party, region, industry, and environmental priorities. Which broader context best explains the energy-policy debates shown?

- A) The expansion of renewable technology alongside continued dependence on fossil-fuel industries
- B) The disappearance of all energy consumption after 1980
- C) The end of federal environmental regulation before 1990
- D) The decline of scientific research after the Cold War

APUSH-MCQ9-054

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of climate and energy politics. The table links scientific reports, fossil fuels, renewables, environmental risks, jobs, and partisan/regional divisions. Which earlier historical pattern is most similar?

- A) Public policy debates over industrial pollution and environmental regulation in the 1960s and 1970s
- B) Colonial debates over Puritan church membership
- C) The creation of the Missouri Compromise
- D) The spread of the encomienda system

APUSH-MCQ9-055

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of climate and energy politics. Scientific reports linked greenhouse gases to warming, energy debates involved fossil fuels and renewables, environmental risks became more visible, and responses divided by party, region, industry, and environmental priorities. Which argument about recent U.S. history is best supported?

- A) Environmental policy became a site where scientific knowledge, economic identity, regional interest, and political polarization intersected.
- B) Environmental politics disappeared after the first Earth Day.
- C) Energy jobs had no relationship to climate politics.
- D) Climate policy debates produced unanimous national agreement.

PART B — ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

APUSH-MCQ9-001 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Archaeological remains of earth lodges, storage pits, bison bones, maize, and trade goods near Missouri River villages — Explanation: These remains support claims about settled villages, agriculture, hunting, and trade along Plains river corridors.

APUSH-MCQ9-002 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: River valleys that supported farming and exchange near grasslands with bison herds — Explanation: Plains river valleys allowed farming and trade while nearby grasslands supported bison hunting.

APUSH-MCQ9-003 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Native societies could blend farming, hunting, settlement, and trade in regionally specific ways. — Explanation: The interpretation shows that Native economies were diverse and adapted to local environments.

APUSH-MCQ9-004 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Bacon's Rebellion — Explanation: The letter's references to freed servants, frontier anger, taxes, land hunger, and fear of attack point to Bacon's Rebellion.

APUSH-MCQ9-005 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Rapid expansion of tobacco settlement created conflicts over land, labor, and relations with Native peoples. — Explanation: Chesapeake expansion created tensions among elites, former servants, frontier settlers, and Native communities.

APUSH-MCQ9-006 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The expansion of racial slavery as the central labor system in the Chesapeake — Explanation: After labor unrest, Chesapeake elites increasingly relied on enslaved African labor.

APUSH-MCQ9-007 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Class tensions, frontier conflict, and labor instability shaped colonial political decisions. — Explanation: The source connects social class, frontier expansion, taxation, and labor unrest.

APUSH-MCQ9-008 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Colonial consumer resistance to British imperial policy — Explanation: Homespun cloth and nonimportation were forms of resistance to British taxation and imperial policy.

APUSH-MCQ9-009 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Women's domestic production could become part of political resistance. — Explanation: The notice links household production to colonial protest and political identity.

APUSH-MCQ9-010 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Colonists used boycotts and symbolic consumption to protest taxation and imperial authority. — Explanation: Nonimportation turned consumer choices and homespun production into political action.

APUSH-MCQ9-011 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Political mobilization during the imperial crisis extended into everyday economic and household practices. — Explanation: The source shows resistance operating through homes, clothing, consumption, and production.

APUSH-MCQ9-012 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Loyalists faced political and economic consequences after Patriot victory. — Explanation: The table shows property confiscation, migration, and uneven enforcement of treaty protections.

APUSH-MCQ9-013 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The creation of political boundaries and identities after independence — Explanation: Loyalist treatment reflected the creation of new political loyalties and exclusions after independence.

APUSH-MCQ9-014 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Defining who belonged in the new republic and how dissenters would be treated — Explanation: Patriot treatment of Loyalists raised questions about belonging, dissent, and national identity.

APUSH-MCQ9-015 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Communication technology began accelerating market and political information in the 1840s. — Explanation: The table shows telegraph expansion and faster transmission of news, prices, and political information.

APUSH-MCQ9-016 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The market revolution's expansion of faster communication, transportation, and commercial exchange — Explanation: Telegraph networks belonged to broader changes connecting markets and politics.

APUSH-MCQ9-017 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Increased speed with which newspapers and parties could circulate information across distance — Explanation: Faster communication helped newspapers and parties distribute news and political information.

APUSH-MCQ9-018 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Communication technology reshaped economic and political connections before the Civil War. — Explanation: The table supports the argument that telegraphy affected market and political communication.

APUSH-MCQ9-019 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Utopian communal reform — Explanation: The rules' emphasis on shared labor, common education, and rejection of competition reflects utopian communal reform.

APUSH-MCQ9-020 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Some reformers created alternative communities to challenge competitive individualism and social inequality. — Explanation: The rules describe cooperation as an alternative to market competition.

APUSH-MCQ9-021 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Reformers experimented with new ways to perfect society amid rapid economic and social change. — Explanation: Utopian communities were part of antebellum efforts to reform society.

APUSH-MCQ9-022 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The compromise balanced sectional concessions while strengthening conflict over slavery enforcement. — Explanation: The table shows free-state admission, territorial ambiguity, stronger fugitive slave enforcement, and partial D.C. reform.

APUSH-MCQ9-023 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Territorial gains from the Mexican-American War intensified disputes over slavery's expansion. — Explanation: The Mexican Cession forced Congress to address slavery's status in new western lands.

APUSH-MCQ9-024 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The Kansas-Nebraska Act and violent conflict over slavery in Kansas — Explanation: Later conflict over Kansas showed that the Compromise of 1850 did not settle slavery expansion.

APUSH-MCQ9-025 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Political compromise could postpone sectional crisis while also spreading conflict into new legal and geographic arenas. — Explanation: The compromise managed immediate tensions but intensified disputes over fugitives and western territories.

APUSH-MCQ9-026 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Disease and medical organization were central to the Civil War experience. — Explanation: Disease deaths, field hospitals, the Sanitary Commission, and nursing all show the importance of wartime medicine.

APUSH-MCQ9-027 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Military officials and civilians to improve camp sanitation, supplies, and medical relief — Explanation: The data would support campaigns for sanitation, supplies, nursing, and relief work.

APUSH-MCQ9-028 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The mobilization of civilian society for total war created new opportunities for public service. — Explanation: Civil War mobilization expanded women's roles in nursing and voluntary relief.

APUSH-MCQ9-029 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The war transformed not only armies but also public health, voluntary organization, and gendered service. — Explanation: The table links military conflict to medical reform, voluntary organizations, and women's public service.

APUSH-MCQ9-030 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Great Plains settlement was shaped by federal land policy, railroads, environmental limits, and market risk. — Explanation: The map includes Homestead claims, rail grants, low rainfall, dry farming, and foreclosure areas.

APUSH-MCQ9-031 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Federal encouragement of western settlement through land laws and railroad expansion — Explanation: Homestead claims and railroad grants show federal support for western settlement.

APUSH-MCQ9-032 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Dependence on crop prices, railroad shipping rates, credit, and debt — Explanation: Plains farmers often faced environmental risk and market dependence.

APUSH-MCQ9-033 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Settlement policy promised independence, but environmental and market conditions often made farming precarious. — Explanation: The map shows both opportunities and limits of homesteading.

APUSH-MCQ9-034 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Mail-order catalogues connected rural consumers to national markets. — Explanation: The catalogue offers manufactured goods, prices, and shipping to rural customers.

APUSH-MCQ9-035 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: National rail, postal, advertising, and mass-production networks — Explanation: Mail-order retail depended on transportation, postal delivery, advertising, and mass-produced goods.

APUSH-MCQ9-036 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Rural households increasingly participated in national consumer culture. — Explanation: Rural buyers could purchase standardized "city goods" through catalogues.

APUSH-MCQ9-037 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Settlement house reform in immigrant urban neighborhoods — Explanation: Milk stations, English classes, playgrounds, housing complaints, and immigrant neighborhoods reflect settlement house work.

APUSH-MCQ9-038 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Settlement houses tried to address problems caused by immigration, poverty, housing, and urban services. — Explanation: The report links immigrant life to social services, housing, education, and government.

APUSH-MCQ9-039 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Rapid urban immigration and industrial poverty created demands for social services and municipal reform. — Explanation: Settlement houses responded to urban immigrant needs and municipal problems.

APUSH-MCQ9-040 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Progressive reform included community-based efforts that combined social services, cultural adjustment, and political advocacy. — Explanation: The report shows practical services and connections to city government.

APUSH-MCQ9-041 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Wartime production created new job opportunities while civil rights activists challenged discrimination. — Explanation: The table links defense production, Black migration, discrimination, and fair-employment activism.

APUSH-MCQ9-042 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: A threatened march on Washington demanding fair defense employment — Explanation: Civil rights pressure, including a threatened march, helped produce federal fair-employment action.

APUSH-MCQ9-043 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Establishment of a wartime fair-employment committee to address discrimination in defense industries — Explanation: The FEPC was created to address discrimination in wartime defense employment.

APUSH-MCQ9-044 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Wartime mobilization could create openings for civil rights activism while leaving inequality unresolved. — Explanation: The table shows opportunity, discrimination, migration, and activist pressure.

APUSH-MCQ9-045 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The Korean War reflected Cold War containment, international intervention, and limits on total victory. — Explanation: The map shows invasion, UN response, Chinese intervention, and a limited armistice outcome.

APUSH-MCQ9-046 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Containment of Communist expansion — Explanation: U.S. involvement in Korea was justified by containment policy.

APUSH-MCQ9-047 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Limited war under Cold War conditions — Explanation: The armistice near the original division reflected limited war rather than total victory.

APUSH-MCQ9-048 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Cold War conflicts could expand U.S. military commitments without producing decisive territorial change. — Explanation: The Korean War expanded U.S. military commitments but ended near the 38th parallel.

APUSH-MCQ9-049 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Puerto Rican migration was part of postwar urban change and community formation. — Explanation: The table shows migration, citizenship, work, and expanding institutions.

APUSH-MCQ9-050 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Postwar air travel, labor demand, colonial relationship, and urban economic opportunity — Explanation: These factors shaped Puerto Rican migration to mainland cities after World War II.

APUSH-MCQ9-051 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The growth of diverse postwar urban cultures and debates over housing, schools, work, and identity — Explanation: Migration and community formation shaped postwar city life and politics.

APUSH-MCQ9-052 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Climate and energy politics linked science, economic interests, environmental risk, and partisan debate. — Explanation: The table connects scientific reports, energy policy, environmental risks, and political divisions.

APUSH-MCQ9-053 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The expansion of renewable technology alongside continued dependence on fossil-fuel industries — Explanation: Energy debates grew from both renewable development and ongoing fossil-fuel dependence.

APUSH-MCQ9-054 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Public policy debates over industrial pollution and environmental regulation in the 1960s and 1970s — Explanation: Earlier environmental policy debates also linked science, regulation, industry, and public risk.

APUSH-MCQ9-055 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Environmental policy became a site where scientific knowledge, economic identity, regional interest, and political polarization intersected. — Explanation: The table shows climate and energy policy shaped by science, jobs, region, industry, and party divisions.

SECTION 2 — SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — DO NOT IMPORT

SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — APUSH-MCQ9

· APUSH-MCQ9-001–003: Unit 1; Period 1; Plains river-village societies, Missouri River communities, agricultural households, bison hunters, traders; secondary-source interpretation; earth lodges, maize, bison hunting, storage pits, river-valley exchange; claims-evidence and environmental adaptation path; archaeological/economic evidence stimulus; targets misconception that Plains peoples were uniformly nomadic or lacked farming before European contact.

· APUSH-MCQ9-004–007: Unit 2; Period 2; Virginia frontier settlers, former indentured servants, colonial elites, Native peoples, tobacco planters; original simulated planter letter, 1676; Bacon's Rebellion, frontier conflict, taxes, land hunger, labor instability, transition toward racial slavery; sourcing and causation path; primary-source-style planter letter; targets misconception that Chesapeake labor transition was unrelated to class and frontier conflict.

· APUSH-MCQ9-008–011: Unit 3; Period 3; colonial women, households, printers, merchants, Parliament, consumer activists; original simulated nonimportation association notice, 1770s; homespun, boycotts, household production, women's political participation, consumer resistance; sourcing and cultural-politics path; primary-source-style association notice; targets misconception that Revolutionary resistance was only formal politics or male military action.

· APUSH-MCQ9-012–014: Unit 3; Period 3; Loyalists, Patriots, state governments, migrants to Canada/Britain/Caribbean, treaty negotiators; Loyalist consequences table; property confiscation, exile, Treaty of Paris enforcement, political belonging; data/table and national-identity path; postwar Loyalist table; targets misconception that independence created immediate political unity or that Loyalists faced no consequences.

· APUSH-MCQ9-015–018: Unit 4; Period 4; telegraph operators, newspapers, merchants, party organizers, urban markets; telegraph and news network table, 1840s; faster news, market prices, political information, market revolution, communication technology; quantitative/data and technological-change path; communication-network table; targets misconception that pre-Civil War market integration depended only on transportation and not information technology.

· APUSH-MCQ9-019–021: Unit 4; Period 4; utopian reformers, communal households, educators, market critics; original simulated utopian community rules, 1840s; shared labor, common education, cooperation, anti-market critique, social perfectionism; sourcing and reform-argument path; communal-rule text; targets misconception that antebellum reformers only worked through traditional politics or accepted market individualism.

- APUSH-MCQ9-022–025: Unit 5; Period 5; California, Utah, New Mexico, Washington D.C., enslaved people, fugitives, sectional politicians; Compromise of 1850 table; free-state admission, popular sovereignty ambiguity, stronger Fugitive Slave Law, slave trade in D.C.; data/table and sectional-compromise path; legislative compromise table; targets misconception that compromise fully resolved slavery conflict.

- APUSH-MCQ9-026–029: Unit 5; Period 5; Civil War soldiers, nurses, Sanitary Commission reformers, civilian volunteers, military doctors; Civil War medicine table; disease deaths, field hospitals, sanitation, supplies, women's nursing, voluntary relief; quantitative/data and home-front mobilization path; wartime medicine table; targets misconception that Civil War history is only battlefield strategy and not public health or civilian organization.

- APUSH-MCQ9-030–033: Unit 6; Period 6; Great Plains homesteaders, railroad companies, federal land offices, indebted farmers, dry-farming communities; described Great Plains farming map, c. 1870–1895; Homestead claims, railroad land grants, low rainfall, foreclosure, credit, crop prices; map/geography and political-economy path; agricultural settlement map; targets misconception that homesteading automatically produced secure independence.

- APUSH-MCQ9-034–036: Unit 6; Period 6; rural consumers, mail-order firms, postal networks, railroads, manufacturers; described mail-order catalogue page, 1890s; city goods, shipping instructions, mass production, rural consumer culture, national markets; visual/source analysis and consumer-economy path; catalogue page visual; targets misconception that consumer culture was only urban.

- APUSH-MCQ9-037–040: Unit 7; Period 7; immigrant families, settlement house workers, city officials, landlords, urban children; original simulated settlement house report, 1905; milk stations, English classes, playgrounds, housing complaints, municipal advocacy; sourcing and Progressive social-reform path; primary-source-style settlement report; targets misconception that Progressive reform was only federal regulation or middle-class politics.

- APUSH-MCQ9-041–044: Unit 7; Period 7; African American migrants, defense workers, civil rights activists, wartime employers, federal officials; defense-industry employment table, 1941–1945; defense production, job discrimination, fair-employment pressure, FEPC, wartime migration; data/table and civil-rights mobilization path; WWII employment table; targets misconception that World War II automatically ended racial discrimination in work.

- APUSH-MCQ9-045–048: Unit 8; Period 8; U.S., UN, North Korea, South Korea, China, Cold War policymakers; described Korean War map, 1950–1953; 38th parallel, Inchon, Chinese intervention, armistice, containment, limited war; map/geography and foreign-policy argument path; Cold War military map; targets misconception that Cold War military conflict was limited to Europe or always ended in decisive victory.

- APUSH-MCQ9-049–051: Unit 8; Period 8; Puerto Rican migrants, New York and other cities, urban employers, churches, newspapers, cultural organizations; Puerto Rican migration and urban life table, 1945–1970; U.S. citizenship, air travel, labor demand, community institutions, housing and identity debates; data/table and migration/culture path; postwar urban migration table; targets misconception that postwar Latino/a migration was only foreign immigration without citizenship complexity.

· APUSH-MCQ9-052–055: Unit 9; Period 9; climate scientists, energy workers, fossil-fuel and renewable industries, coastal and wildfire-risk communities, policymakers; climate and energy politics table; greenhouse gases, warming, fossil fuels, renewables, regulation, jobs, partisan and regional division; data/table and environmental-politics argument path; modern climate/energy table; targets misconception that environmental politics ended after the 1970s or is disconnected from jobs, region, and political polarization.