

SECTION 1 — IMPORT-READY SOURCE FILE

AP U.S. History MCQ Practice Exam 12

PART A — QUESTIONS

APUSH-MCQ12-001

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — Period 1: 1491–1607

Period: Period 1: 1491–1607

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation with described map. A historian argues that early Spanish contact in the Caribbean transformed Taino communities through disease, forced labor, missionary activity, tribute demands, and resistance. A described map shows Hispaniola, Spanish settlements near gold fields, coastal landing points, and Taino villages disrupted by new labor demands. Which evidence would best support this interpretation?

- A) Archaeological and Spanish administrative records showing population decline, tribute collection, and forced labor near mining settlements
- B) Federal reports describing railroad time zones in the 1880s
- C) Newspaper accounts of the Scopes Trial
- D) A table of post-2008 mortgage foreclosures

APUSH-MCQ12-002

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — Period 1: 1491–1607

Period: Period 1: 1491–1607

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation with described map. A historian argues that early Spanish contact in the Caribbean transformed Taino communities through disease, forced labor, missionary activity, tribute demands, and resistance. Which broader context best explains these changes?

- A) British colonists had already created elected assemblies throughout the Caribbean.
- B) European conquest connected Native societies to Atlantic empires, Christianity, coerced labor, and demographic upheaval.
- C) Taino communities controlled Spanish imperial administration after 1492.
- D) Spanish colonization had no relationship to labor extraction.

APUSH-MCQ12-003

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — Period 1: 1491–1607

Period: Period 1: 1491–1607

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Secondary-source interpretation with described map. A historian argues that early Spanish contact in the Caribbean transformed Taino communities through disease, forced labor, missionary activity, tribute demands, and resistance. Which argument about early European colonization is best supported?

- A) Spanish colonization in the Caribbean involved both violent disruption and Native attempts to respond to new imperial pressures.
- B) Spanish contact left Caribbean Native societies unchanged.
- C) European colonization in the Caribbean depended only on voluntary trade.
- D) Native resistance prevented all Spanish settlement in the Caribbean.

APUSH-MCQ12-004

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated South Carolina council report, 1715, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “Our former trading partners accuse the colony of debt, fraud, enslavement, and insult. The frontier posts are in danger, and merchants fear the collapse of the deerskin trade.”

Which conflict is most directly reflected?

- A) The Nullification Crisis
- B) The Yamasee War and conflict over trade, debt, and colonial expansion
- C) The Whiskey Rebellion
- D) The Mexican-American War

APUSH-MCQ12-005

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated South Carolina council report, 1715, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The report says Native trading partners accused the colony of debt, fraud, enslavement, and insult, while merchants feared collapse of the deerskin trade. Which claim is best supported?

- A) Native-colonial trade relationships could become sources of conflict as well as cooperation.
- B) South Carolina’s economy had no connection to Native trade.
- C) Native peoples had no role in shaping frontier politics.
- D) Colonial trade eliminated all violence between Native peoples and settlers.

APUSH-MCQ12-006

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated South Carolina council report, 1715, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The report describes Native anger over debt, fraud, enslavement, insult, and colonial frontier posts. Which broader colonial context best explains the conflict?

- A) Expansion of English settlement, trade dependency, and Native resistance in the Southeast
- B) Decline of all settlement in the Carolina backcountry
- C) Federal land surveys under the Northwest Ordinance
- D) The end of Atlantic trade before 1700

APUSH-MCQ12-007

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Period 2: 1607–1754

Period: Period 2: 1607–1754

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated South Carolina council report, 1715, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The report links Native grievances, frontier danger, trade, debt, and enslavement. Which argument about colonial borderlands is best supported?

- A) Borderlands were shaped only by European diplomacy.
- B) Native peoples and colonists negotiated, traded, and fought within unstable systems of power and exchange.
- C) Colonial frontier trade prevented all Native resistance.
- D) The Southeast was isolated from Atlantic markets.

APUSH-MCQ12-008

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of colonial cooperation during the Seven Years' War era.

Pattern | Development

Albany Congress | Proposed greater colonial coordination

British war goals | Defeat France and secure interior territory

Colonial assemblies | Often protected local control over taxation and militia

Native diplomacy | Remained crucial in the interior

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) The war ended all conflict between colonies and Britain.
- B) The Albany Congress created a permanent colonial union.
- C) Imperial war exposed both the need for coordination and the persistence of local colonial interests.
- D) Native diplomacy became irrelevant during the war.

APUSH-MCQ12-009

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of colonial cooperation during the Seven Years' War era. The table notes the Albany Congress, British war goals against France, colonial assemblies protecting local control, and the importance of Native diplomacy. Which broader context best explains the developments shown?

- A) Competition among British, French, and Native powers over the North American interior
- B) Federal efforts to desegregate public schools
- C) Debates over income taxes during the Progressive Era
- D) The rise of biotechnology after 1980

APUSH-MCQ12-010

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of colonial cooperation during the Seven Years' War era. The Albany Congress proposed greater coordination, British officials pursued war goals, colonial assemblies guarded local control, and Native diplomacy remained crucial. Which later development was influenced by tensions revealed during and after the war?

- A) The imperial crisis over taxation, authority, and colonial rights
- B) The collapse of all colonial assemblies
- C) The immediate creation of the Constitution in 1763
- D) The end of British authority in Canada

APUSH-MCQ12-011

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of colonial cooperation during the Seven Years' War era. The table shows proposed colonial coordination, British imperial goals, local assembly resistance, and Native diplomacy. Which argument is best supported?

- A) The war strengthened empire while also revealing political disagreements that later contributed to imperial crisis.
- B) The war made colonial self-government disappear completely.
- C) The war eliminated Native influence in the interior.
- D) The war reduced British interest in North America.

APUSH-MCQ12-012

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Virginia religious freedom petition, 1780s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “No citizen’s tax should build another man’s church, and no office should test the soul. Religion, if true, needs no magistrate to compel belief.” Which issue is most directly reflected?

- A) The campaign for temperance reform
- B) Disestablishment and religious liberty in the Revolutionary era
- C) The debate over the Kansas-Nebraska Act
- D) The creation of the Freedmen’s Bureau

APUSH-MCQ12-013

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Virginia religious freedom petition, 1780s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The petition opposes tax support for churches and religious tests for office. Which claim is best supported?

- A) Revolutionary-era ideas of liberty could extend to church-state relations and freedom of conscience.
- B) State governments universally strengthened established churches after independence.
- C) Religious liberty debates had no relationship to republican government.
- D) Petitioners wanted Congress to create one national church.

APUSH-MCQ12-014

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Period 3: 1754–1800

Period: Period 3: 1754–1800

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Virginia religious freedom petition, 1780s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The petition rejects tax-supported churches and religious tests for public office. Which later principle is most closely connected to this argument?

- A) Federal protection for free exercise and limits on religious establishment
- B) Federal support for plantation slavery
- C) National prohibition of immigration
- D) Federal creation of standard time zones

APUSH-MCQ12-015

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated diplomatic summary, 1823, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “European monarchies must not treat the newly independent republics of this hemisphere as fields for recolonization. The United States claims no right to govern them, but it declares a separate political interest in the Americas.” Which policy is most directly reflected?

- A) The Open Door policy
- B) Containment
- C) The Monroe Doctrine
- D) The Teller Amendment

APUSH-MCQ12-016

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated diplomatic summary, 1823, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The summary warns European monarchies against recolonizing newly independent republics in the Americas. Which broader context best explains the policy?

- A) Latin American independence movements and U.S. concern over European intervention
- B) The rise of the New Deal
- C) The creation of NATO after World War II
- D) The end of all Spanish influence in North America before 1700

APUSH-MCQ12-017

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated diplomatic summary, 1823, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The statement declares a separate U.S. political interest in the Americas while denying a right to govern newly independent republics. The purpose of the statement was most likely to do which of the following?

- A) Invite European monarchies to recolonize Latin America
- B) Announce that the United States would abandon the Western Hemisphere
- C) Warn European powers while defining a U.S. sphere of interest
- D) Create immediate U.S. colonies in every Latin American republic

APUSH-MCQ12-018

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated diplomatic summary, 1823, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The statement warns against European recolonization and declares a separate U.S. political interest in the Americas. Which argument about early nineteenth-century foreign policy is best supported?

- A) The United States sought to define regional influence even while its military power remained limited.
- B) The United States rejected all interest in the Western Hemisphere.
- C) The Monroe Doctrine created an alliance with European monarchies.
- D) Latin American independence had no effect on U.S. policy.

APUSH-MCQ12-019

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated free Black church meeting notice, 1830s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “Members will gather to raise school funds, support widows, aid fugitives when law permits, and defend the dignity of our people against insult in streets, courts, and churches.” Which development is most directly reflected?

- A) Free Black institution-building in northern communities
- B) The creation of the Social Security system
- C) The rise of the cattle kingdom
- D) The annexation of the Philippines

APUSH-MCQ12-020

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated free Black church meeting notice, 1830s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The notice calls for school funds, support for widows, aid to fugitives when law permits, and defense against insult in streets, courts, and churches. Which claim is best supported?

- A) Free Black churches and mutual-aid networks combined religion, education, community welfare, and civil rights advocacy.
- B) Free Black communities avoided institution-building before the Civil War.
- C) Northern free Black activism focused only on western land policy.
- D) Free Black churches rejected education and community support.

APUSH-MCQ12-021

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Period 4: 1800–1848

Period: Period 4: 1800–1848

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated free Black church meeting notice, 1830s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The notice links schooling, mutual aid, fugitives, and dignity against discrimination. Which broader antebellum issue is most directly reflected?

- A) The struggle by free African Americans to claim citizenship, community autonomy, and public respect despite racism
- B) The decline of all Black activism before emancipation
- C) The federal government's full protection of free Black rights
- D) The end of racial discrimination in northern cities

APUSH-MCQ12-022

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Pacific Railway Act effects.

Policy or condition | Development

Federal land grants | Supported railroad construction

War context | Southern opposition weakened during the Civil War

Railroad route | Linked eastern networks to the Pacific

Labor force | Included Irish, Chinese, Civil War veteran, and other workers

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) The Civil War era federal government promoted western economic integration through railroad construction.
- B) The Pacific Railway Act prevented settlement beyond the Mississippi River.
- C) Transcontinental railroads were built without federal assistance.
- D) Railroad construction relied only on enslaved labor.

APUSH-MCQ12-023

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: GEO — Geography and the Environment

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Pacific Railway Act effects. Federal land grants supported railroad construction, Civil War politics weakened southern opposition, eastern networks were linked to the Pacific, and the labor force included Irish, Chinese, Civil War veteran, and other workers. Which geographic effect was most directly connected to this development?

- A) Faster movement of people, goods, and information across the continent
- B) Complete isolation of Pacific communities from eastern markets
- C) End of all migration into western territories
- D) Elimination of railroad towns in the Great Plains

APUSH-MCQ12-024

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Pacific Railway Act effects. The table notes federal land grants, Civil War context, a route linking eastern networks to the Pacific, and a diverse railroad labor force. Which broader context best explains the act?

- A) Federal withdrawal from economic development during the Civil War
- B) Wartime Republican support for free-labor development, western settlement, and national market integration
- C) Congressional opposition to all transportation improvement
- D) British control of U.S. western railroads after 1861

APUSH-MCQ12-025

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of Pacific Railway Act effects. Federal land grants supported railroad construction, the Civil War changed congressional politics, eastern networks linked to the Pacific, and a diverse labor force built the railroad. Which argument about the Civil War era is best supported?

- A) The federal government expanded its role in economic development even while fighting the war.
- B) The Civil War stopped all national infrastructure projects.
- C) Western railroads had no relationship to national identity.
- D) Railroad policy ended all sectional and racial conflict.

APUSH-MCQ12-026

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Reconstruction congressional speech, 1868, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “If a president may dismiss the officers charged with carrying out the laws, and then defeat Congress by refusing execution, the nation must ask whether Reconstruction belongs to one man or to the people’s representatives.” Which issue is most directly reflected?

- A) The impeachment crisis involving Andrew Johnson and congressional Reconstruction
- B) The election of 1800
- C) The passage of the National Origins Act
- D) The Iran-Contra hearings

APUSH-MCQ12-027

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Reconstruction congressional speech, 1868, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The speaker argues that presidential dismissal of officers and refusal to execute laws raises whether Reconstruction belongs to the president or Congress. Which claim is best supported?

- A) Reconstruction involved conflict over separation of powers as well as policy toward the South.
- B) Congress and the president agreed on every Reconstruction policy.
- C) The impeachment crisis concerned only foreign policy.
- D) Presidential power disappeared during Reconstruction.

APUSH-MCQ12-028

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Reconstruction congressional speech, 1868, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The speech asks whether Reconstruction belongs to “one man” or “the people’s representatives.” Which broader context best explains the conflict?

- A) Disputes over how to readmit southern states and protect freedpeople’s rights after the Civil War
- B) The creation of Spanish missions in California
- C) The rise of Social Darwinism in the 1880s
- D) U.S. entry into NATO

APUSH-MCQ12-029

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Period 5: 1844–1877

Period: Period 5: 1844–1877

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Reconstruction congressional speech, 1868, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The speech criticizes presidential resistance to congressional Reconstruction laws. Which development was most directly connected to the congressional position?

- A) Military Reconstruction Acts and federal efforts to protect Black civil and political rights
- B) The Missouri Compromise
- C) The Alien and Sedition Acts
- D) The Open Door policy

APUSH-MCQ12-030

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described photograph, 1894. Hundreds of unemployed men march toward Washington, D.C., carrying signs demanding public works and relief during an economic depression. A leader speaks from a wagon about “the right to work.” Which event is most directly reflected?

- A) Coxey’s Army and protest during the depression of the 1890s
- B) The Boston Tea Party
- C) Freedom Summer
- D) The Oregon boundary settlement

APUSH-MCQ12-031

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described photograph, 1894. Unemployed men march toward Washington, D.C., carrying signs demanding public works and relief during an economic depression. Which broader economic context best explains the protest?

- A) The Panic of 1893, unemployment, and demands for federal action during industrial depression
- B) The rise of Cold War consumer culture
- C) The end of all wage labor in cities
- D) The creation of the Northwest Ordinance

APUSH-MCQ12-032

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described photograph, 1894. Unemployed workers march toward Washington, D.C., demanding public works and relief. The marchers’ likely purpose was to do which of the following?

- A) Persuade the federal government to address unemployment and economic distress
- B) Demand restoration of British colonial rule
- C) Oppose all public works programs
- D) Defend corporate wage cuts as natural law

APUSH-MCQ12-033

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described photograph, 1894. Unemployed workers march on Washington demanding public works and relief during economic depression. Which argument about the Gilded Age is best supported?

- A) Industrial depression encouraged some Americans to demand a larger federal role in economic security.
- B) The federal government had already created a modern welfare state by 1894.
- C) Unemployment had no political consequences in the 1890s.
- D) Industrial workers avoided public protest.

APUSH-MCQ12-034

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated anti-lynching pamphlet, 1890s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “The mob calls itself justice, yet it silences witnesses, mocks the courts, and teaches every Black family that law may vanish at the rope’s end.” Which movement is most directly reflected?

- A) Anti-lynching activism and Black journalism against racial terror
- B) The Free Soil movement
- C) The New Right
- D) The campaign for Lend-Lease

APUSH-MCQ12-035

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated anti-lynching pamphlet, 1890s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The pamphlet says mobs call themselves justice but silence witnesses, mock courts, and threaten Black families. Which claim is best supported?

- A) Anti-lynching activists argued that racial violence undermined both Black rights and the rule of law.
- B) Lynching was fully prosecuted by southern courts in the 1890s.
- C) Black journalists avoided criticism of racial violence.
- D) Anti-lynching activism had no relationship to citizenship.

APUSH-MCQ12-036

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Period 6: 1865–1898

Period: Period 6: 1865–1898

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated anti-lynching pamphlet, 1890s, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The pamphlet condemns mobs, failed courts, racial terror, and the denial of legal protection to Black families. Which broader pattern is most directly reflected?

- A) Black activists continued to challenge racial violence and unequal citizenship after Reconstruction.
- B) The federal government eliminated all racial violence after 1877.
- C) Southern states fully protected Black voting and legal rights in the 1890s.
- D) Racial violence declined because segregation ended.

APUSH-MCQ12-037

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Anti-Imperialist League statement, 1899, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. “A republic born from consent cannot hold islands by force and call it liberty. Empire abroad will corrupt freedom at home.” Which issue is most directly reflected?

- A) Opposition to U.S. annexation and rule of the Philippines after the Spanish-American War
- B) Support for the Monroe Doctrine in 1823
- C) Opposition to the Northwest Ordinance
- D) Debate over the Whiskey Rebellion

APUSH-MCQ12-038

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Anti-Imperialist League statement, 1899, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The statement argues that a republic based on consent cannot hold islands by force. Which point of view is most directly reflected?

- A) Anti-imperialists used founding ideals to criticize overseas empire.
- B) Anti-imperialists demanded permanent colonial rule over the Philippines.
- C) Anti-imperialists rejected the language of republican liberty.
- D) Anti-imperialists supported monarchy as a better system than republican government.

APUSH-MCQ12-039

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Anti-Imperialist League statement, 1899, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The statement condemns holding islands by force and warns that empire abroad corrupts freedom at home. Which broader context best explains this argument?

- A) U.S. victory over Spain raised debates about whether the United States should become an overseas imperial power.
- B) The United States had renounced all Pacific influence before 1898.
- C) The Civil War ended all debates over republican government.
- D) The Philippines had been part of the United States since the American Revolution.

APUSH-MCQ12-040

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: ARC — American and Regional Culture

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Original simulated Anti-Imperialist League statement, 1899, based on historical context, not an actual quotation. The statement argues that empire abroad threatens liberty at home. Which argument about U.S. imperialism is best supported?

- A) U.S. expansion overseas generated debate over whether republican ideals could coexist with colonial rule.
- B) All Americans agreed that overseas empire strengthened democracy.
- C) Anti-imperialists avoided moral and constitutional arguments.
- D) Overseas imperialism had no relationship to national identity.

APUSH-MCQ12-041

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: GEO — Geography and the Environment

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map and table of Tennessee Valley Authority projects, 1930s.

Feature | Development

Dams | Built for flood control and power

Rural electricity | Expanded in affected counties

Soil conservation | Promoted in farming areas

Local employment | Increased through construction projects

Which conclusion is best supported?

- A) The New Deal used regional planning to address poverty, energy access, flooding, and environmental management.
- B) The TVA ended all federal involvement in regional development.
- C) New Deal programs avoided rural areas.
- D) Rural electrification declined because of the TVA.

APUSH-MCQ12-042

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map and table of Tennessee Valley Authority projects, 1930s. Dams were built for flood control and power, rural electricity expanded, soil conservation was promoted, and local employment increased through construction. Which broader context best explains the program?

A) New Deal experimentation with federal planning during the Great Depression

B) The decline of federal power after 1933

C) The disappearance of poverty in the rural South before the Depression

D) The expansion of Spanish missions in California

APUSH-MCQ12-043

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map and table of Tennessee Valley Authority projects, 1930s. The table shows dams, electricity, soil conservation, and local employment. Which debate was most closely connected to such programs?

A) Whether the federal government should have a larger role in economic planning and regional development

B) Whether Britain should tax colonial paper goods

C) Whether churches should be established by state governments

D) Whether railroads should adopt standard time zones

APUSH-MCQ12-044

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Period 7: 1890–1945

Period: Period 7: 1890–1945

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described map and table of Tennessee Valley Authority projects, 1930s. Dams, rural electricity, soil conservation, and construction employment are shown. Which social effect was most directly connected to the program?

A) Improved access to electricity and jobs for some rural communities

B) Immediate end of all rural poverty

C) Elimination of all regional inequality in the South

D) Complete privatization of flood control

APUSH-MCQ12-045

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described newspaper photograph, Los Angeles, 1965. The image shows burned storefronts, police lines, National Guard vehicles, and residents gathered near signs protesting unemployment, police mistreatment, and poor housing. Which issue is most directly reflected?

- A) Urban unrest connected to racial inequality, policing, jobs, and housing
- B) The First Great Awakening
- C) The Oregon boundary dispute
- D) The creation of the Federal Reserve

APUSH-MCQ12-046

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: MIG — Migration and Settlement

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described newspaper photograph, Los Angeles, 1965. Burned storefronts, police lines, National Guard vehicles, and signs protesting unemployment, police mistreatment, and poor housing appear. Which broader context best explains the unrest?

- A) Persistent racial segregation, uneven urban opportunity, police conflict, and postwar metropolitan change
- B) Complete success in eliminating racial inequality by 1965
- C) Federal withdrawal from all urban policy after World War II
- D) Decline of all Black migration to western cities before 1940

APUSH-MCQ12-047

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described newspaper photograph, Los Angeles, 1965. The photograph shows burned storefronts, police lines, National Guard vehicles, and residents near signs about unemployment, police mistreatment, and poor housing. The likely purpose of publishing such an image was to do which of the following?

- A) Draw public attention to urban crisis and the limits of formal civil rights victories
- B) Promote the idea that all urban problems had been solved
- C) Encourage the end of all public discussion of policing
- D) Defend colonial taxation policies

APUSH-MCQ12-048

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Described newspaper photograph, Los Angeles, 1965. The image shows urban destruction, police lines, National Guard vehicles, and protest signs about unemployment, police mistreatment, and housing. Which argument about the civil rights era is best supported?

- A) Legal victories did not fully resolve structural inequalities in northern and western cities.
- B) Civil rights conflicts were limited to voting rights in the rural South.
- C) Urban unrest had no relationship to racial inequality.
- D) Federal civil rights law immediately eliminated conflicts over jobs and housing.

APUSH-MCQ12-049

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: WOR — America in the World

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of détente-era foreign policy, 1970s.

Pattern | Development

U.S.-Soviet arms talks | Produced agreements limiting some nuclear weapons

U.S.-China relations | Opened through diplomacy

Trade and grain sales | Expanded in some areas

Criticism | Some argued détente ignored human rights or strengthened rivals

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Détente combined negotiation with continuing Cold War rivalry and domestic criticism.
- B) Détente ended the Cold War completely in the 1970s.
- C) U.S.-China relations remained completely frozen after 1972.
- D) Arms-control talks eliminated nuclear weapons.

APUSH-MCQ12-050

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of détente-era foreign policy, 1970s. U.S.-Soviet arms talks produced some limits, U.S.-China relations opened, trade expanded in some areas, and critics argued détente ignored human rights or strengthened rivals. Which policy shift is most directly reflected?

- A) Movement from direct confrontation toward negotiation and strategic flexibility with Communist powers
- B) Complete U.S. withdrawal from global affairs
- C) End of all military alliances
- D) Abandonment of anticommunism by every U.S. political group

APUSH-MCQ12-051

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Period 8: 1945–1980

Period: Period 8: 1945–1980

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of détente-era foreign policy, 1970s. The table notes arms talks, opened relations with China, trade, and criticism over human rights and strategic concessions. Which broader issue is most directly reflected?

- A) Debate over whether diplomacy with rivals protected national security or compromised American values
- B) Debate over whether to create the Monroe Doctrine
- C) Conflict over Reconstruction amendments
- D) Opposition to the Erie Canal

APUSH-MCQ12-052

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: WXT — Work, Exchange, and Technology

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of housing and financial crisis patterns, c. 2007–2010.

Pattern | Development

Mortgage lending | Risky loans expanded before the crisis

Housing prices | Fell sharply in many regions

Foreclosures | Increased in many communities

Federal response | Included bank rescue measures, stimulus spending, and regulatory debates

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) The housing and financial crisis connected private lending, household wealth, community stability, and federal policy.
- B) Housing prices rose evenly in every region during the crisis.
- C) Federal officials refused to respond to financial instability.
- D) Foreclosures had no effect on communities.

APUSH-MCQ12-053

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: SOC — Social Structures

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of housing and financial crisis patterns, c. 2007–2010. Risky mortgage lending expanded before the crisis, housing prices fell, foreclosures increased, and federal responses included bank rescue measures, stimulus spending, and regulatory debates. Which broader context best explains the crisis?

- A) Growth of complex financial markets, household debt, deregulation debates, and housing speculation
- B) Decline of all mortgage lending after 1980

- C) Federal prohibition of homeownership after 2000
- D) The end of global financial connections before the crisis

APUSH-MCQ12-054

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: PCE — Politics and Power

Skill: Making Connections

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of housing and financial crisis patterns, c. 2007–2010. The table shows risky lending, falling housing prices, foreclosures, bank rescue measures, stimulus spending, and regulatory debates. Which earlier pattern is most similar?

- A) Recurring debates over whether the federal government should intervene during major economic crises
- B) Colonial debates over church membership
- C) The creation of the Oregon boundary settlement
- D) The development of Pacific Northwest plank-house societies

APUSH-MCQ12-055

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Period 9: 1980–Present

Period: Period 9: 1980–Present

Theme: NAT — American and National Identity

Skill: Argumentation

Prompt:

Stimulus: Plain-text table of housing and financial crisis patterns, c. 2007–2010. Risky mortgage lending expanded, housing prices fell, foreclosures increased, and federal responses produced debates over rescue, stimulus, and regulation. Which argument about recent U.S. history is best supported?

- A) Economic crises have continued to raise questions about inequality, risk, regulation, and the proper role of government.
- B) Financial crises ended public debate over regulation.
- C) Housing markets had no relationship to household security.
- D) Federal economic policy became irrelevant after 1980.

PART B — ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

APUSH-MCQ12-001 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Archaeological and Spanish administrative records showing population decline, tribute collection, and forced labor near mining settlements — Explanation: These records directly support the interpretation of demographic disruption, tribute, mining, and coerced labor in the early Spanish Caribbean.

APUSH-MCQ12-002 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: European conquest connected Native societies to Atlantic empires, Christianity, coerced labor, and demographic upheaval. — Explanation: The source describes early conquest as a process involving empire, missionary work, forced labor, disease, and Native disruption.

APUSH-MCQ12-003 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Spanish colonization in the Caribbean involved both violent disruption and Native attempts to respond to new imperial pressures. — Explanation: The interpretation emphasizes disease, forced labor, tribute, missionary pressure, and resistance.

APUSH-MCQ12-004 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The Yamasee War and conflict over trade, debt, and colonial expansion — Explanation: The report's references to Native trading partners, debt, fraud, enslavement, and frontier danger point to the Yamasee War.

APUSH-MCQ12-005 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Native-colonial trade relationships could become sources of conflict as well as cooperation. — Explanation: The source shows trade creating dependency, grievances, and violence rather than only peaceful exchange.

APUSH-MCQ12-006 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Expansion of English settlement, trade dependency, and Native resistance in the Southeast — Explanation: The Yamasee War grew from colonial expansion, trade abuses, enslavement, and Native resistance.

APUSH-MCQ12-007 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Native peoples and colonists negotiated, traded, and fought within unstable systems of power and exchange. — Explanation: The report shows borderlands as contested spaces involving commerce, power, and violence.

APUSH-MCQ12-008 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Imperial war exposed both the need for coordination and the persistence of local colonial interests. — Explanation: The table shows coordination efforts alongside assembly resistance and local interests.

APUSH-MCQ12-009 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Competition among British, French, and Native powers over the North American interior — Explanation: The Seven Years' War grew from imperial rivalry and Native diplomacy in the interior.

APUSH-MCQ12-010 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The imperial crisis over taxation, authority, and colonial rights — Explanation: Postwar imperial reform and colonial resistance followed tensions exposed and intensified by the war.

APUSH-MCQ12-011 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The war strengthened empire while also revealing political disagreements that later contributed to imperial crisis. — Explanation: British victory expanded imperial power but increased disputes over authority and colonial obligations.

APUSH-MCQ12-012 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Disestablishment and religious liberty in the Revolutionary era — Explanation: The petition's opposition to tax-supported churches and religious tests reflects disestablishment.

APUSH-MCQ12-013 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Revolutionary-era ideas of liberty could extend to church-state relations and freedom of conscience. — Explanation: The source applies liberty to religion, taxes, and public office.

APUSH-MCQ12-014 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Federal protection for free exercise and limits on religious establishment — Explanation: The petition anticipates constitutional principles limiting establishment and protecting religious liberty.

APUSH-MCQ12-015 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The Monroe Doctrine — Explanation: The warning against European recolonization and claim of a U.S. interest in the Americas reflect the Monroe Doctrine.

APUSH-MCQ12-016 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Latin American independence movements and U.S. concern over European intervention — Explanation: The Monroe Doctrine responded to new Latin American republics and fear of European recolonization.

APUSH-MCQ12-017 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Warn European powers while defining a U.S. sphere of interest — Explanation: The statement warns Europe while asserting a distinct U.S. interest in the hemisphere.

APUSH-MCQ12-018 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The United States sought to define regional influence even while its military power remained limited. — Explanation: The doctrine asserted hemispheric claims before the United States had overwhelming military capacity.

APUSH-MCQ12-019 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Free Black institution-building in northern communities — Explanation: The notice shows Black churches supporting schools, mutual aid, fugitives, and public dignity.

APUSH-MCQ12-020 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Free Black churches and mutual-aid networks combined religion, education, community welfare, and civil rights advocacy. — Explanation: The notice links church life to schooling, welfare, fugitives, and resistance to discrimination.

APUSH-MCQ12-021 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The struggle by free African Americans to claim citizenship, community autonomy, and public respect despite racism — Explanation: The source shows free Black communities organizing for dignity and rights despite discrimination.

APUSH-MCQ12-022 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The Civil War era federal government promoted western economic integration through railroad construction. — Explanation: The table links federal land grants, wartime politics, labor, and transcontinental connection.

APUSH-MCQ12-023 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Faster movement of people, goods, and information across the continent — Explanation: A transcontinental railroad directly accelerated continental movement and market integration.

APUSH-MCQ12-024 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Wartime Republican support for free-labor development, western settlement, and national market integration — Explanation: The act reflected Republican development goals made easier by the absence of southern opposition.

APUSH-MCQ12-025 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The federal government expanded its role in economic development even while fighting the war. — Explanation: The Pacific Railway Act shows expanded federal economic action during the Civil War.

APUSH-MCQ12-026 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The impeachment crisis involving Andrew Johnson and congressional Reconstruction — Explanation: The speech refers to presidential resistance to congressional Reconstruction and dismissal of officials.

APUSH-MCQ12-027 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Reconstruction involved conflict over separation of powers as well as policy toward the South. — Explanation: The source frames Reconstruction as a struggle between Congress and the president.

APUSH-MCQ12-028 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Disputes over how to readmit southern states and protect freedpeople's rights after the Civil War — Explanation: Johnson's conflict with Congress centered on the direction of Reconstruction.

APUSH-MCQ12-029 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Military Reconstruction Acts and federal efforts to protect Black civil and political rights — Explanation: Congressional Reconstruction involved military districts and stronger protections for freedpeople's rights.

APUSH-MCQ12-030 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Coxey's Army and protest during the depression of the 1890s — Explanation: The march on Washington by unemployed men demanding public works reflects Coxey's Army.

APUSH-MCQ12-031 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The Panic of 1893, unemployment, and demands for federal action during industrial depression — Explanation: Coxey's Army emerged from severe unemployment and economic distress after the Panic of 1893.

APUSH-MCQ12-032 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Persuade the federal government to address unemployment and economic distress — Explanation: The marchers demanded public works and relief from the federal government.

APUSH-MCQ12-033 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Industrial depression encouraged some Americans to demand a larger federal role in economic security. — Explanation: The protest shows pressure for federal action before the modern welfare state.

APUSH-MCQ12-034 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Anti-lynching activism and Black journalism against racial terror — Explanation: The pamphlet's criticism of mobs and failed courts reflects anti-lynching activism.

APUSH-MCQ12-035 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Anti-lynching activists argued that racial violence undermined both Black rights and the rule of law. — Explanation: The source condemns mob violence as a denial of law and citizenship.

APUSH-MCQ12-036 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Black activists continued to challenge racial violence and unequal citizenship after Reconstruction. — Explanation: The pamphlet shows continued Black activism against violence and legal inequality in the 1890s.

APUSH-MCQ12-037 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Opposition to U.S. annexation and rule of the Philippines after the Spanish-American War — Explanation: The source criticizes holding islands by force and reflects anti-imperial opposition.

APUSH-MCQ12-038 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Anti-imperialists used founding ideals to criticize overseas empire. — Explanation: The statement uses consent and republican liberty to criticize colonial rule.

APUSH-MCQ12-039 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: U.S. victory over Spain raised debates about whether the United States should become an overseas imperial power. — Explanation: The Spanish-American War and Philippine annexation triggered anti-imperialist arguments.

APUSH-MCQ12-040 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: U.S. expansion overseas generated debate over whether republican ideals could coexist with colonial rule. — Explanation: The source argues that empire abroad threatens republican liberty at home.

APUSH-MCQ12-041 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The New Deal used regional planning to address poverty, energy access, flooding, and environmental management. — Explanation: TVA dams, electricity, soil conservation, and jobs show federal regional planning.

APUSH-MCQ12-042 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: New Deal experimentation with federal planning during the Great Depression — Explanation: The TVA reflected New Deal experimentation in regional economic and environmental planning.

APUSH-MCQ12-043 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Whether the federal government should have a larger role in economic planning and regional development — Explanation: TVA projects raised debates over federal planning and public power.

APUSH-MCQ12-044 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Improved access to electricity and jobs for some rural communities — Explanation: Rural electrification and construction employment affected communities in the Tennessee Valley.

APUSH-MCQ12-045 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Urban unrest connected to racial inequality, policing, jobs, and housing — Explanation: The photograph's signs, police lines, National Guard vehicles, and damage point to urban unrest and structural inequality.

APUSH-MCQ12-046 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Persistent racial segregation, uneven urban opportunity, police conflict, and postwar metropolitan change — Explanation: Urban uprisings grew from inequality in housing, policing, employment, and metropolitan development.

APUSH-MCQ12-047 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Draw public attention to urban crisis and the limits of formal civil rights victories — Explanation: The image highlights unresolved urban problems after major civil rights victories.

APUSH-MCQ12-048 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Legal victories did not fully resolve structural inequalities in northern and western cities. — Explanation: The photograph shows continuing inequality outside the rural South and beyond formal legal segregation.

APUSH-MCQ12-049 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Détente combined negotiation with continuing Cold War rivalry and domestic criticism. — Explanation: The table shows arms talks, China diplomacy, trade, and criticism of détente.

APUSH-MCQ12-050 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Movement from direct confrontation toward negotiation and strategic flexibility with Communist powers — Explanation: Détente involved negotiation with the Soviet Union and opening relations with China.

APUSH-MCQ12-051 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Debate over whether diplomacy with rivals protected national security or compromised American values — Explanation: Critics debated whether détente improved security or ignored human rights and strengthened rivals.

APUSH-MCQ12-052 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The housing and financial crisis connected private lending, household wealth, community stability, and federal policy. — Explanation: The table links mortgages, falling housing prices, foreclosures, and federal response.

APUSH-MCQ12-053 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Growth of complex financial markets, household debt, deregulation debates, and housing speculation — Explanation: The crisis emerged from financial complexity, mortgage risk, debt, and housing speculation.

APUSH-MCQ12-054 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Recurring debates over whether the federal government should intervene during major economic crises — Explanation: The response to the crisis revived long-running debates over federal economic intervention.

APUSH-MCQ12-055 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Economic crises have continued to raise questions about inequality, risk, regulation, and the proper role of government. — Explanation: The table shows crisis conditions and debates over rescue, stimulus, regulation, and inequality.

SECTION 2 — SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — DO NOT IMPORT

SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — APUSH-MCQ12

- APUSH-MCQ12-001–003: Unit 1; Period 1; Taino communities, Spanish Caribbean settlements, missionaries, tribute collectors, gold-field labor systems; secondary-source interpretation with described Caribbean contact map; disease, forced labor, tribute, missionary activity, Native disruption and resistance; claims-evidence and conquest-causation path; Hispaniola settlement/labor map; targets misconception that early Spanish contact was only exploration or peaceful exchange.
- APUSH-MCQ12-004–007: Unit 2; Period 2; Yamasee and other southeastern Native peoples, South Carolina traders, merchants, frontier officials; original simulated South Carolina council report, 1715; Yamasee War, deerskin trade, debt, fraud, Native enslavement, frontier violence; sourcing and borderlands political-economy path; primary-source-style colonial council report; targets misconception that Native-colonial trade was stable or one-sided.
- APUSH-MCQ12-008–011: Unit 3; Period 3; Albany Congress delegates, British officials, colonial assemblies, French forces, Native diplomats; colonial cooperation table during Seven Years' War era; Albany Plan, imperial war, assembly control, Native diplomacy, coordination problems; data/table and imperial-crisis causation path; war-cooperation table; targets misconception that British victory created imperial unity without political tension.
- APUSH-MCQ12-012–014: Unit 3; Period 3; Virginia religious dissenters, state lawmakers, taxpayers, officeholders, church communities; original simulated religious freedom petition, 1780s; disestablishment, tax-supported churches, religious tests, freedom of conscience, church-state relations; sourcing and rights-development path; primary-source-style religious liberty petition; targets misconception that Revolutionary liberty debates were only about voting or taxation.
- APUSH-MCQ12-015–018: Unit 4; Period 4; U.S. diplomats, Latin American republics, European monarchies, hemispheric observers; original simulated diplomatic summary, 1823; Monroe Doctrine, Latin American independence, noncolonization warning, U.S. sphere of interest, limited power; sourcing and foreign-policy argument path; diplomatic-policy excerpt; targets misconception that early U.S. foreign policy was isolationist or unconcerned with the hemisphere.
- APUSH-MCQ12-019–021: Unit 4; Period 4; free Black church members, northern Black communities, widows, students, fugitives, antidiscrimination activists; original simulated free Black church notice, 1830s; mutual aid, schooling, fugitives, dignity, religion, community autonomy, citizenship claims; sourcing and institution-building path; primary-source-style church meeting notice; targets misconception that free Black communities lacked organized activism before the Civil War.

- APUSH-MCQ12-022–025: Unit 5; Period 5; Republican policymakers, railroad corporations, Irish and Chinese workers, Civil War veterans, western settlers; Pacific Railway Act effects table; federal land grants, Civil War politics, transcontinental railroads, labor diversity, national market integration; data/table and federal-development path; railroad policy table; targets misconception that Civil War-era government focused only on military policy.

- APUSH-MCQ12-026–029: Unit 5; Period 5; Andrew Johnson, congressional Republicans, freedpeople, southern states, federal officers; original simulated Reconstruction congressional speech, 1868; impeachment crisis, separation of powers, congressional Reconstruction, presidential resistance, freedpeople's rights; sourcing and constitutional-conflict path; primary-source-style congressional speech; targets misconception that Reconstruction conflict was only regional and not also institutional.

- APUSH-MCQ12-030–033: Unit 6; Period 6; unemployed industrial workers, Coxey's Army marchers, federal officials, depression-era urban and rural communities; described 1894 protest photograph; Panic of 1893, unemployment, public works demand, federal relief debate; visual analysis and economic-protest path; unemployment march photograph visual; targets misconception that federal economic-security demands began only in the New Deal.

- APUSH-MCQ12-034–036: Unit 6; Period 6; Black journalists, anti-lynching activists, southern mobs, courts, Black families, reform audiences; original simulated anti-lynching pamphlet, 1890s; racial terror, failed courts, rule of law, Black rights, citizenship, public advocacy; sourcing and racial-justice argument path; pamphlet text stimulus; targets misconception that Black activism ended after Reconstruction or that lynching was only private violence.

- APUSH-MCQ12-037–040: Unit 7; Period 7; Anti-Imperialist League members, Philippine communities, U.S. policymakers, republican critics, overseas expansionists; original simulated anti-imperialist statement, 1899; consent, republican liberty, Philippine annexation, empire, constitutional and moral critique; sourcing and imperialism-argument path; political statement excerpt; targets misconception that overseas expansion after 1898 was nationally uncontested.

- APUSH-MCQ12-041–044: Unit 7; Period 7; Tennessee Valley rural communities, New Deal planners, construction workers, farmers, electricity users; described TVA map and project table, 1930s; dams, flood control, rural electrification, soil conservation, employment, federal regional planning; map/data and New Deal policy path; TVA regional planning map/table; targets misconception that New Deal programs were only direct relief and not regional development.

- APUSH-MCQ12-045–048: Unit 8; Period 8; Los Angeles residents, police, National Guard, Black urban communities, journalists, local officials; described 1965 newspaper photograph of urban unrest; Watts-style uprising, unemployment, policing, housing, metropolitan inequality, limits of legal civil rights victories; visual analysis and urban-crisis argument path; newspaper photograph visual; targets misconception that civil rights issues were only southern or solved by formal legal victories.

- APUSH-MCQ12-049–051: Unit 8; Period 8; U.S. policymakers, Soviet officials, Chinese leaders, human-rights critics, Cold War voters; détente-era foreign-policy table, 1970s; arms control, opening to China, trade, strategic flexibility, criticism over human rights and rivals; data/table and

Cold War diplomacy path; détente policy table; targets misconception that Cold War policy was always direct confrontation.

· APUSH-MCQ12-052–055: Unit 9; Period 9; mortgage borrowers, banks, homeowners, foreclosed communities, federal regulators, economic policymakers; housing and financial crisis table, c. 2007–2010; risky lending, falling housing prices, foreclosures, bank rescue, stimulus, regulation debates; data/table and economic-crisis argument path; financial crisis table; targets misconception that recent economic crises involve only banks and not households, communities, and federal policy.